

ENTERED AT THE LEIGHTON POST-OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU.

THE CARBON ADVOCATE reaches many of its readers the church bells will have pealed their merry Christmas greeting, and echoed and re-echoed through hill and dale the beautiful story of a babe, who was God the Son, born in a manger in the city of Bethlehem, on Christmas morn.

THE probabilities are that Leighton will soon have water. Let progression move on.

As the period of Governor Pattison's administration draws to a close the Republican grin assumes somewhat larger proportions.

We call the attention of our readers to the prospectus of the Weekly Press, of Philadelphia, published in another column. This is one of the best of the great Metropolitan Family Newspapers.

EXEMPT FROM TAXES.

The school directors at their regular monthly meeting to be held on the first Monday in January, will, we hope, follow in the footsteps of our borough fathers and exonerate from the payment of taxes for a period of ten years the Herk Steam Heating and Manufacturing Company, who propose locating here. It has been reliably stated that the new industry will employ eighteen to twenty practical workmen during the first year and that it is likely the force will be considerably augmented in the course of a few years.

It will be a cold day when Weatherly can't furnish more than a half dozen individuals who are willing to serve their country as jurors in our county courts.

THE CARBON ADVOCATE will make a fitting and substantial Christmas gift. Remember this. Only $1.00 per year. Cheapest largest and unquestionably the best family newspaper published in the Lehigh Valley. Try it.

CHILD LABOR IN THE COAL REGIONS.

The miners' boys and girls have no childhood. Hundred of children, from seven to fifteen years of age, are at work at the hard coal mines slate picking, and at the best coal mines coke trimming and mule driving. Coal, dragging toll is the lot of these little ones, all day long in the dust and grime of the picking shed, winter and summer.

The costs of the Collin Campbell divorce suit, which Lord Campbell has been ordered to pay, are expected to reach the enormous sum of $175,000.

THE Senate has passed by an almost unanimous vote a bill to reduce the trade dollar. This is a very judicious piece of legislation. If the Senators don't come in contact with an iceberg before the session is over considerable good work may be the result of their deliberations.

THE New York World says that many a dealer who places a $10 advertisement in his village paper begrudges his investment when it is worth double to him what he pays for it. Advertising rates in city newspapers would astonish such business men. One column in the Chicago Tribune costs the advertiser $20,000 per annum. The New York Herald receives for its lowest price column $20,565, and for its highest price $25,754, and these papers, it is stated, never lack for advertisements to fill their columns.

Broadbrim's New York Letter.

Special to the CARBON ADVOCATE.

Among the various items in the City Budget I notice five millions for the maintenance of our Police. It is safe to say that to try and take care of the criminals arrested by this municipal army will take at least five millions more, so that at least ten millions of dollars out of the forty millions raised by taxation go to guarding our streets against the criminal classes; or to put it in its briefest form, it costs about one hundred and seventy dollars per head to take care of that other vast army which represents the criminal element.

It is possible that Henry George and his coadjutors are right, and that in a properly organized society there is no necessity for a criminal class; and that if an Arcadian system could only be realized, where every fellow could get all he wanted and do just as he pleased, that there would be no necessity for courts or judges, or prisons or police; and this brings to my mind that nothing has stirred religious circles more profoundly than the order from the Vatican which calls Father McGlynn to Rome. Among the Catholic pastors in this city there are few looked upon with more love and reverence than Father McGlynn. For several years past he has been prominently associated with many good works and public charities, and the worthy manner in which he has exercised his priestly functions has earned him the love and respect of Protestants and Catholics alike.

Wonderful! wonderful! most wonderful are the windows of the stores in these hotels. It is not the cheap goods that are the chief attraction but the beautiful and quaint and pictures that almost seem to reach the limit of human genius.

Washington News and Gossip. From our Special Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 20, '86.

Mr. Edron.—The President has recovered from his exhaustion and has apparently recovered his old-time vigor. The usual public receptions were held at the White House during the week.

The production of "Helen" at Albaugh's Opera House, by Lawrence Barrett and his company, during the past week, was a grand dramatic as well as social success. The play was splendidly mounted, and the leading members of the company acquitted themselves with credit.

Mr. Ingalls on Tuesday last made a very special attack upon the railroad companies, which for so long a time have occupied the streets of Washington to the great disadvantage of private property interests.

The annual sale of the articles which have accumulated in the Dead Letter Office has been in progress during the past week, and has been well attended. The fact that the packages are not opened adds an interest to the sale, as it is something of a lottery.

The Reverend Benjamin Staunton, who was found guilty by the Brooklyn Council of Ministers, and who escaped punishment with a very mild rebuke, is now the defendant in a scandalous trial before the Courts. So offensive did the case become that the minister's counselor withdrew from him and left him to battle alone.

A new charity has been started here which has had wisdom and benevolence combined. It is now proposed to furnish the poor wayfarer who is out of luck, with a bowl of soup and a good chunk of bread for one cent; or a bowl of good coffee and bread for a like amount.
