flourishing. The machine shors, such as the Vulcan Iron Works, the Dickson

Manufacturing Company's works, the Wyoming Manufacturing Company and the Pittston Engine and Machine Company, are working on full time with plenty orders ahead. As they depend chiefly on the coal trade, so long as the collieries are running there is alwaya work in hand. BETHLEHEM-Every department of the Bethlehem Iron Company's works is running, and there are no such labor troubles as there were a year ago. Shirt works, flouring milis and knitting mills are busy with daily increasing orders, and a silk ribbon factory, with eleven home and thirty hands was started on
