

Original Cheap Cash Store.

NEW STYLES SHAWLS & SKIRTS!

We are showing a very large and desirable stock of shawls in new patterns at PRICES THAT CANNOT BE BEAT.

J. T. NUSBAUM.

Opp. Public Square, Bank Street, Lehigh, Pa.

The Carbon Advocate.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1886.

SPECIAL NOTICE - Persons making payments to the office by money orders or checks will please make them payable to the WEISSPORT BANK.

Current Events Epitomized.

—Throughout the State generally throughout the State.

—Nice watches for boys and girls at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk.

—Efforts are being made to give Pottsville incorporated as a city.

—Forty-five prisoners are at present confined in the Lehigh county jail.

—Wedding rings and a large assortment of fine silverware at Hohl's, Mauch Chunk.

—Rev. Mr. Erdman of Mauch Chunk, addressed the temperance element of this place last Saturday evening.

—Don't fail to read the advertisement headed "Save time and money," and ending, "All cheap for cash."

—Thursday, October 22, will be observed as Arbor Day in this State.

—All our public schools observe this day.

—A strike is anticipated which will throw out of employment three thousand hands.

—The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company has received an order to build one hundred Tiffin refrigerator cars at the Packerton car shops.

—Sale bills printed at this office in the best manner and at lowest prices. Give us your orders. Prompt attention given to orders by mail.

—The Liquor Dealers Protective Association, of this county, met at Mauch Chunk last Friday afternoon to take action on matters pending before them.

—The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company must pay the expenses incurred for holding inquests on the bodies of the victims of the Lansford boiler explosion.

—The Commissioners of Luzerne county offer $500 reward for the arrest of the murderers of Mrs. Broganick, who was killed on the road between Hazleton and Tamaqua.

—The surviving members of the 100th and 404th Regiments of the Pennsylvania Volunteers will hold their annual reunion at Old Camp Luzerne, Luzerne county, on Saturday, November 6.

—A charter was granted at the State Department Monday to the Bellefonte Eastern railroad company with a capital stock of $1,000,000. The line will extend from Milton to Bellefonte, a distance of fifty miles.

—For the week ending Oct. 16, there were 147,444 tons of coal shipped over the Lehigh Valley Railroad, making a total of 1,620,907 tons and showing an increase of 233,739 tons compared with same date last year.

—The Lansford inquest was seven years old last Saturday. A gentleman says that in the future he will be "five, seven, nine, clean, independent and correct." This should win for that gentleman a large number of votes.

—At a Democratic ratification to be held in Allentown to-day (Saturday) the several candidates on the State ticket, and Chairman Hensel, Curran, Bantall and many others in attendance. The result in politics will be recent and make addresses.

—Mrs. Rebecca Titus, the aged mother of Major Titus, convicted of the murder of John S. H. Titus, was taken down over his conviction. Her mind is so impaired that her friends will probably have to send her to the State insane asylum.

—Bucks county farmers have organized themselves into a vigilance committee and are searching the mountains for a gang of desperadoes who have been setting fire to barns, burning farm houses and running off with horses and cattle.

—On Thursday evening, October 22, Waterbury Weiss, of Franklin township, will expose to public sale, a number of valuable household articles, etc. Mr. Weiss proposes, in the near future, to move to Bethlehem, where he will make his future home.

—There are probably 100,000 workmen employed in the anthracite coal fields, and the Lehigh Valley Railroad says that "the better the prices of coal the more they get for wages, and it is now too late to deny that good wages and prosperity go hand in hand."

—On November 10 and 17, 1886, B. F. and W. R. Steigler, attorneys for the heirs of S. H. Steigler, etc., will sell at public sale, on the premises in Mahoning township, Pa., a lot of very valuable personal property, including horses, cows, sheep, chickens, wagons, harness, etc., etc.

—A person is "of age" on the day preceding the twenty-first anniversary of his birth. He was born on November 3, 1865, he will be twenty-one years old on November 2 next, and will be entitled to vote at the election on that day. The twenty-second year of his life begins on his birthday; his twenty-first year is completed on the previous day.

—"Fire twenty-seven," said the busy hotel clerk to the new porter down town Saturday. Presently the porter returned looking very much upset. "I fished him," he said, "but he's gone, for he was blind, and I thought he would fire me." The intruder standing was audibly adjusted by the clerk taking the "first" participants for a drink in one of Weber's easy riding carriages. Live wire!

—Functional disorganization of the liver is a potent and common cause of melancholy. Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills invariably give tone to the liver. Dr. Bull's Pills is indispensable for the proper cure of sheep and lambs in winter. The best stock raisers always keep it on hand, 25 cents. "Only a little colicky," Colic makes many new slaves. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup will speedily cure the baby thus afflicted. Try it. Twenty-five cents.

