COMMON TALK.

Arma - Wind's the matter, Mary ' Mary - Matter! I am in trouble enough! Anna - I should think so! You look worried. Mary - I have been trying year ' hard to do ne sewing, and have my clothing as petty and nea y marke as Jennie's. I have basied and sewe noil! I am tired out. Anna - I used to be bothered in the same way int have had no trouble since I bought my be mediae.

but have had no trouble since 1 bought any new machine. Mary-I have heard some of my friends, who have seen your new machine, say that it does many better work than any others they have ever tried. Why is R? Arma-Well, ip the first place, it runs very light; then, you fre not obliged to do any basting. I hade my winter clock, putting on the braid beautifully; made all of my winter clothing, and did not do a slitch of basting? Mary-What is the name of your machine? And has been the life is the "New Hught-Arm Davis." Jary-What is the name. She which Arm Davis." Jary-What is the site "New Hught-Arm Davis."
