People in and out of Town.

Our people who may have relatives or friends visiting them will greatly oblige us by calling on the Carbon Advocate for publication under this head.—EDITOR.

Miss Minnie Peters is on a visit to New York City.

—Mrs. W. W. Mortimer spent Wednesday in Lehigh Gap, visiting relatives and friends.

—Miss Mary Barr, of town, was visiting friends in Tamany and Mahanoy City this week.

—Our genial friend A. A. Graver, of Mountain Top, spent Sunday among friends in town.

—Miss Aggie Sharpless, an estimable young lady, is the guest of Miss Emma Reber, on Bank street.

—Our genial young friend Al. K. Leueck, of the Lehigh University, came home to "paralyze the Thanksgiving turkey."

—Misses Nora Clark, of Nesquehoning and Mary Barry, of East Mauch Chunk spent Thanksgiving Day with Miss Annie Clark, on Bank street.

—A letter from our old friend, P. T. Barry, of Red Bank, N. J., formerly of this place, informs us that he is well, and concludes with kind regards to all his old friends.

—Mrs. Froehlich, Mrs. Leuchelner, Mrs. Hontz and Henry Froehlich, left for Minneapolis, Minn., on Tuesday evening, after a visit to their friends here for a few weeks.

—A letter from our friend, John G. Biery, of Newcastle, W. T., formerly of Westport, states that he is well and doing fairly well in that far Western territory. He desires us to remember him kindly to all his old friends.

—The county superintendent visited our schools last week.

—Wm. Sittler improved his dwelling last week with a new roof.

—Many of our farmers have been slaughtering during the past week for fear of the swine plague.

Catarrh Can be Cured

That exceedingly disagreeable and very prevalent disease, catarrh, is caused by secretions taint in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla, by its powerful purifying and vitalizing action upon the blood, speedily removes the cause, and thus effects a radical and permanent cure of catarrh.

The Best Medicine

I have suffered with catarrh in my head for years, and paid out hundreds of dollars for medicines, but have heretofore received only temporary relief.

Catarrh and Impure Blood

Hood's Sarsaparilla has helped me more for catarrh and impure blood than anything else I ever used.
