Bones disintegrate quickly in sea water. They are consequently seldom obtained during ocean dredgings, although teeth, which resist the action of the water indefinitely, are often brought up.

Vegetarianism does not protect from cancer. In a hospital at Jeypore, India, during the last eight years, forty-one operations for cancer have been performed on the persons of meat-eaters, and sixty-one on strict and life-long vegetarians.

A new glass, recently invented in Sweeden, is said to be capable, when made into a lens for a microscope, of "enabling us to distinguish the 204,700,000 part of an inch." It is also said that there is great promise of this glass producing wonderfully powerful telescope lenses and a new departure in astronomy.

According to a Chicago wagonmaker, white oak requires eighty years to mature; shell-bark hickory, from thirty to fifty years; tulip-tree, sixty or more years; and red or Norway pine at least sixty years. Artificially grown, fifty-five thousand feet or these kinds of lumber may be obtained from each acre.

There are in the German Empire between fifty and sixty manufactories of playing-cards, which in the last fiscal year turned out about 5,000,000 packs, of which about 1,000,000 were exported. About four fifths of Bill Heads the production consisted of packs containing not more than thirtysix cards, and of the larger packs ne greater part were exported.

An English physician of note expresses in the Lancet the belief that consumption is due to a constant irritation of the air passages, and that cold air breathof the time in the open air are the least likely to suffer from phthisis, because their lungs are accustomed to cold air as not to be irritated by it at night.

It is worth realizing that there is no such things as commonplace life or uninteresting circumstances. They are so only because we do not see into them, and, do not know them.

Life is warfare, and those who climb up and down steep paths, and go through dangerous enterprises, are the brave men and the leaders in the camp; but to rest basely at the cost of others' tabors, is to be a coward, safe because despised.

It is true that no bad man is ever brought to repentance by angry words, or by bitter, scornful reproaches. He fortifies himself against reproof, and hurls back foul charges in the face of his accuser. Yet guilty and hardened as he seems, he has a heart in his bosom, and may be melted to tears by a gentle voice

Life has its moments of strength and bloom; its bright moments of inspiration; in which the human artist, the painter of human life, seizes on and utters what is purest, most beautiful, and divine. If in our human life, we acted only then, if then all sacrifices were made, all victories won, there would be but little difficulty in life.
