IS THE MOON A DEAD WORLD.

The general opinion is, that the moon has passed through the natural stages of birth, life and death, and is now undergoing the changes incidental to final decay.

Geo. W. Nusbaum, Agent, Bank Street, Lehighton.

The Carbon Advocate

SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1907.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Persons making payments to this office by money orders or postal notes will please make them payable to the WESSFORD POST OFFICE, as the Lehighton office is not a money order office.

Current Events Epitomized.

—Pay the printer. —Lively Lehighton. —Read Reber's advertisement. —Subscribe to the ADVOCATE. —Carbolic acid is a good disinfectant. —Candidates for office are on the increase. —Keep your weather eye peeled for the "pomp man."

OUR NEW PRESS--AIN'T SHE A DAISY?

—Pay up. —Hay fever prevails. —Fix your payments. —Send us all the news. —Patrolize home trade. —Dog days close on the 29th. —Lehighton has six M. D.'s. —Organize a Board of Trade. —Hurry up the water question. —Try Chubb's "New Process Bread."

—Don't forget to organize a Board of Trade. —Seventy prisoners are confined in the Luzerne county jail. —The Lehigh Valley Railroad will hereafter pay every two weeks. —On his trip to Europe Mr. Blaine took a box of Tulip Soap with him. —The free delivery postal service will go into effect at Bethlehem September 1st. —There is only one prisoner confined in the Monroe county jail, Happy Monroe. —The Thomas Iron company's No. 4 furnace at Hohenansqua has been put in blast. —To the people—THE ADVOCATE is the clique or tool of no party or set of men—Editor. —Try Chubb's "New Process Bread."

—The amount of money on deposit in the First National Bank, of this place, on the 1st inst., was $65,531.01. —The Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, at Reading, has resumed the granting of free passes to their employees. —In Reading last week there were 26 deaths, and 720 so far this year, 195 more than for the same time last year. —According to the Weatherly Herald, the saloon keepers of Manch Chunk violate the new high licensed law. The county jail evidently yawns for them. —LIVESTOCK—On the 1st instant, a dark wool-mixed veal, between Weissport and Bethlehem, the maker will be suitable provided by leaving it at this office. —During the month of July the Lehigh Valley Railroad company hauled 65,818 loaded cars of coal, and 65,918 empty cars over the Lehigh Division of the road. —The seventh annual meeting of the Lehigh Valley Medical Association will be held at the Water Gap House, Delaware Water Gap, on Wednesday, August 17. —Try Chubb's "New Process Bread."

—The Lansford Stars will cross bats with the Lehighton club on the 22d inst. on the old fair grounds. If we are not mistaken this is the same club that slaughtered our nine last season. —A circuit suit sent out by the Treasury Department states that Trade Dollars will be redeemable in Washington not later than September 31. Consequently it behooves holders to deposit them with their bankers not later than August 25. —A walk through the old Gnaden Hueten cemetery cannot help but interest everybody—the quaint German inscriptions on the marble headstones and the monument perpetuating the Moravian massacre are objects of special note. —George Ahner, son of Charles Ahner, was drowned in the canal at the mouth of Long Run, opposite Packerton, on Sunday last. He was about sixteen years of age. He was buried in the new Evangelical cemetery at Weissport, on the 10th inst. —Try Chubb's "New Process Bread."

—Now is the time for CHEAP WALL PAPER as we are offering over half of our entire stock of Wall Paper and Borders at one-half and some less than half the usual price. Do not miss this offer. E. F. LUCKENBACH, 61 Broadway, Manch Chunk. —Mr. John Halan, while digging a small foundation at the Fort Allen House, in Weissport, and near the site of the old and famous Franklin well, found an English halfpenny bearing date 1774. The coin is in possession of Dr. W. G. M. Seiple, of town. —Rev. Dr. Kuder, of the German Lutheran Church of Lehighton, preached a very able sermon in the German language in Rev. L. Lindstruth's pulpit in Upper Manch Chunk on Sunday morning. High praises are bestowed upon it.—Gazette, 4th instant. —Try Chubb's "New Process Bread."

