A FEW NUTS FOR N. SNYDER & SON to CRACK IN THEIR PASTIME.

"The Sheenies Must Go !" Must they ? It seems they are causing you a great amount of discomfort. Stay we will. And with drawn sword we standequipped, ready to strike. We gave you a pleasant shaking up several months ago, and at present we are still better fixed to perform the task clear up to the handle. Why did you not sell to the "man that earns his bread by the sweat of his brow" at those figures before we located here? Now, come, you could have done it To make it immensely pleas ant for you, I have concluded to make another cut on old war time profits which may perhaps dampen your ardor, and should necessity call for it I suppose my backing will allow me to let a few more bombshells fall.

Purchasers, awake to your duty - by patronizing the "Cheap New York Store." I fully pledge to keep the prices low down. My honest intention is to remain with you, to charge only "live and let profits." Could they accomplish their purpose an drive me out, (which God knows they can't) the result would be higher prices to you.

Kindly inviting you to call and bidding my rival a Sheenie adieu, I remain the people's friend,