—Our home talent has been prevailed upon by the members of Lehigh Coal & Lumber Company of this place, to give them a benefit. So, just remember there is a rich treat in store for the people of this town and the surrounding neighborhood. There is no exaggeration when we say that the very best talent (which has been tried and proven) found wanting) has been secured and will be under the management of Alex. Bowman, of Packerton. Mr. Bowman's experience in dramatics is a sufficient evidence that the coming event will be an unprecedented success. The drama, which, by the way, is a very interesting one, will be presented to the public some time during the first week in December.

—Have your sale bills printed at this office.

—Allentown is to have a large wholesale furniture factory.

—Potatoes are selling at forty cents per bushel in Lehigh county.

—Kavanaugh's mammoth circus tented at Allentown on the 23rd inst.

—The capital stock of the Allentown National Bank sells at $54.50 per share.

—Don't get left, but buy a Tackett Alarm Clock from E. H. Hohl, Mauch Chunk.

—Water sells at fifteen cents per barrel in many towns throughout Berks county.

—A vein of coal twenty feet thick has been discovered near Frackville, Schuylkill county.

—Fruit trees that are blooming for the second time this season will bear no fruit next year.

—Easton citizens will vote at the next election to find out whether it shall be a city or not.

—The entire iron trade has been steady this week with prices ranging about as last week.

—Tuesday, November 2, is election day, and every voter should be on hand to deposit his ballot.

—Seven of the seventeen large double furnaces in the bed of the mill at Allentown are now in full blast.

—Hon. James G. Blaine will be at Mauch Chunk sometime during next week—probably Tuesday.

—Go to Frazer, Roderer, under the Exchange Hotel, for a smooth shave and a fashionable hair cut.

—Wm. Zerby, of Mauch Chunk, was knocked out at Lehigh at Easton Thursday and badly injured.

—After November 1st the special train running between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko will be discontinued.

—The twenty-fourth annual session of the Berks county teachers' institute was in session at Lehigh this week.

—The Carbon County Teachers' Institute will convene at Mauch Chunk, for one week commencing December 6.

—The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company has notified the striking mounds at Lansford, to vacate their houses.

—An unknown Hungarian died suddenly at Mauch Chunk last Tuesday. His body was taken to the poor house for burial.

—The Republican of the 10th congressional district have endorsed Hon. Wm. Sawyer the Democratic nominee for Congress.

—A Mauch Chunk exchange says that rumors are current to the effect that plans for the erection of a new court house in that place are being considered.

—When in Mauch Chunk don't fail to drop in at Hohl's jewelry store, and examine the celebrated Diabier's improved watch. Best in the world for railroad men.

—Mrs. M. Labrecht, of Freeland, Luzerne county, was attacked by a lung fever near that place one day this week and only by a very timely restitutive escaped with her life.

—The Rev. J. A. Little, of Hokenau, preached last Sabbath morning, and evening to remarkably large and appreciative audiences in the Presbyterian church at Allentown, Pa.

—Our young friend Andrew Bayer has opened a painting supply store in the Schwartz's building, on Bank street. He will make a specialty of wall paper and decorations, window shades, etc.

—The subject of a special sermon at the M. E. church, Sabbath morning, will be "The duty of the citizen." All are interested in the topic and want to know more about that "better country."

—The first grand social year of the season will be given under the auspices of the Oriole Club of this place, at the Carbon House, on Friday evening, October 23. A delightful time is anticipated.

—This place, No. 111, K. G. E., of Carleton is in a flourishing condition. New members are being added almost every meeting night. There are now three months old and has a membership of about sixty.

—Miss Fessler, a veteran engineer in the employ of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, was killed on the rail above Mauch Chunk last Saturday. He had long been a resident of Lansford where he is highly respected.

—The production of anthracite coal for the week ending October 16 was 74,642 tons against 762,801 tons last year, and from January 1 to date 24,741,776, against 246,215 for the corresponding period last year.

—Chas. H. Cummings, of Mauch Chunk, has purchased the archaeological collection of Dr. Smith, of Oxford, Pa., consisting of two thousand specimens and presented the same to Lehigh University, South Bethlehem.

—Messrs. J. P. Rowland and J. W. Lattig, of Mauch Chunk, are expected to be present at the meeting of the Executive element of this place in the old Advocate building on Bankway, Saturday evening. Everybody is invited.

—The case of Joseph Drumboer vs. Lafayette School, assault and battery, was called before Judge Betts Wednesday evening, and after hearing Schoch was bound over in the sum of $200 to answer the charge at the next term of our county court.

