Miss Kistler has relatives in Minneapolis, and it was for that reason that they went that direction. She made Mrs. Rowland's acquaintance while the latter was matron of the Sheltering Arms in Philadelphia. Upon arriving in that city they repaired to the residence of Miss Mary A. Kistler, the widow of Daniel Kistler, 523 Lynciale avenue. A few days after their arrival Mrs. Rowland secured a position as nurse, 43 Highland ayouse, where she was arrested. Mrs. Rowland was well and fayorably known in Pennsylvania, and was highly recommended to Dr. Hammond by Mrs. Dr. Abbey, of the Sheltering Arms. Philadelphia, and Dr. Chase, of the Norristown Insane Asylum, Mrs. Rowland was unswiling-to raske any statement for publication, but insisted upon her innocence.
