THE PHILADELPHIA MINT.

The U. S. Mint in Philadelphia is under investigation. Large purchases of machinery, etc., just before Superintendent Snowden gave way to Mr. For.

The Treasury Department is doing in the Philadelphia Mint just what it is doing in all branches of that department.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

In another column of to-day's Advocate will be found the proceedings of the Democratic Convention, from which it will be seen that the gentlemen

The nominee for Sheriff, Harvey B. Smith, is a young man resident in Weatherly, and for the past few years publisher of the Herald. He was ably supported by the delegation from that place; hence, we must infer that he is deserving and fully competent for the position.

Nathan Steiner, of Stemlersville, will also be a capital Jury Commissioner, as will Dr. J. A. Horn, of March Chunk, fill the office of Coroner to the people's satisfaction.

Small Mediterranean oysters, considered by gourmets as the most delicate of all bivalves, are now canned for exportation from Italy.

At Conyers, Ont., a day or two ago, there was committed to an insane hospital a "prominent citizen," who is asserted to have been "driven crazy by the ceremony of baptism."

The Prince of Wales, it is estimated, is entitled to wear seventy different uniforms. He has a right to seventeen different military uniforms alone, and special costumes without number associated with his various titles and offices.

The methods of the American ambulance service, suspension harness and all, are warmly praised in Liverpool, where they have been in use for some time.

Among the assets of an estate just settled at Albany, N. Y., was $20,000 worth of street railway stock, which brought only 10 cents.

San Francisco fishermen say the seals and sea lions in the harbor must go. They consume 44,000 tons of fish a year—enough to supply the whole city.

Special to the CANTON ADVOCATE.

Yacht, Yacht, Yacht; Race, Race, Race; Genoa and Puritan; Puritan and Genoa—nothing else to talk about—nothing else to think about; for this week has been devoted to the race.

The opening day, though fine as silk for a lady who had a little shopping to do, was but a pinch of snuff for a yacht race. Yet the assemblage of yachts was one of the grandest marine sights

The present car is the most ardent waltzer in St. Petersburg, and often catches hold of the young court ladies to give them a spin without music and without ceremony.
