strike in this region, though if one were contemplated the miners and laborers of Special to the CARBON ADVOCATE. the anthracite regions were in better past. There are now 45,000 miners and aborers enrolled in the Amalgamated Association. Mr. Harris says he will devote all his time the next four weeks in organizing branches of the association in Luzerne county. The exact meaning of the new wages scale is that when coal sells in New York at $4 a ton the miner who works by the day is to be paid $12.75 a week instead of $12. the laborer $10 instead of $8.

THE Public Printer thinks the time has come for the construction of a new Government office. He feels cramped in the present immense building-the largest in the world for such a purposeand wants more elbow room for himself and his two thousand employees. It costs about $3,000,000 a year to print and bind the matter ordered by Congress and the departments. A very large part of this printing is utterly wasted. The junk shops are packed with public documents, some of which have cost five or six dollars a volume. This sort of thing has been going on for years, without any serious attempt to check it. The Government printing office has become practically an asylum for political pets, and for favorites of members of Congress. It would be a among the trades interested.

Pensions presents some curious facts. At the close of the last fiscal year there were on the rolls "2,045 survivors of the war of 1812, and 17,212 widows of those who served in that war." In other words the widows outnumbered the survivors six to one. According to the same authority the total number of applications filed from 1871, when the law took effect for this class of pensioners, to 1885 was: Survivors, 34,673; widows, 43,883. This shows how rapidly the survivors' whlows have gained on the survivors. When it is remembered that the war of 1812 closed over seventy years age, surprise may be well excited that there should now be more than twenty thousand pensioners on the rolls, of whom 17,212 are widows. At what age did they marry, and are soldiers' widows excentionally endowed with long lives? Exact answers to these questions would furnish interesting information, and might reduce the number of pensioners. The Commissioner says that "extended inquiries are being prosecuted with a view to purging the does not apply to any special class of
