Truth Stranger Than Fiction.

There is an old saying to the effect that "there is nothing hew under the sun," and yet from the following it would appear that there is an exception, even to this rule.

At a point six miles west of St. Augustine, Florida, on the line of the St. Johns Hallway, lies a beautiful tract of land which has recently been laid out in a town-site called, WEST ST. AUGUSTINE.

St. Augustine proper is the Olderst City in the United States, and abounds with legend lore, and historical antiquity, and few if any of the many thousands that visit Florida fall to take a look at the Sea Wall, Old Fort, and the many other interesting objects.

It was founded September six, 1665, forty-two years previous to the settlement of Jameslown, Va., and fifty-five years before the landing of the Pilgrines on Plymouth Rock. The name St. Augustine was given to the place by the Spaniards, because they landed upon the day dedicated to that revered and learned Saint. St. Augustine is growing rapidly, being the terminus of two milways, and others are being extended toward it, and it is now known as the HOTEL CHY OF FLORIDA.

The proprietors and owners of THE ILLUSTRATED SOUTHEARN WORLD, a sixteen page weekly illustrated paper saine size as Harper's Weckly, noting the great progress being made in the ANCIENT CITY, purchased a large tract of land near St. Augustine, from Mr. Wm. Astor, of New York, immediately on the line of the St. Johns Ralway, which is also owned by Mr. Astor, and in the midst of this tract and within two hundred feet of the railroad, have planted in a plot of 700 acres the city of WEST ST. AUGUSTINE.

From WEST ST. AUGUSTINE.

From WEST ST. AUGUSTINE.

From WEST ST. AUGUSTINE.

From WEST ST. AUGUSTINE, there exists direct daily connections for the St. Johns River, hine miles distant, with steambost connections going north and south, daily. To ST. AUGUSTINE, six miles distant.

In addition to this, the tract on which is also owned by West ST. AUGUSTINE, sin miles distant.

lot in the city of West St. Augustier, 40x 100 feet, free and clear of all incumbrances, and parties becoming owners of these lots are not respected, because of the delightful location that many will do so.

Florida to-day is the Mecca to which thousands are looking with longing eyes, and it is now made possible through the enterprise of the proprietors and owners of The Illustrace in that delightful State, park.

Many will no doubt wonder how it is possible for any one to arsonather from the proprietors and owners of The Augustingand yet the reasons, when explained are very simple. Adjacent to the lands upon which is located the city of West St. Augustingand yet the reasons, when explained are very simple. Adjacent to the lands upon which is located the city of West St. Augusting, the representation of the proprietors and owners of The Illustratum Southwest work of the first particular they no doubt expect will greatly enhance in value, these lands will be by them divided in joids of structure and first parties and sold as the value increases, which, as the lots are taken will be very rapid, they also have in view a desire to induce subscribers to become actual settlers in the State, and at the same time secure for the paper an extensive paid up circulation.

The Illustrature Southers World contains seven or more pages of filustrations and it is, replete with close literature. No
