

The Carbon Advocate

LEHIGHTON, PA. SATURDAY, MAY 15, 1888.

JAMES BLACK, OF LANCASTER COUNTY, has been nominated by the Prohibitionists for the Supreme Court Judgeship.

GRAND MASTER FOREMAN POWDERLY, of the Knights of Labor, pertinently and pointedly defines his political position in the following terse language: "I do not ask any man to accept my politics as the Simon pure article, but having been asked to define them, here they are, and those who wish to copy after them may do so."

THE CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN THE representatives of this government and the French authorities in reference to the enforced military service by France of naturalized American citizens of French birth...

OUR PHILADELPHIA LETTER

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 8, '88 Prof. David K. Tuttle, the successor of the late James C. Cook, Meier and Refiner of the United States Mint, has been discharging the duties of his position since April.

Two distinguished Virginians, Colonel W. B. Ayllet and Mrs. George Pickett, widow of the famous Confederate General, have been honored by the Division of Artillery and Ordnance of the War Department... was a Philadelphia for a few days during the week. (Read to see Jonah.) The May number of the North American Review is a very interesting volume. The contributions from Glasgow, Field and Pugh are very valuable, instructive and educating.

After the deluge, exclaimed King, as he was struck by the executioners block. And after "trusts" and monopolies have produced a reaction what then?

It is a jealous's peculiar nature To swell small things to great. Nay, out of naught Amid the hideous phantoms it has formed.
