J. T. NUSBAUM, Opposite Public Square, Bank Street, Lehighton, June 7, 1884-17.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

No sweeter words than these were ever sung. They strike a common chord in every human heart, in every land. The millionaire in his gilded palace, dreams of his boyhood's home nestled among the hills, and in fancy he inhales the perfume of the honeysuckle that climbed his window beneath the thatched roof, he would almost give his whole fortune to be a boy again.

Current Events Epitomized.

One of the most useful articles that we know of is the famous household remedy for the baby, Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. It costs only 25 cents a bottle. No one can adequately describe the suffering imposed by dyspepsia. It darkens life's pathway and makes existence almost unbearable; but Laxador will not only alleviate the tortures of dyspepsia, but will cure the disease. Price only 25 cents. George Horn, of Weisport, on last Tuesday took possession of the Carbon House on Bank street, under a three year's lease. Jonathan Kistler, the former proprietor, George Horn, is the whole souled, genial fellow and will, no doubt, keep the hotel up to its former popularity by catering to the wants and desires of his patrons. Milton Florv, of East Weisport, has moved into the building next to Everett's Hotel, in Weisport, where he will be pleased to meet all old patrons and all others desiring anything in the line of harness, blankets, robes, bells, whips, &c. Repairing of all kinds promptly attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Removed - L. S. Koch, the tobacconist, has moved into his new store room under Music Hall, corner of Bank and Iron streets, where he will be pleased to meet all his old patrons and all others who need anything in his line. Remember the place and make it a point to call. Ex-register of Wills, Obadiah Pfeiffer, of Lehigh county, is short in his accounts to the amount of $5000. The ex-register has been missing since last Friday. His bondsmen will no doubt, keep the hotel up to its former popularity by catering to the wants and desires of his patrons. The number of small-pox cases at Slatington have not diminished. During the past ten days several deaths have occurred. The disease continues only amongst the relatives of the first diseased family and is due to extreme carelessness. The many friends of Thomas Fagan, of Easton, formerly of town, will be pleased to learn to doubt, that his good wife has presented him with a bouncing baby girl. We offer congratulations. Mother and child are doing well. Ex-Coroner Frazell and Thomas Hittle, of Allentown, were on Saturday last sentenced to pay a fine of $50 each and undergo an imprisonment for five months for policy dealing. Let the American eagle bow and shiver for liberty until his tail feathers drop off, but the editor of this paper will ever lead his viles for reform and Tulip ausp. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church, Sunday a week. Preparatory services on the Saturday previous. A committee has been appointed by Hook & Ladder Company, No. 1, of this place, to make arrangements for the holding of a grand ball some time next month. The Class property on Bank street, formerly occupied by L. S. Koch, as a cigar store, was sold, Saturday, at public sale, for $5,445 to John Seabold. Samuel Boyer, of Aquashicola, died Tuesday of pneumonia. Deceased had been ill but a short time. He was a son-in-law of Squire Zentgraf. The First National Bank, of this place, has declared a semi-annual dividend of three per cent, payable on and after January 16. The Weisport Jewelry Store, is headquarters for watches, clocks, rings, bracelets and silver ware. Robert E. Wright, Esq., of Allentown, has been elected chairman of the Lehigh county Democratic committee. A new stock of clocks watches and jewelry for sale at Hagaman's store Bank street, Lehighton Pa. 3m. Prices for watches clocks and jewelry marked down to cost figures at the Weisport Jewelry Store. For an immense variety of Holiday Goods, call at Luckenbach's, Mauch Chunk.

