A large delegation of John D. Bortolotto Post, 484 G. A. R., accompanied by the drum corps, will visit New Mahoning on Sunday and pay a tribute to the soldiers who are buried in St. John's cemetery. The Sunday schools and residents generally in that locality, are cordially invited to come out and participate in the memorial exercises. An address will be delivered by some well known speaker, after which the graves will be decorated with flowers, bright emblems of a beautiful spring time.

A snow-white mass of morphine, the active principle of some 15,000 strains of opium, has been on exhibition in REBER'S Drug Store window during the last ten days. This beautiful crystallization—as pure white and as light as snow-flakes—is the Doum Dou—Gift of God—of our Materia Medica; the great pain soothe and anodyne; it is the largest specimen ever exhibited in Lehighton. In the window can also be seen pictures of Frederick Victoria's christening, Dr. Mackenzie, who is now in attendance on the Emperor of Queen Victoria, Dr. Koch, the German Pathologist. The window is full of articles of interest and study, and is truly worthy of notice. It is gotten up with great taste and is representative of the character, appreciative manner of doing business at Reber's Drug Store.

Scars Another.

Between six and seven hundred people from Mauch Chunk, Packerton, Weisport and town assembled on the old fair grounds Saturday afternoon last to witness what proved to be an unusually interesting game of ball between the home club and the Mauch Chunk nine. There was some splendid playing on both sides; but the special features of the game was the work of the home battery, Reichard and Brinkman; Yaker's magnificent catch and double play and Hartler's batting. The umpire rendered very rare decisions on both clubs which resulted in much dissatisfaction. Below we append correct score:

Table with 3 columns: Team, Runs, Hits, Errors. Includes Mauch Chunk and Weisport teams.

Another Addition.

We this week added to our printing establishment a thirty-inch paper cutter, of the best make, purchased from W. C. Bieder, Philadelphia.

The Advocate office is now one of the most thoroughly equipped printing establishments outside the large cities, containing three presses, almost work, Potter cylinder press for newspaper work, Model and Allen presses for job and book printing, between four and five hundred fonts of wood and metal type, including the latest faces, for job, book and newspaper work. We also constantly carry in stock bill heads, note heads, letter heads, envelopes, programmes, invitations, business cards, &c., &c., which we can, and will, put up at prices as low if not lower than the same can be had elsewhere.

We have been printing for the past three years, has sold out his general merchandise store to J. F. Snyder, of Weisport. Mr. Grayer, who was a prominent man at Fairview, will be missed. He aided a great deal in building up that place and has put a number of houses there himself. He was looked upon as a man of integrity and a good citizen. He expects to locate somewhere in Carbon County in the near future. Mr. Snyder, who was the principal of the Weisport schools for 13 years past comes highly recommended and will endeavor to take Mr. Grayer's place in the community.
