A PLAIN TRUTH

In public places high and low,

Above all theory and practice

Our best intentions go astray

This solid and controlling fact is

No man is bigger than his party.

Valu praise may swell the stoutest head,

When fogs or mists obscure the way, And men who find themselves mistaken

At last to this great truth awaken: Nomen is bigger than his party.

This fact is sure when all is done,

Many are wiser far than one; Our friends, as everybody knows, Give safer counsel than our foes,

No man is bigger than his party.

No stream, however freely fed,

Nor will its flow continue long

Can rise above the fountain head,

Unless the source is full and strong;

Were it necessary, I could give the names of many individuals who have been cured by taking this medicine. In my case it has worked wonders, relieving me of Rheumatism, after being troubled with it for years. In this, and all other diseases arising from impure blood, there is no remedy with which I am acquainted, that affords such relief as Ayer's Sarsaparilla—R. H. Lawrence, M. D., Baltimore, Md.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me of Gont and Rheumatism, when nothing else would. It has cradicated eyery trace of disease from my system.—R. H. Short, Manager Hotel Belmont, Lowell, Mass. For colic and grubs, for lung fever,

I was, during many months, a sufferer I was, during many months, a sufferer from chronic libermatism. The disease afflicted me grievously, in spite of all the remedics I could find, until I commenced using Aver's Sarsaparilla. I took sev-eral bottles of this preparation, and was speedily restored to health.—J. Fream, Independence, Va.
