INTERNATIONAL LESSONS.

BY REV. F. B. HARGREAVES.

QUARTERLY REVIEW. Lesson 1. The Word Made Flesh.

John 1. 1-18.

This lesson is the introduction to the study of Christ's life as given in the writings of John, and furnishes us with the proof that Christ was the incarnate Son of time.

Lesson 2, The First Disciples. John 1, 1-18. John the Baptist was preaching re-John the Baptist was preaching re-pentance and baptizing the people at the Bethabara ford on the river Jordan. Two of his disciples heard him speak of Jesus as the Messiah and followed Him. They were His first disciples and at once commenced active work for Him. Lesson 3. The First Miracle. At a wedding feast in Cana of Galilee to which Jesus had been invited, the supply of wine ran short, whereupon our Lord turned water into wine. This was his first miracle, and consequently the first public demonstration of his Lesson 4. Jesus and Nicademus. John 3,1-18.

A ruler of the Jews, Nicodemus, came A ruler of the Jews, Nicofemus, came to Jesus one night after the people had gone to their homes, and sought instruction. The Savior taught the principle of New Birth, Regeneration, without which no man can "see the Kingdom of God."

Lesson 5. Jesus at the Well. John 4, 5.06.

Tired with His journey our Lord rests at Jacob's well, near Sychar, in Samaria, while His disciples go into the city to buy food, He asks water of a woman who has come to the well to fill her waterpot. The occasion is used by Christ to teach her of the living water which satisfies the soul, Lesson 6. Sowing and Reaping. John

The disciples return from Sychar with food and Christ unfolds to them the principle of the spiritual harvest. He afterwards goes into the city and spends two days teaching the people. Lesson 7. The Nobleman's Son. John

4, 43-54. The son of a man in high position is laid low with malarial fever, and the father goes to Jesus for help, having heard of him as a Great Healer of physical disease. Jesus reproves him for his short-sightedness and heals his son with the divine word. Lesson 8. Jesus at Bethesdu. John 5,

At the pool of Bethesda, in Jerusalem, our Sayior finds a man who has been sick for 38 years, with no one to help him into the pool at a desired time. It being the Sabbath day He is accused by the the Jews of Sabbath breaking, but successfully defends Himself.

A Great Victory A Terrible Case of Scrofula

Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla

"In the winter of 1879 I was attacked with scrofula in one of the most aggravating forms. At one time I had no less than thirteen large absenses over and around my neck and throat continually exuding an offensive mass of bloody matter disgusting to behold, and almost intelerable to endere. It is impossible three years of misery, having been treated by -Miss Rachel Connor, is spending the summer in Philadelphia, studying Kindergarten system of instructions for ble young.

Huntly, druggist, of Lockport, I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparlia. And now, after ble young. having taken twelve bottles, within the last swelve months, the scrofulous cruptions have entirely consed, and the abscesses have all disappeared, except the unsightly sears, which are duily becoming 'smaller by degrees, and beautifully less.' I do not know what it may have done for others, but I do know that It may case, Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved she effective specific indeed. As an evidence of my grafitude I sand these facts unsolicited, and I am ready to verify the sufficience with any one who doubts it." Charles A. Rosers, Eart Wilson, N. Y.
