

PRINTED AT THE LEHIGHTON POST-OFFICE AT SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

The March Chink Gout Gazette says some very better things about the CARBON ADVOCATE in its issue of last week because we had the temerity to denounce as false the lying recriminations published in that journal concerning the official integrity of the Democratic candidate for Register and Recorder, Charles W. Lentz.

In the bright lexicon of speculation a goodly number of Carbon county office seekers will find that they have been left.

REPUBLICANS, DEMOCRATS, PROHIBITIONISTS, in fact every voter, should not fail to observe the right of suffrage on Tuesday, by casting a ballot for their respective candidates.

THERE has been much conjecturing by Carbonites as to the probability of next Tuesday's election, but we doubt if even the best informed politician has felt confident in guessing the final result of what has been one of the most quiet as well as one of the most complicated political campaigns in the history of the county.

WHEN the candidates who fall to get their next Tuesday finish studying the election returns they will come to the conclusion that the number of unmitigated preparators in this county is only equal to the Gazette editor's capacity for misrepresentation.

"THE strike is still on" in the Lehigh coal region, with the miners more determined than ever to acknowledge no concession until the demands made several weeks ago for a raise in wages is granted.

THE readers of the Gazette will be of course remember how persistent and bitter were the attacks made on the character of C. W. Lentz by that journal three years ago, when Mr. Lentz was a candidate for Sheriff.

It is important that every voter in Carbon county observe the right of suffrage on Tuesday next. Let not the casting of your ballot be bridled by fear or favor at the hands of politician or employer.

Special to the CARBON ADVOCATE. Politics, red hot, roasting, boiling, seething, rule the hour. We are in the throes of a political revolution.

taken perhaps from a blacksmith, shop or a saloon gets a salary higher than a Supreme Judge of the United States; a coroner who could not tell the difference between a fly bliner and Epsom salts, gets from twenty-five to thirty thousand dollars; the commissioner of jurors receives twice as much as the President of the United States, and the sheriff about three times as much; the consequence is, that civil service or no civil service, these officials have to come down about election times.

A gentleman well known in New York told me that it cost him twenty-five thousand dollars to be elected a member of Congress. He was elected for two years and paid for his office fifteen thousand dollars more than he received in salary while he had the expense of his living while in the city of Washington.

Somebody has evidently come to the rescue of the Republicans for their headquarters at the Fifth Avenue Hotel are like a beehive; conferees and campaign speakers are rushing in and out at all hours of the day and night, and the most expensive and costly literature on the tariff, civil service reform and other important topics, is sent by tons to every portion of the State wherever they can do most good.

Every George is ubiquitous; one day you hear of him at Buffalo, the next he turns up as fresh as a daisy in New York or Brooklyn; the next afternoon he addresses the farmers in Chataqua, and the next night he is at the extreme point of Long Island. In addition to Mr. George himself there is a large army of workers whose names have to be paid, or who receive nothing for their services.

any of the President of the United States. Herr Bostel, the latest musical phenomenon, though in possession of a wonderful voice, does not exactly do Apollo in form; he stands only five feet in his stockings, and has a wretched indicative of look, hair, Frankfurt sausage and Schwitzer; but he can sing and he is worth a thousand dollars a night. German stock is rising; they have the finest opera the best Music Halls in New York and Brooklyn; they are importing the best artists of every kind from Europe for their own special amusement, and in order to get them, pay them twice and three times as much as the German Emperor can afford to do, with the whole American nation at his back.

Barley Campbell is still in the Lunatic Asylum—but three of his pieces are crowding the theatres, and if they are not enough to satisfy the public, they may yet be independent. Jim the Penman is having a phenomenal run at the Madison Square, where he promises to be a success.

From Washington: News Notes. Mr. Editor, The Supreme Court room was crowded Thursday and Friday by persons anxious to hear the argument of the case in the Anarchist case.

THE temperance people are much exercised over the probable decision of the Court in the prohibition cases. Somehow the impression has gotten abroad that the Court is equally divided and in that event no opinion will be rendered until an appointment is made to fill the vacancy caused by Justice Wood's death.

but the determination and reward for justice by Pattison soon taught them otherwise and as a result the courts of Pennsylvania were filled with applicants for pardon and technical means to evade the letter and spirit of the law; but they were caught in their own trap.
