Our Neighborhood in Brief.

Hit to the bells in the cradle, and the grand old of the snow...

—Lent this year begins on March 10. If your skin is yellow, or if you are troubled with pimples and boils...

—The estate of late R. E. Wright is valued at between $80,000 and $75,000. It is mainly left to his wife and children.

—Go to Mrs. Bolzer, under the Exchange Hotel, for a smooth shave and a fashionable hair cut.

—John Leach, one of the oldest and best known business men of Bethlehem, died Saturday from the effects of blood poisoning.

—When an article is sold "no cure, no pay," why not try J. J. Adams' cold and croup, is sold at Thomas'.

—A very enjoyable birthday surprise party came off on Tuesday evening at the residence of John Swartz, on Fourth street, it being the 21st anniversary of Mr. S's birth.

—No wonder that people complain of hard times when they pay 50c for a bottle of cough syrup, or larger for a 25c bottle of J. J. Adams' tar syrup, which is sold "no cure, no pay." Thomas sells it.

—Miss Congdon, a teacher of Nanticoke, who was charged with keeping two children out of school until they were nearly frozen, because of their tardiness, has, after an examination, been exonerated.

—Save half your cough medicine bills by buying a 25c bottle of J. J. Adams' tar syrup, which contains 3 ounces, while no other cough syrup contains over 1-1/2. Sold at Thomas' drug store.

—Owin Gehman, of Macungie, Lehigh county, has been arrested for entering the house of an old couple and demanding $20, but finally accepted a proffer of $2, which was all that the old people possessed.

—Cluss & Bie, The Tailors, still have a few of those justly celebrated $10 suitings on hand.

—E. W. Molter, charged in the Mauch Chunk courts with embezzling the funds of the Lansford Building and Loan Association, was found guilty last Friday on nineteen counts preferred against him.

—It is the poor man's friend, but the rich man uses it also; because it is the best quality and largest bottle for the price, and is sold "no cure, no pay." We refer to J. J. Adams' tar syrup. Sold at Thomas'.

—The Board of Trade of White Haven is now a permanently organized and established institution of that town, and will have legal and corporate existence as the charter for it can be obtained.

—Governor Hoyt denies the rumor that he intends to return to Wilkes-Barre. He says "the enjoys life both socially and professionally in Philadelphia," and proposes to remain there. He does "not contemplate going back to Wilkes-Barre for good until he goes there to be buried."

—It is about time that people stopped signing papers without having even curiosity enough to examine their contents. Confidence men are now working with success the old game of a pretended agency, a sale of agricultural implements, or something of the kind, in various parts of the State.

—About nine o'clock Saturday morning Henry Fox and old and highly respected citizen of the Lehigh region, left his work at the Black Bridge Colliery, where he was employed, went to his home and upon entering the house drew from his pocket a large knife and plunged it into his breast, near the heart, causing death a few moments afterwards. He was seventy-six years of age. His friends know of no motive for the act beyond the fact that he was in poor health.

—A report was prevalent on Monday that Samuel Hudson, of Hulsebush, Quakake Valley, died suddenly of heart disease on Sunday. Mr. Hudson was well known in this section and was the owner of considerable property. He was aged about sixty years, and was the father of Samuel Hudson, Jr., well known in the county. Eight years ago he was nominated for the legislature on the Republican ticket in opposition to Hon. Michael Cassidy, of Nesquehoning, the Democratic nominee.

—A Black Friday.—That day, when a person is first seriously attacked with rheumatism, may be well termed a black one; but if he uses Salvation Oil in time, he will soon be able to speak of a "Good Friday." It is the greatest cure on earth for pain.

The butcher does have some funny expressions; he told his assistant the other day to break the bones in Mr. Williams' chops, and put Mr. Smith's ribs in the basket for him, and tell Mrs. Black to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for her cold.

—For the week ending Jan. 16th, there were 167,624 tons of coal shipped over the Lehigh Valley railroad, making a total to date of 834,275 tons, and showing an increase of 26,365 tons compared with the same time last year.

—I have on hand a full line of the blankets, lay robes, light and heavy harness, collars, whips, etc., all of the best quality and lowest prices. J. T. NUSBAUM, Opp. Public Square, Bank Street, Lehigh, Pa. Jan. 7, 1886.

—Moses Behrig, of town, has purchased 184 acres of land in Mahoning township from the Lehigh Valley Railroad for $2,000. This is considered a valuable property, 134 acres being woodland and the balance, fifty acres, good farming land.

