If you have made up your mind to buy Blood's Sarsuparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsuparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article A Boston lady who knew what she wanted and whose example is worthy imitation, tells

To Get
"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the eterk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ter days' trial; that if I did not like it I need no pay anything, etc. But he could not preval on me to change, I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla was feeling real miserable, suffering great deal with dyspepsia, and so weal that at times I could hardly stand. I looked. and had for some time, like a person in con-sumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes and my friends frequently speak of it." Mns.