The above cut represents our new press, just put in by W. C. Bleloch, successor to R. S. Menamin, of Philadelphia, agent for the C. Potter, Jr., & Co., Press Manufacturers. By this addition to our facilities we are enabled to compete with any office in the Lehigh Valley. Call and see us.

—John Dech, the oldest male resident of Bethlehem, died Friday night, aged eighty-nine years. He was a lifelong resident of Northampton county, and in his early years took a lively interest in politics. His first vote for President was in 1820 for James Madison. He voted for eighteen Presidents, fifteen of whom he helped to elect. —The 48th Annual Catalogue of Pennington Seminary, Pennington, New Jersey, Thos. Hanlon, D. D., President, is just received. This boarding school for both sexes, now before the public for nearly fifty years, ranks very high. The testimonials of such educators as Dr. McCosh and numerous others, as found in this catalogue, are full proof of this. We are sure that parents seeking a higher education for their children under the best kind of instruction, would do well to address Dr. Hanlon, Pennington, New Jersey, for a catalogue. See advertisement in another column.

—Municipal Officers Arrested. —On complaint of Nick Rose, John Boettchen and J. R. Jones, taxpayers, warrants in the Sixth ward, Wilkesbarre, reading were issued Monday evening for the arrest of Mayor Sutton, Street Commissioner Devers and the members of Council. The defendants are charged with having set up and maintained a nuisance in the Sixth and Third wards by failing to keep the streets in order and allowing stagnant and filthy water to accumulate in the public streets. The Mayor and members of Council entered bail for their appearance at court. —Probably Fatally Injured. —Wm. Doyle, a single man, about thirty-seven years of age, residing on Third street, Manch Chunk, employed on the "floating gang" on the L. & S. Railroad, now making improvements at this place, missed the trucks bringing the men from Manch Chunk on Wednesday morning and mounted a coal train to reach his work. When near the depot at this place he jumped from the moving train and fell under the cars. His right leg was cut off below the knee, his jaw smashed and a hole knocked in his left side. He was taken to Manch Chunk, and thence sent to St. Luke's Hospital, at Bethlehem. It is thought that he cannot recover. He had only worked one day with the "gang."

—Death of an Aged Lady. —Mrs. Catharine Sweeney, mother of Edward Sweeney, of Allentown, Jas. Sweeney, of Summit Hill, and grand-mother of Jas. A. Sweeney, of Hazleton, died at the residence of her niece, Miss Bessie Kennedy, at No. 3, at five o'clock Tuesday evening. Mrs. Sweeney was about ninety-six years old and had never known much sickness during her long life. She had been staying all summer with her grand-daughter, Mrs. Owen Ferry, at Ebervale, and only came to visit her niece, Miss Kennedy, at No. 3, Hazleton, a couple of weeks ago. About ten days ago she was taken suddenly ill with dysentery and that complaint with old age brought her to the grave. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon.—Hazleton Plain Speaker. —Not a Lovely Outlook. —Another Canadian prophet is mixing up the weather for the present month. His name is Walter Smith. Listen to him: "At present writing August promises to be the worst month of the whole summer generally. It will give the worst storms, have the greatest amount of sudden changes, and be remarkable for both its hot and cool periods. The last fifteen days are the worst in all respects, and my readers may make up their minds for a very trying time. The continued spells of heat point to probable earthquakes and severe drought in sections intermixed with very heavy electrical storms, with heavy rain and hail. In fact, the whole month, as my extended forecast goes to show, will be a succession of hot waves, heavy storms and cool spells, etc."

