FREE TRADE.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking of duty from the hands of the Proprietors of Medicines, no doubt has largely benefited consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with GREEN'S ANKER-PAIN EXPELLER and BOWEN'S GUMMA SYRUP, as the reduction of duty on these two remedies, has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size.

AGENTS FOR PENNSYLVANIA, LEHIGH VALLEY AND LIVER COMPLAINT, and the GUMMA SYRUP for Cough and Lung troubles, has perhaps the largest sale of any medicine in the world.

The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles for 10 cents remain the same size.

—A Blair, Neb., banker invested $28,000 and a house and lot in whisky, which he consumed in eighteen months. His bank is closed now.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she became ill, she cried for Castoria. When she became hoarse, she clung to Castoria. When she had cholera, she gave them Castoria.

—Just because a Jersey City girl broke off her engagement, the fellow married her widowed mother. Her rash act drove her a step farther.

The violet eyes lifted him inquiringly and the next instant a red flush swept from chin to brow, and the little hands closed rigidly upon the feathered fan he held.

The man in the gray traveling suit approached the group, glanced indifferently over the several heads, and with an air of cold courtesy, lifted his hat and passed by.

Mrs. Cameron finished her story, but the smile on her lips had lost its sweetness, her eyes were darkened with less pleasure than passionate emotion, and as she rose and went to her room, she was followed by a group of ladies who were talking over the matter.

"What you never heard the story? Why, she was married a little over a year ago. She taught music to Cameron's niece—her face was her fortune, you know—but she was always awfully clever. Well, two weeks after the marriage, Cameron went abroad—no one knows where. Some one said they had quarreled, but Mrs. Cameron never asserted nor denied. At all events, it was a matter of indifference to her, for she has been payer than ever."

"Ah, she never cared for him?"

"I suppose not. It was an exchange, beauty for gold. Ah, you believe how lovely she looked when she was young!"
