THE PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE convened on Tuesday for its hundred da session, at the same time the annual mesage of Governor Beaver was presented The Governor, generally, reviews legislative work and offers some excellent recommen dations for approval. He advises less in terference with our revenue law, except is cases to establish clearness of fact. The Governor does not specially enthuse over the recommendation and passage of a rev enue bill suggested by such men as Palmer niles and Kendrick. The question of vot ing on the constitutional amendment for the suppression of the liquor traffic the Governor believes should be left to the people at a time when no other interestare before the people. The entire message is a resume of State matters and quite itteresting reading.

AND FOR THE DEMOCRACY. AND FOR THE DEMOCRACY.

THE SUN believes that the campaign for the election of a Democratic Congress in 1800 and a Democratic President in 1892 should begin on or about the fourth of next March. THE SUN will be on hand at the beginning and mill the end of the most interesting and important political conflict since the war, doing its honest intones, as ever, to secure the triumpn of the Democratic party and the permanent supremuery of the princip es held by Jefferson, Jackson and Tiden.

The great fact of the year is the return to absolute power of the common memory of all good Democratis—the political organization for whose everthrow The Sux fough at the front for 13 years, the memorable years of Grant and the Fraud Hayes, and Garfield and Arthur.

It is the same old enemy that Democrats now confront, and he will be intrengined in the same strong position. It has been carried once by brave and hopeful facilities. Do you not be leve with THE Sux that the thing can be done again? Wait and See!