—What The "Boys" Were Doing. —The Monroe News of last week contains the following paragraph: John Hank, G. H. Mantz, E. J. Kehr, and Al. Bartholomew, of Lehighton; Al. Mantz, of Tamanager; Dilline Snyder, Robt. Bowman and Benj. Rinker, of Paryville; and Dr. W. L. Kutz, of Weissport, Carbon county, spent last week camping at Saylor's Lake, in this county. On Thursday they came to Stroudsburg for the purpose of enjoying a little horse race on the fair ground course. The news that a race was to take place on the fair ground brought together a large crowd from both towns. For some reason the proposed race did not come off. One story is that the Carbon county men backed down on their horse, while another report says that the Monroe county horse failed to find backers to the amount of ten dollars. —Just received from Boston, an immense stock of the genuine Knight of Labor Shoes, which we are selling at $2.50 and $3. Warranted solid red leather. Gauss & Bro., the Tailors, sole agents for Carbon county. Our stock of hand-made shoes cannot be beat by any dealer in the county. —Pay your subscription.

—The P. O. S. of A. in Annual Session. —The twenty-second annual session of the Pennsylvania State Camp of Patriotic Sons of America opened in Concert Hall, Manch Chunk, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The attendance was unusually large, nearly 400 delegates being present. State President S. M. Heime presided. Burgess C.A., Rev. introduced Frederick Bertolette, who on behalf of the borough authorities, delivered an address of welcome, which was responded to by State President Heime. The camp then went into business session, and the reports of the State President and Secretary showed a large increase of membership throughout the State. During the present term fifty-five new camps were instituted, against forty last year. At the beginning of the present term there were 248 camps, with a total membership of 19,628, against 201 camps and 14,268 members at the beginning of last term; an increase of 5420. —The following officers were elected for the ensuing term: State president, R. T. S. Hollowell, of Conshohocken; State vice-president, John Arber, of Altoona; State marshal of forms and ceremonies, Dr. H. A. Kloek, of Mahanoy City; State treasurer, Irwin S. Smith, of Reading; State secretary, William Wanda, of Philadelphia; State marshal, W. A. St. John; State sergeant-at-arms, Captain Charles E. Brown; trustees, R. H. Koch, J. K. Helme and J. J. Steger. In the evening an open session was held and addresses were delivered by National President Frank L. Murphy, of Norristown, and F. G. Holson, of Collegeville. The entire town was beautifully decorated with the colors of the camp. —Wednesday morning session was largely attended and much business of interest transacted. The report of the trustee of the Valley Forge fund shows that the Washington headquarters are free from debt and a balance of $5,000 on hand, which will be used in improving the property. A number of constitutional amendments were passed, appropriations for various purposes were voted and the Camp News was made the official organ of the order. Scranton was selected as the next place of meeting of the State camp in 1908. Captain James K. Helme has been selected as the State orator for the ensuing year. An appropriation was made to defray the expense of a memorial representation in the Philadelphia National Centennial celebration in September. National President Smith arrived in the evening and installed the new officers. The parade Thursday was very large.

