Tark Prohibitionists of Carbon in conven tion assembled some weeks ago put in nom ination the following ticket, which, while it represents the minority party, is made up of strong and substantial elements and for genuine morality leads most others: County treasurer, Hon. Levi Wentz, of Lower Towamensing; register and recorder, Ed. A. Packer, of Manch Chunk; county commissioners, Solomon Yeakle, Weissport; J. W. Hunter, Weatherly; auditors, John Martyn, Sr., Banks; M. E. Sinyard, Summit Hill. In the campaign of 1886 the Prohibitionists polled two hundred thirtyfive votes for Charles Wolfe, for Governor now the question uppermost in the minds of Probiblionists must certainly be: "What can we do for our county ticket?" Undeniably strong in all particulars-morally speaking-each and every candidate should by natural right possess sufficient magnetism to draw from the Republican, Democratic and Labor masses a complimentary yote which would give a Prohibition show ing of four or five hundred yotes. Of course our Prohibition friends must go to work and keep their nominees before the people to do this. True, they cannot elect their ticket, that would be impossible, but then an increase of several hundred votes could
