BISMARCK'S LATEST MOVE.

N. Y. Exam'ner: Two millions of our fellow-citizen; are of German birth. According to recent reports, the German Chancellor is betching a plot against their interests. The trouble has sprung from the following facts.

The Germans probably leve their the world, and they leave it with regret. But they have been drawn to us by the opportunities for advancement, and once here they have identified themselves with our interests, and are recognized as constituting a valuable element of our citizenship. But Bismarck, who wants them all to remain at home, and subject themselves to military duty, has siways frowned on their transfer of al-
