Special to the CARBON ADVOCATE.

A case in point was tried on Wednesday last, where a wife had her husband arrested for assault and battery and non-support. He was a poor, attenuated little anatomy, that a hundred pound weight in the opposite scale would have sent flying up like a shuttlecock, while his poor injured wife was a good healthy beefy looking woman, who were a forty-eight inch belt-ribbon and would make the steel-yards look sick at two hundred as a fact that the church was packed, and I can only say, to put it in a mild form.

The case was called, and the lady took the witness stand; the Judge asked her what was the matter? She said brutal treatment and non-support, and she wanted her husband sent to the penitentiary. The Judge told her to state hen she did get home, her husband told her that she must not do it again; and she told him that she'd do it as often as she liked; then he said that he'd leave the house; and she told him that he shouldn't do it,-then he tried to get out and she hit defense, then she doubled him up under the table and called a policeman, and had him money from him?"