—A perusal of the advertisements which appear in the columns of the Advocate from week to week should satisfy the purchasing public that the place to buy is at the store of the merchant who advertises. Remember this when you buy your dry goods, groceries, clothing, etc.

—Salvation Oil is guaranteed to cure rheumatism, sore throat, swellings, bruises, burns, and frost bites. Price only twenty-five cents a bottle. It makes children healthy, gives plenty of milk to nursing mothers, and always has a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in case of cough.

—The anthracite coal trade is active and full circular prices are maintained generally. The policy of making a further advance in prices has been discussed last week by the several companies, but no definite action taken on the matter. Another meeting will be held this month when the rates for November will be agreed upon.

—M. L. Smith, of Stratton, and Thomas Weaver, of Packerton, both noted contractors, have a force of men at work in picking over the large coal and dirt heaps at the abandoned coal mines of the Carbon region.

—The old Buck Mountain Coal Company, of this place, has been sold and there is talk of erecting a small breaker.

—Lehigh county has more furnaces than any other county in the State, the order being, Lehigh, 27; Allegheny, 17; Luzerne, 13. Of the 27 in Lehigh 15 are in blast and 12 out of the number of days in operation, 365; persons employed, 11,000; amount paid in wages, $240,887; quantity of gross tons of iron made, 207,692; cost of labor at the furnaces to make one ton of iron, $1.40; value of product, $5,322.477.

—The statistics of the order of Odd Fellows from 1820 to December 31, 1885, are as follows: Initiations in subordinate lodges, 1,604,110; members received, 1,300,180; members deceased, 1,175,341; total relief, $41,154,890.99; total receipts, $100,254,302.08. There were four hundred and two, who receive quarterly $16,724.34 or $66,596.15 per annum; Carbon county, has the largest number of pensioners—forty-seven; Luzerne county, who receive $2,187.22; Northampton county, six hundred and five; Schuylkill county, seven hundred and four; and York county, five hundred and four.

—The county having the largest number of pensioners is Philadelphia, where the number reaches seven thousand four hundred and two, who receive quarterly $16,724.34 or $66,596.15 per annum; Carbon county, has the largest number of pensioners—forty-seven; Luzerne county, who receive $2,187.22; Northampton county, six hundred and five; Schuylkill county, seven hundred and four; and York county, five hundred and four.

—The total amount paid as pensioners during the year was $64,707,851; a decrease in amount over the previous year of $1,355,405.91.

—Large assortments of gold watches at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk. Prices are bound to suit.

People in and out of town.

—Our people who may have relatives or friends visiting them will greatly oblige us by sending us their names and residences for publication under this head.—[Editorial.]

—Miss Alice Siler was visiting friends at Tamaqua last week.

—O. B. Sigley, of Mauch Chunk, was in town for a few hours last Friday.

—C. O. Beck, of Hazleton, while in town last week dropped in to see some of our friends.

—Miss Minnie Peters, of town, spent several days with Tamaqua friends last week.

—Our friend Chas. Weiss, of Allen, Luzerne county, was in town during the week.

—H. A. Kessler, of New Mahoning, while in town this week dropped in to see us.

—Mrs. J. W. Raudenbush, of town, in company with friends in Bath, Northampton county.

—Our old friend Wm. G. Hellig, of Allentown, was in town Thursday shaking hands with his many friends.

—Daniel Baehman, of Weatherly, the Democratic candidate for Assembly, was in town seeing his many friends this week.

—Messrs. T. Bretney and wife and James E. and wife spent Sunday week at Lehigh, and family, at Stratton.

—Miss Maggie Lackey, an estimable young lady of Allentown, was visiting at the residence of Mahlon Reichard, on Northampton street, this week.

—Our genial friend Dr. G. M. Seiple, spent several days in New York city last week and returned home delighted with his trip.

—Mrs. Wm. Romig and daughter, Mauch Chunk, and Harry Lynn and wife, of Bethlehem, spent several days in New York city last week and returned home delighted with their trip.

—J. K. Keller, advertising agent for Yates & Co., the popular Philadelphia firm, was in town on Wednesday looking up the interests of Mr. K. K. is a popular and genial gentleman.

Young Men's Christian Association.

A meeting to take measures toward organizing a Young Men's Christian Association, was held at the residence of Mr. K. K. is a popular and genial gentleman.

The meeting was called to order and opened by C. S. Weiss, the audience singing, "Jesus Lover of my Soul."

After prayer and a short statement of the object of the association, Mr. W. Lattig, of Mauch Chunk, explained the purpose and nature of the Y. M. C. A., and read part of the constitution by which it is governed.