D. Benninger and wife, of White street, spent Sunday at Mauch Chunk, the guests of H. C. App. -Miss Letta Leh, of Bethlehem, was visiting friends of Lehigh street, during the past several weeks. -Auditor Paul Wagner, of North street, was on a business trip to Philadelphia for several days last week. -Mrs. William Romig, of Bethlehem, was the guest of Mrs. A. W. Raudebush, on Bank street, several days this week. -Our genial friend Daniel Graver, of Mountain Top, Luzerne county, while in town on Saturday made us an agreeable call. -Mrs. Wilson Keisler, of Walnutport, and Miss Sarahann Hanker, of Lehigh Gap, were the guests of Mrs. W. W. Morthimer this week. -Section Foreman John H. Bender, who is with a gang of men, is now laying new track at Scranton, spent Sunday at home with his family. -The following items: -Dollars is slowly recovering after a serious illness. -St. John's Sunday school at Lehigh has been discontinued. -Ammon Dreabach and wife, of Walnutport, spent Sunday with friends at Fire Line. -A social gathering of ladies spent a delightful afternoon at Griffith DeLong's cutting carpet rag. -Candidates are beginning to ripen for the various township offices. Wm. Gruber will be a candidate for Justice of the Peace. -Peddlers are becoming scarce in our community, as the posters in different places offering a reward for their conviction has driven them away. -Ar. Butcher and dealers in fish, also hucksters who go into the country and buy butter and eggs and chickens and take them to town and sell them, called peddlers. -The Lehigh & Susquehanna Railroad, met with a horrible death at Packerton shortly after 7 o'clock Tuesday night. The unfortunate man was in Bethlehem Monday attending the funeral of the late George M. Wilhelm, on whose train he was employed. He left there at 6:40 o'clock Tuesday night with a large number of other railroaders. He was last seen at Weisport. It is supposed that in stepping from one car to another he was thrown from the train on to the down track and that the down passenger train was over him. His head was cut off and his body was terribly mangled. The remains were removed to Mauch Chunk his late home. -Great Reduction. For the next thirty days we will make to order: All-wool storm overcoats at $12 and $15. All-wool chinchilla, fur and beaver overcoats from $15 to $20. All-wool suits from $4 to $7. All-wool suits from $12 to $25; our whole line of suitings. Overcoats have been reduced from $5 to $3 on each garment in order to reduce our winter stock to make room for spring goods. S. Nystrom, a student at Palatinate College, Nystrom spent vacations with his many friends at Normal Square Eugene did not forget his friends in Beaver Run, and one day last week he made a very pleasant call to his old home and at the same time visited the Beaver Run school where he spent two pleasant years as a teacher. -A sleighing party from Mahoning, spent a very pleasant evening at the residence of Miss Lienhard. Mr. Lienhard is a very fine gentleman and knows how to accommodate parties, the members enjoyed themselves for some time in playing the usual games. At ten o'clock the party was ushered into the dining hall to partake of the many good things prepared by Mrs. Lienhard. The members of the party enjoyed the feast very much. -A large audience was entertained in the Beaver Run school house, last Wednesday Eve, by the scholars, who had been under the able instructions of Miss Minnie R. Moser, an estimable young lady who has at present charge of the school. The people of Beaver Run and vicinity enjoyed the exercises very much, the scholars performed very good. The programme included recitations, dialogues and music. The dialogue performed by three little girls deserves special praise. The solo was sung by Miss Moser, entitled 'Oh, dear, the men are so stupid!' A Recitation was well delivered by master Eddie Lienhard subject the Puzzled Dutchman. The exercises were very good and much praise is due to Miss Moser for her interesting labor. The scholars were well trained which was evidence enough that no time nor trouble was spared by the teacher. After a picnic of some extent entitled 'My native country' was sung, the teacher announced that it gave her little pleasure to introduce to the audience, Prof. N. M. Ballist, of Normal Square. The professor is a pleasant speaker and held the audience spell bound for fifteen minutes, the address was highly appreciated by all, the Prof. intends to leave for North Carolina where he is elected principal of a school. The people of Beaver Run wish him success in his new field. -Just received from Boston, an immense stock of the genuine Knight of Labor Shoes, which we are selling at $2.50 and $3. PACKERTON NOTES AND OPINIONS.

