

Our Carbon Advocate.

LEHIGHTON, PA.: SATURDAY, APRIL 25, 1885.

Entered at the Lehighton post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

Mrs. Mary Moorehead, of Pittsburgh, claims to have been cured of sickness by prayer, and nine persons living at Midway, make like assertions as to themselves.

Fred Douglas has excited consternation in Republican circles at Washington by a bitter arraignment of the Republican party and an earnest eulogy of President Cleveland.

After one trial the Democratic County Standing Committee of Lehigh on Monday, by a vote of 24 to 3 abstained from the Crawford county system, and a new rule will be adopted in reference to choosing delegates to conventions.

The Keyser (W. Va.) Echo, one of the leading Republican papers of that State, comes out in a strong editorial article, insisting that the time has come for the Republican party to declare for prohibition, and that unless the party does so it is lost.

General Grant's condition has continued to improve so much through the week that his friends have begun to have hopes of his recovery.

On the track. The Philadelphia Times gives the following list of eligibles in the gubernatorial race:

If the Democrats go to the coal regions for a candidate for Governor Eckley B. Cox could not stave.

Secretary Stenger is the choice of a part of the present administration for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

General Deaver wouldn't be surprised to get the Republican nomination for Governor. He would accept it, but he says he will not go into a scramble for it.

The understanding is that Chris Magee has a very warm feeling for Judge Howard J. Reeder, of Evesboro, and it is not improbable that Reeder may be nominated for Governor.

Colonel Snowden, of the Mint, would make an eloquent candidate for Governor, provided President Cleveland does not reappoint him for his services on the stump last fall.

Malcom May may get a good send-off for the Democratic nomination for Governor, when he settles down in the Post Office Department, and begins to hand around the post office.

Lieutenant Governor Black is likely to be the most conspicuous figure in the Democratic gubernatorial field.

There are here and there suggestions of Ex-Speaker Randall as the Democratic candidate for Governor, but he does not come from Randall's friends.

If Philadelphia is to offer the Republican Convention a candidate for Governor there are many who will insist upon District Attorney Graham.

everywhere up to Mr. Cleveland's accession. To the true Democratic rotation in office is one of the cardinal principles of our political faith.

New Orleans Letter.

There is one pleasure in this world which, unlike most others, is strengthened by indulgence—that of looking upon beautiful pictures.

It is pleasant to see that the Wall Street sharpers occasionally come to grief.

The game was only small, but it caused quite a flutter in the streets.

It is interesting to note that the Mutual Union Telegraph 1800 shares were out, so that cornering was not a very expensive job.

FROM WASHINGTON

Special to the Carbon Advocate. WASHINGTON, April 18, 1885. President Cleveland and his administration seem to be juggling along notwithstanding the terrible threats of the old line Democrats to annihilate it inside of a month.

Mr. Cleveland has given out one bit of advice to all who call on him in a disinterested frame of mind. He does not make any promises but he simply tells them all to wait and that in due time every section of the country will be recognized by the administration.

It was with no small degree of pleasure that the New York received the news of the conviction of the sanctimonious old waddler, Fish. An effort is being made to get up sympathy for this notorious old rascal by people who forget the thousands whom he and Ward helped drag down to ruin.

California at New Orleans.

The older reader will remember how, that forty years ago, California was scarcely heard mentioned in the United States, and if read of at all, only as a far off country, a sort of desert land, inhabited by barbarians and pirates.