—Ex-Governor St. John Addresses 4000 People at Mountain Park. —The Prohibition party of Luzerne and Lackawanna Counties Tuesday held a monster reunion and picnic at Mountain Park. Between 4000 and 5000 people were on the grounds. W. J. Fanning, of the New York Voice, the leading Prohibition organ, delivered an address in the morning. In the afternoon Mrs. Clara Hoffman, of Missouri, spoke for over an hour, addressing her remarks chiefly to the ladies. Ex-Governor St. John, of Kansas, spoke an hour and a half. He defended himself vigorously from the charge of having the Indian located, betrayed and deserted the Republican party. He created something of an excitement by declaring positively that he placed the responsibility of the great evils of the rum trade at the door of the Christian Church. "For," he said, "if every minister, deacon and member of those churches did not vote for its continuance and prosperity by casting their ballots for one or other of the old parties the traffic would be stamped out within a year." He held that no man who professed to be a follower of Christ could, if he acted according to his profession, vote for any other party than the Prohibition. —Paryville Penalties. —The camp meeting at Bethlehem was well attended by the people. —Miss Annie Stieger, of South Bethlehem, was the guest of Mrs. Edgar Bamford during the week. —Miss Laura Reinhard, of Cherryville, was visiting her brother, H. J. Reinhard, during the week. —Miss Laura Albright, of Weissport, and H. J. Reinhard, of town, will "teach the young idea how to shoot" the coming school term. —Peter Bacon, of Lansford, was in town Tuesday. —Frank Kramer, of Allentown, called on his many friends here Sunday. —Our new doctor, F. H. Haas, is establishing quite a large practice. —Miss Mary Ritzy is visiting her mother in town. —Dilline Snyder, B. H. Bantman and B. F. Rinker have returned from a two weeks "camp out" at Saylor's Lake, Monroe co. —Mrs. R. G. Bamford left for Lansford last week where she joins her husband and they go to housekeeping. All join in wishing them success in their new home. —On Saturday last Frederick Seiler left home taking a little loaf and dinnal son with him. It is said he was going to Washington, D. C. He was brought back by Chief of Police B. F. Rinker who captured him near Cherryville. —Wild Creek Valley. —People in this vicinity are nearly all done harvesting their oats. —The Tide Water Pipe Company has recently had considerable damage done by the leaking of a pipe on Mr. Louder Weis' ground. It is estimated to have leaked out about one hundred barrels of coal oil before the leak could be repaired. Many people were visiting the pipe and some gathered up the oil for future use—as a liniment. —Recently one of Adam Christman's cows was struck by lightning near this place and killed. —Mr. Peter Hawk's barn was struck by lightning recently and burned down with a considerable stock of grain, hay, and various articles too numerous to mention, near Trachsville. —Mr. A. H. Kibler, while cutting oats one day last week, killed a huge snake, one of the spotted kind. —Mr. Henry Haydt's new barn will soon be completed. —Mrs. Susan Kibler's sixty-sixth birthday was celebrated on the 1st inst. She was surprised by several friends. —The Jerusalem Sunday school will hold a picnic on the 29th instant, near Trachsville. —Mr. Morris, of the Tide Water Pipe Line traveler, was through this place today. —Mr. Nathan Smith was on a business trip today. —Mr. Stephen Kibler, near this place, intends to leave for Portage, Wood county, Ohio, on Monday next, where his brother Tobias has secured work for him at $25 per month for running a line-kiln. —Notice Railroads! —No extra charge for railroad men. The United States Life Insurance Co., in the city of New York, has been doing business the last thirty-eight years; has one hundred and twenty-two dollars for every one hundred dollars liabilities. This company issues an incontestable, non-forfeitable investment policy. The insured need not die to win, but can withdraw in cash the full value of the policy at the end of fifteen or twenty years. The insured will not as large a per cent of interest as any other investment would if his security, besides enjoying that many years insurance free. If you will kindly send me your age I will promptly give you an estimate of a policy on your own life; you will then be able to judge intelligently as to whether it would prove a profitable investment to you. Yours very truly, W. M. 2001, District Agent U. S. Life Insurance Co., Shillington, Penna.

—Laying the Corner Stone. —The corner-stone of the Evangelical Mission Church, to be erected in South Bethlehem, was laid with impressive religious ceremonies Sunday. The following clergyman were in attendance: Rev. C. K. Fahr, presiding elder of Allentown; Rev. Dr. O. L. Saylor, pastor of the new mission; Rev. B. F. Bohner, Anthony Straub and W. B. Rosaig, of Bethlehem; Rev. W. C. Weiss, of West Bethlehem; and Rev. J. H. Unger, of South Bethlehem. The presiding elder preached the sermons for the day in the German and English languages. Rev. Dr. O. L. Saylor, through whose indefatigable labors the mission was founded, delivered a forcible address. In the afternoon the corner-stone was laid and dedicated according to the order and rules of the Evangelical Association, by Presiding Elder Fahr, assisted by Revs. Saylor and Bohner. An interesting children's service, conducted by Rev. W. C. Weiss, in the evening, concluded the ceremonies. The fine weather attracted large audiences from neighboring towns. The site for the church office is beautifully located on Fountain Hill. —DIED. —STIVER.
