> German Singing Birds. In Germany and other countries of Europe there are many singing birds, beautiful in plum age and musical in song, that are not native to America. Among these are the nightingale. America. Among these are the nightingale, song thrush, builfinch, skvlark and others. A year ago a moment was made by citizens of Portland to import a thousand of these birds into Oregon, with the expectation that they would rapidly increase in numbers and soon become as identiful as the native birds. They will arrive in May, and will be turned losse in and near the city. The mocking bird, bob-o-lidk and red bird are also be laken to Oregon from the southern states. The mild climate of Oregon will no doubt be appreciated by what The West Shore Magazine calls "Our Feathered Immigrants," which is the title of a large art supplement accompanying the magazine for March. This is an elegant process. artistle printing in colors, and shows these bire street distinct kinds, in their natural come invervelover of birds will be charmed with the beautiful engraving.