Mr. Lattig, President of the Railroad Men's Christian Association of Mauch Chunk, followed with another earnest and stirring address, explaining how such good can be accomplished by organization of the kind, but, like Mr. Lattig, also spoke of the discouragements to be met with in carrying out a work of this kind.

A telegram was read from Mr. W. F. Butler, expressing his regret at not being able to be present as expected, but wishing his good will and hearty support.

Philip Miller was elected president pro tem, and C. S. Weiss, secretary pro tem.

A paper was then passed through the audience soliciting names of members, which with twenty names enrolled.

On motion of E. Beck, a committee of five was appointed consisting of Messrs. Beck, Hagen and Green, and Messrs. Myra Good and Hattie Koons.

On motion of the committee, the following resolutions were adopted and carried to effect a permanent organization. Adjourned. C. S. Weiss.

Mahoning Events Itemized.

—Mahlon Nohlsien is happy—it is a baby girl.

—Mrs. E. S. Hoppes was to Philadelphia during the week.

—W. A. Siler has started in the butchering business at Allentown.

—G. K. Musselman, a student in the Lehigh University, Bethlehem, spent Sunday at home.

—The Misses Patton, of Scranton, were the guests of Mrs. Thos. Musselman over Sunday.

—While out driving the other evening Wilson Doherty had the misfortune to break the spring of his carriage.

—Messrs. P. D. Khagenam and C. F. Siler spent a few days at the Mount Holly, N. J., fair, last week.

—Chaon German and family, who moved to Maryland last fall, moved back again on their farm last week.

—The Lord's Supper will be celebrated in St. John's church to-morrow (Sunday) morning. Rev. A. Bartholomew will officiate. All are invited.

—Our schools will open next Monday. The work on the farm about finished, and we hope the boys and girls will spend every day so that they may get the full benefit of our short school term.

—The other week the Advocate stated that a constant rain of wet feet 5 inches had been raised at Weisport, and asks whether any one could beat it. The other day Harrison Straus showed the Advocate that measured 15 feet, 6 inches. Next. Dashi.

Arbor Day.

It is to be hoped that the coming Arbor Day, which has been fixed for the 23rd instant, will be more widely observed than was the one of last Spring. It is intended to have a tree planted by the school children, and particularly to be observed by the public schools, which are to be held on the grounds, under the general direction and encouragement of boards of directors, superintendents and teachers, and on which day also fruit trees, shade trees, etc., shall be planted about their homes, by the individual pupils.

—The girls of the school, and by all others who may be satisfied to be interested in this important work. Superintendent Higley advocates the agitation of the subject by school teachers all over the State, both in the lower and higher grades. Some fifty thousand trees, shrubs and vines have been reported to the Department of Public Instruction of the State as the result of the appointment of the day in Pennsylvania; another fifty thousand, the Superintendent says, have probably been planted, and this number is not a definite record has been made. We hope that in our own county the day will be appropriately observed by the teachers and pupils of our public schools.

Of Interest to "Boys in Blue."

Carbon county has one hundred and sixty-seven invalids of the late civil war who draw an aggregate sum of $1,627.48 per year as "pension money."

—The number of pensioners in Lehigh county is 2,187; in Luzerne county, 647; in Northampton county, 616; in Schuylkill county, 744; and in York county, 500.

—The county having the largest number of pensioners is Philadelphia, where the number reaches seven thousand four hundred and two, who receive quarterly $16,724.34 or $66,596.15 per annum; Carbon county, has the largest number of pensioners—forty-seven; Luzerne county, who receive $2,187.22; Northampton county, six hundred and five; Schuylkill county, seven hundred and four; and York county, five hundred and four.

—The total amount paid as pensioners during the year was $64,707,851; a decrease in amount over the previous year of $1,355,405.91.

—Large assortments of gold watches at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk. Prices are bound to suit.

Our Man Around Weisport.

—The latest imposition on the laboring community in town is a school bill county, where some one has opened a "Labor Union Saloon." This class of saloons should be denounced in the Knight of Labor Assembly, and what we do not endorse the boycott, it would not be out of place for all laboring men to avoid a particular place of business. With Knight of Labor signs, boots and shoes, newspapers, tobacco, groceries, saloons, etc., it will soon be a difficult matter to conscientiously distinguish between the saloons and the saloons.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.

—The fact that, because a certain manufacturer employs Knight of Labor working men in his work shop and conducts business with Knight of Labor principle entities him to use the seal of that organization as a means of disposing of his wares, whilst some other manufacturer, who employs no such entities, is free to sell his goods to the public.