MISCELLANEOUS.

Girls are more courageous than men...

When a Chicago woman looks at a male fashion plate...

Piles! Piles! Piles!!!

Conscience is the central station on the telephone wire...

—An Eastern editor says that a Chinese paper looks like the map of a Delaware peach orchard.

To You, Ladies.

—If your life is made a burden owing to blackheads, pimples and eruptions...

—Make friends with your creditors if you can, but never make a creditor of your friend.

—The man who was largely instrumental in the mechanical turn of mind.

Rose Cold and Hay Fever.

Are types of catarrh having peculiar symptoms.

—A man who recently used the Syracuse Herald for libel has committed suicide.

—He who has fair words only is like one who feeds the sick with an empty spoon...

The Voice of the People.

The people, as a whole, seldom make mistakes...

—It is the man with the basket of eggs who always manages to establish the most disastrous connection with the pavement...

—No life can be utterly miserable that is lightened by the laughter and love of a little child.

Persons who are past fifty will find Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy just about the medicine they need when they need a medicine at all.

By malaria, how shall we escape the dread infection?

—An Irish baronet died recently leaving an estate with an income of $50,000 to a daughter whose whereabouts is unknown.

—The soprano who wishes to upper C and thrills on it is a wild-ras.

Reset on all Sides.

By malaria, how shall we escape the dread infection?

—Most of us know our origin if we may judge of the proverb which says: "He that is born of a hen must scratch for a living."

—It is a clever speculator who can get a snap on hard times.

Bad drainage causes much sickness.

—What the country is now suffering for is a last-esting contest.

—Florida is in the midst of the melon season. Does the news make you hanker for a coll that would twist you up like a doughnut?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is designed for those who need medicine to purify their blood...

—Somebody has well said: "Anxiety is the poison of human life."

—The most manifest sign of wisdom is continued cheerfulness.

—Uncle Sam's coaters should properly do on Mini Juleps.

Alcohol was not invented and minerals were never used unadvisedly in the days of old.

—An anonymous article: a baby before is christened.

—The worship of mammon is the height of contentment.

STONE IN THE KIDNEY

Excelling after using Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy"...

One of the most remarkable cases that has ever been brought to the notice of the public...

By the urgent solicitations of his friends he was induced to try Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy"...

Mr. Beach concludes a long letter to Dr. Kennedy by saying: "It will always afford me pleasure to recommend your 'Favorite Remedy' to those who may be suffering from difficulties of the Kidney or Bladder, or any disorder arising from an impure state of the blood."

—Give meadows a top-dressing of old manure or fine compost.

—The old New England method was to work corn three times.

—Thin the root-crops. Sow Striped turnips in drills twenty-eight inches apart...

Life at Fort Reno.

BY JULIAN HURT.

About six months since, being at that time a clerk in a large wholesale store in Philadelphia...

The Indian Territory, as its name implies consists of Indian reservations...

I was obliged to make the last hundred miles of my journey by stage-coach...

Provision is made for amusement. We have a grand and upright piano, and other musical instruments...

Of course we see plenty of cow-boys. They are a set of hard-working fellows...

The Indians are inclined to be troublesome, and the Indian agent has no easy time...

We have plenty of sport. The fishing is splendid. Though not plentiful, the fish are very large...

I have tried to give Eastern boys an idea of how we live on the frontier...
