PACKETTES NOTES AND OPINIONS.

A Versatile Correspondent Comments on Times.

—Forwarding agent E. M. Williams has been confined to the house for several days with a severe cold; during his absence chief clerk Arthur J. Rowland has had charge of the office. —Despatcher Thomas Harleman is confined to the house; exposure during the severe weather so affecting his system that for a time he was threatened with serious illness.

PACKETTES NOTES AND OPINIONS.

—We understand that Samuel Evert is a candidate for supervisor; the district can do no better than re-elect him. Under his care and supervision the road tax is judiciously expended and the roads kept in good repair.

PACKETTES NOTES AND OPINIONS.

—A notice to the voters of Packerton to meet at the hotel of Leopold Meyer Saturday evening, for the purpose of nominating a ticket will do no doubt receive attention, but as this town is controlled particularly by the K. of L., it is hardly worth while for a straight out Republican or Democrat to hope for any recognition.

PACKETTES NOTES AND OPINIONS.

—We are going to have a wedding in our town in the very near future, but owing to the fact that we promised not to tell (and it is a solemn promise) who the happy ones are, why we won't suffice it to say they are young, handsome and perfectly content to engage in a life partnership. We extend them our best wishes and wish for them a full measure of all that goes to make wedded life happy.
