The Sewing Machine canvasser is numerous frequent, and ubiquitous. He invades the sanc-tity of your dwelling with the freedom of an old riend, and with the air of one who has come to stay. Sometimes he proves "a blessing in dis-guise" as the sequel to my story will ahow. My sunt has long had a strong and outspoken averson to these modest missionaries, who retaliate by sending every new and verdant canvasser to her house. Last week the familiar Sewing Machne wagon halted at her door, not seeking a customer however, for the gentlemanly agent only beggad to leave his machine until his broken wagor, could be repaired. Womanly curiosity prompted her to examine the machine in his absence, and the merits of the "New High Arm Davis" did the rest. She was pleased, and on the agent's return begged him to exhibit the machine. "World be sell its. No. It was a reading. To consist of anging to consist chine. "Would be sell it? The Oft Told Story

Barsaparilla is fully confirmed by the volun-tary testimeny of thousands who have tried it. Peculiar in the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, peculiar in the extreme care with which it is put up, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in the unequalled good name it has made at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, is the most popular and successful medicin before the public today for purifying the blood, giving strength, creating an appetite. "I suffered from wakefulness and low spirits, and also had eczema on the back of my head and neck, which was very annoying. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I have received so much benefit that I am very grateful, and I am always glad to speak a good word for this medicine." Mrs. J. S.