A Versatile Correspondent Comments on Times-Triples. -Burgess McCloghlin, of Weatherly, is the guest of his brother-in-law W. F. Brodhead. -Mrs. Hughes, of Weatherly, sister of Dorchester Thomas Hasleman, of this place, was buried in the Weatherly cemetery on last Sunday; a very large concourse of friends and relatives were present. -It will be somewhat interesting before long to note the apportionment for delegates in the new congressional district. It won't do to forget that Mutchler will continue to be 'Big Indian' and a right heap smart one too. -Otto Weiss, of this place, with his family, removed to Denver, Col.; they left on Monday night and expect to reach their destination Friday. Mr. Weiss has secured a position and hopes to meet with success in his new home. -The 'won't tell it' manner of those at present interested in the 'Everitt' gold mine is whetting the appetite of outsiders and when shares are offered, well, we won't predict how many will be sold, but lots of old stockings will be emptied. -George, McClynn and Penick, where are they? side tracked and the switch turned out; anti-severity, anti-monopoly, but not anti-se, no, no-se, side tracked in luxury, to meditate and plan some new way to tune the tolling menses. How long, oh, how long, will the average voter hanker for such bait? -We are informed that Walter Harleman, of Harleman Brothers, will return to his trade, moulder, at an early day, the senior partner, Lewis, better known as the 'Major,' will continue at the old stand; he has secured the services of Thomas Arner, a former clerk of Robert Walp. -Reports are a little confusing as to whether it is a railroad or miners strike; one says it is, another says it ain't, and the other fellow says it is both. Who is going to win? neither or 'all both?' Do strikes pay? Don't ask the well-paid walking delegate and organizer, but ask some one who has suffered pecuniarily for an answer. -If the miners' claim, that the operators can afford to pay the night per cent. advance, is correct, will editor Childs explain why he advocates the paying of the advance but not in the price of coal, and thus get it, not out of the operator, but the consumer. Mr. Childs is high tariff - any reduction of the present rate he calls 'free trade' - but he will soon learn that his high tariff will be applied to labor's wrongs in as tripartite, there will be no 'heat' while such an application is used. -Day after day we hear men denouncing our laws, our form of government, &c., and yet we have the best government under the sun, made by the people, and for the people, guaranteeing security of person and property to each and all; no distinction; a government that has stood the severest test; shame on the individual who will inveigh against such a government. -It is possible to place the cars of this country in the hands of such anarchs, riot, bloodshed, desecration and ruin would soon follow; are such men loyal? The language of some of the labor demagogues is treacherous; as much so as the utterances of '66, and yet they claim by their franchise to be patriotic. It is not necessary to prove patriotism by shouldering the musket; it can be better done by being law observing, law abiding citizens, seeking to do the greatest good for the greatest number, the exclusion of labor from the domain of the injustice of capital - are her skirts clear? -Your pen is crowded out of this issue. -Our friend A. H. Seidel carried off the prize at James Rehrig's shooting match recently. -Chicken-pox has made its appearance in this place, these cases therefore have been reported. -Our omnipresent young friend, Jas. E. McDaniel took in the H. Ball at Lehighton on last Thursday. -A. M. Cochran subscribed for the Advocates through McDaniel. He is well pleased with it all the latest and best news, ever published in this place. -The Lehighton Cornet Band passed through here last Saturday evening. Stopping at the Eagle Hotel, they skipped the light fantastic to for several hours. -OUR TABLE. -From the handsome gift of lithographed in colors, nicely cut out, to the last slip of the pad, Hood's Household Calendar for 1888 is thoroughly artistic. Every month is beautifully engraved, and each slip at once presents a new and pleasing combination of color printing. Hood's Calendar easily leads the procession. It is nice enough for any parlor and has so many excellent points in arrangement and convenience that it must be seen to be appreciated. Copies may be obtained at the drug stores, or by sending six cents in stamps to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. -We have just received from J. C. Greene & Co., their latest song entitled 'Hungry at Somebody's Door,' by Charles A. Davies. It is a beautiful song and will be popular as his last song, 'There's no one like Mother to me,' which we noticed some months ago. Any one of the songs will be sent for only $1.00 in stamps to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. -General News. -Chicago had a $200,000 fire on Wednesday. -Smith and Kilrain have refused to fight Sullivan. -Democratic and Republican clubs are being organized in the larger cities. -Mr. Beck was on Wednesday re-elected to the Senate by the Kentucky legislature. -Joseph Raibel, a New Albany, Ind., hotel man was robbed Wednesday of $25,000 in bonds. -Pardee & Co., coal kings, will attempt a number of violations in and around Lehighton shortly. -John Caffrey, an employee of the Bethlehem Iron Company was burned to death Wednesday. -Dr. Henry Leffman has been appointed collector in the Philadelphia Mint, by President Cleveland. -Emanuel Yakeley, of Varrick, N. Y., was dangerously shot Wednesday for insubordinating a poor woman. -The citizens of Los Angeles, Cal., will give a reception to Gen. Fremont on January 21, his 75th birthday. -Dan Driscoll, who murdered Heavy Garrity in New York last May must hang. He has been refused a new trial. -Twenty Indians have died of epidemic erysipelas at the Poplar River Agency in Montana and the disease still rages. -County treasurer Copeland, of Milford, was arrested on Wednesday, at the instigation of the commissioners. He is short in his accounts $4,000. -Dan Sully, a Lycoming, Pa., blacksmith, has sold his smithy in order to go to New York and enter a six day gas-gas-you-please walking match. -Five Americans were arrested in Paris Wednesday evening for connection with the recent robbery at Messalls's jewelry store in the Boulevard Madeleine.