—After a thorough test Dr. T. Horn Co. Lehigh Valley Railroad, has found it most positively that Acker's Eucalypti Remedy is the best medicine for Asthma, Croup, Coughs, Whooping Cough, and all other troubles of the throat and lungs. Try it, and you will be fully guaranteed.

—For $2.00 we will edit the CARBON ADVOCATE with the American Agriculturalist. 100 columns and 100 engravings in each issue. 40th year, $1.50 per year. Send three 2-cent stamps for sample copy (English or German) and Premium List of the oldest and best agricultural journal in the world. Address, Publishers American Agriculturalist, 731 Broadway, New York.

—Over one million boxes of Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets sold in the past twelve months, purely upon their merits. Why suffer with Chronic Constipation, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Sick Head, etc., and Female Troubles, when Dr. C. T. Horn Lehigh Valley and W. E. Biery Weissport, offer you relief and positive cure in the Dyspepsia Tablets. They sell them on a guarantee.

—While Abraham Roth, in company with his uncle, Peter Roth, was driving across the railroad at Schuylkill, Monday their conveyance was struck by a locomotive, Young Roth, who was married on Saturday last, was instantly killed and his uncle seriously injured.

—Dr. C. T. Horn Lehigh Valley and W. E. Biery Weissport, make no mistake as to the fact, which they can back with a positive guarantee. It is all about Acker's Eucalypti Remedy. They claim for it superior merits over all other remedies of its kind, and guarantee for it a positive and sure cure for Rheumatism, Syphilis, and all blood diseases. If you are in any of these troubles, try it, and you will be fully guaranteed.

—The Stanton Colliery, Wilkes-Barre, operated by the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company, is again idle on account of a inundation of water. The recent cold weather has further increased the difficulty of mining by causing the water dripping from the hoisting bucket to freeze and block up the shaft. A large force of men and boys has been rendered idle in consequence of the stoppage.

—Mrs. Tobias Moyer, aged 94 years, recently gave a reception to her ten surviving children in Upper Mount Bethel, Northampton county. The average age of the children is 61 years. There were also present fifty-two grandchildren, seventy-six great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

—Wanted! Fifty Girls! To knit and crochet. Good wages; not weekly. Light, steady work given out to be made at home. Work and material furnished, called for and delivered free by express. Hours 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M., 227 Washington Street, Boston, Mass. Jan. 23.

—The beautiful daughter of John Sobieski, a wealthy Pole of Mount Carmel, recently left home upon presence of visiting friends in Philadelphia. Monday the father was informed that his daughter had married John McKeown in Jersey City. Sobieski had selected a merchant of Shenandoah for his daughter, and he was on hand to carry out his part of the contract when the news of the marriage reached the father.

—For bargains in Wall Papers and Stationery, go to the book and stationery store of E. E. Luedersbach, 61 Broadway, Mauch Chunk, N. B. Decorations and borders at less than half price.

—Early Thursday morning of last week, while Mike Kukurick and Andrew Kerchub, two laborers, were on their way to work at No. 4 colliery, two miles west of Shenandoah, they were overtaken by a coal train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad. The men attempted to board the moving train. Kerchub was flung down an embankment, receiving slight bruises, but his companion, Kukurick, was drawn under the wheels and instantly killed.

—Wall Papers, in all grades, from the cheapest to the highest and best. Decorations and borders in large variety. Painting or Paper Hanging by competent workmen. Give me a call. E. E. Luedersbach, 61 Broadway, Mauch Chunk, Pa.

—An exchange says: "The Lehigh Valley Railroad's debut in Philadelphia is a consummation devoutly to be wished, but if it waits to appropriate the North Penn. in order to get there we fear it is fated to suffer the consequences of hope deferred."

—The inside boss at Preston No. 3 colliery, Schuylkill county, has been discharged for falling to save the lives of the twenty-eight mules drowned at that colliery last week. Had he saved the lives of the mules at the loss of a man and boy, he would probably have been promoted for his devotion to the company's interest.—Chronicle.

—The Prothonotary of Luzerne county Monday afternoon handed Commissioners a venire for a special jury to be drawn to grant a special order of Common Pleas to be held, beginning Tuesday, Feb. 23d, for the trial of the Cox-Dorring land cases. It would appear from this that the famous suits are to be no longer postponed, but are to come to actual trial at last.
