get upon your ear and make up your mind to 'stop' your paper to make the editor feel humiliated, just poke your fingers in water and then pull them out and look for the hole. Then you will know how sadiy you are missed. The man who thinks a paper cannot survive without his support ought to go off and stay a while. When he comes back he will find that half his friends don't know he was gone. The other half didn's care a cent and the world at large hadn't kept any account of his move ments whatever. You will probably find some things in your home paper which you can't endorse. Even the which you can't endorse. Even the Bible is rather plain and hits some hard licks. If you were to get mad and burn your Bible the hundreds of presses would go on printing them, and if you were to stop your paper and call the cellitor all sorts of ugly names, the paper would still be published. And what is more, you will smeak around and borrow a copy of it every week from your neighbor. It is much better to keep your vest pulled down and your subscription is unsound. There is not a line in the Constitution which, in express terms or by any reasonable implication, norbils this legislation."

As to the question raised on the argument whether Leonard was a "canditation by his party within the meaning of the Constitution, Judge Paxson says:

The word 'cand date' in the Constitution is to be understood in its ordinary and building trades have made a decimal to the ten-hour day system.

There are seventeen building and loan as ociations, organized on the Philadelphia plan, in Jersey City. One of the most successful organizers, Mr. Charles F. Southard states that these associations are now worth $3,000,000 in money and realty, and of that aggregate two-thirds is held by daily wage the constitution, Judge Paxson says:
