A.C. YATES & Co., Best Made Clothing in Philadelphia.

FOR MEN AND CHILDREN, SIXTH & CHESTNUT, LEDGER BUILDING.

—A family tie—twins. —All's fair in base ball, even a foul.

—For small houses an appearance of greater size is given by having the whole lower floor carpeted alike.

Skeptical, By reason of the state of chronic incredulity in which many pass their lives.

—It was a New England woman who supplies her own crockery when she heard the ship had run aground.

—John Bull's very latest—Why is the American eagle gazing on the setting sun.

—The worst case of selfishness on record is that of a youth who complained because his mother put a larger mustard plaster on his younger brother than she did on him.

—We have a speedy and positive cure for catarrh, diphtheria, croup, mouth and head-ache.

—An Irishman tells of a fight in which there was only one whole nose left in the crowd.

—The Irish doctor—"And thin, w' I regard to the swellin' at the back of yer head, I don't apprehend anything serious; but kape yer eye sharp 'pon it!"

—The twenty-six barons who signed the Magna Charta, only three could write their names.

—Old Queenless is said to have died of melancholy, from having sacrificed Essex to his enemies.

—To make plaster set quickly, mix it with water into which a little sulphate of potash has been dissolved.

—Merrie Wins, We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Life Pills.

—William the Conqueror died from enormous fat, from drink, and from the violence of his passions.
