

ORIGINAL CHEAP CASH STORE

Competition Beaten!

We have PLANNED, TOILED and BODIED, with a view of doing the LARGEST FALL and WINTER BUSINESS in the history of mercantile career.

We entered the market determined to give the coming season a stock which in its magnitude and completeness should mark an event in the history of Fall openings. We have succeeded beyond our expectations. Our stock is as complete as it is possible to make it, and we are so confident that our customers will approve the careful selections we have made.

It is no longer necessary to go away from home to do your shopping!

We are showing an array of Novelties in the most approved and newest styles and patterns, which are simply superb and warrants us in feeling that our display is without a blemish.

By purchasing in large quantities from first hands for CASH we secure the lowest possible prices, and by selling for CASH we insure nothing, so we are enabled to make such low prices as others will not dare attempt. Do not forget that the pick of bargains goes to the early buyer. Where all is good, there is always some choice, and the choice goes to those who make purchases early in the season. So we advise an early inspection.

LOCAL EVENTS CUT UP.

Joshua Currier, of Lehigh street, died on Wednesday evening after a short illness with typhoid fever. The deceased leaves a wife and several children to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father. He was a member of Poho Poco Tribe, No. 171, Imp. O. R. M., and Gaden Huetten Castle, No. 316, K. G. E. The funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon from his late residence on Lehigh street. Interment at Beck's church, Mahoning valley.

An interesting meeting of the "Gleaner" society of the Evangelical Sunday school, was attended by a large audience on Saturday evening. The programme, as follows, was delightfully carried out: Solo, Grace Peters; talk, Miss Mary Barry; duet, Sarah Heberling and Laura Newhart. The question box furnished a half hour's intellectual entertainment and in conclusion the doxology was sung.

We are indebted to the genial exhibitor J. W. Raudenbush for a sample bottle of "Fruit of the South," Lincoln county, Tenn., rice whiskey, especially recommended for medicinal use and family purposes generally. The "article" is rare and is sold by Jake only, he being the only agent this side of the Tennessee river.

Miss Emma J. Fumf, fashionable dress maker, opposite Reber's drug store, Bank street, announces to the ladies of Lehighton and surrounding country that she is prepared to do dress making in the very latest style at lowest charges, and asks a share of patronage. All work guaranteed.

A. W. Echeson on Wednesday moved to Downmanstown, having recently sold his home and lot on Lehigh street. He is an old contractor and builder—two specimens of his work being the public school building and the residence on Northampton street occupied by Squire Pierce Lentz.

The cold weather is almost here and it will pay you to see the heaters and ranges at W. S. Kuhns' store before purchasing elsewhere. Prices lower and goods better than elsewhere.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Lehighton Water Co. in Gabel's Hall Friday evening to vote on the matter of increasing the company's indebtedness.

Expressman Jeff Bretnery, who tumbled a hoghead of molasses on his right foot last Thursday is not working this week, although the injured member is somewhat improved.

At the opening of Schwartz's mammoth furniture establishment on Saturday evening, Arion Cornet Band was present and discoursed some of their sweetest selections.

Orders left at this office for butter, eggs, live and dressed chickens and country produce generally, wholesale and retail, will be promptly filled by W. H. Klotz.

The purchasing public will take notice that the general stores closing during the week at eight o'clock every evening will be open Saturday evening until a later hour.

"Faint" was the subject of an exceedingly interesting and most excellent discourse by Rev. Allen in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening.

Thomas Eck, of Jamestown, a suburb of this place, buried an interesting four-year old child in the Lehighton cemetery on Wednesday.

It is said that the Herah Furnace Co. have sufficient orders on hand to keep running continuously up to the Christmas holidays.

Call at Kemerer & Swartz's on Bank street, and see the largest stock of furniture, carpets, etc. You can save money by doing so.

W. E. Smith, of town, is the agent for a number of interesting and cheap juvenile books which parents should see.

Full line of Ingrain and Brussels carpets at Henry Schwartz, on Bank st.

Don't let the new depot project drop through. Keep knocking at it.

"Eagle Cash Store."

Your Attention, Please!

Don't want a pair of Boots, Shoes or Rubbers, a nice suit of Clothes, Dress Goods, a good, warm Blanket, Carpets or Oil Cloths? If you do, call and see my Large New Stock and make your selection. My prices on the above lines are lower than elsewhere. A Bargain Lot of Hosiery, Calico and Muslin will be sold away below cost.

COUNTY NEWS.

Local Jubilees Strung Together for Our Readers.

The citizens at Weatherly, at a special election voted the question of increasing the Borough's indebtedness to the extent of $7,500, said sum to be used for the purchase of an electric light plant, with a capacity of thirty-two street arc lights and 1100 incandescent lights. It is claimed the Borough can furnish the light cheaper than other parties, illuminate the streets and still make a fair profit on the investment.

Dennis Nothstein, of Normal Square, on Monday commenced operations with his traction engine in the Fire Line district. He makes a trip through the county every fall threshing, &c., for farmers. He will do this work for Griff Long, John Craig and many others this season who prefer steam power cheaper than hand mowing.

On the banks of the Big Creek in Towamencoon township a cow camped a band of gypsies who look the worse for wear and tear; they gather in old clothing, edibles and money by imposing on the credulity of people for miles around in their fortune telling stories that have not even the semblance of truth.

The quarterly meeting of the Welsh Baptist Association opened in the Summit Hill church on Tuesday, and the sessions continued until Wednesday evening. Ministers from the Wyoming Valley and all the surrounding Baptist churches were present. The services were conducted both in English and Welsh.

Ed. Reber, of Harris, is building an addition to his already large barn to hold boundless harvests of this year's yield. A representative of this paper on Monday found the general Ed with a number of hands busy husking rye ears of corn on his farm in Towamencoon.

On Sunday evening last four tramps broke into a freight car in the Packerton Yards, and when train dispatcher Allyn, of East Mauch Chunk, attempted to drive them out of the car he was forced into his office at the point of a revolver.

W. B. Tweedie and wife, for many years residents of Beaver Meadow, left last week for Detroit, Mich., where they will make their future home. Their many friends wish them success in their new home.

Many of the sign boards along the county roads are useless on account of the wording being obliterated. Township supervisors should see that new boards, plainly lettered, are erected according to law.

The Central Railroad depot at Bowmanstown was forcibly entered on Tuesday night by thieves and several valuable express packages were stolen—No clues to the robbers have yet been discovered.

Daniel Stramp, one of Bowmanstown's oldest and most respected Democratic citizens, is about convalescing from a serious typhoid fever illness of several months' duration.

At Anderson's, Sunday, the 15th by Rev. Father Marron, Michael Towley and Miss Kate McGarry, were happily united in matrimony's golden bond.

A number of masons are employed at the Evans Colliery, Anderson having a foundation for a new breaker which will be built in a short time.

Sheriff Levan will sell the personal property of Samuel Hawk, of Kidder township, at the next term of court to satisfy a writ of $10.

OUR "STROLLER."

Strolls Around Weisport and Vicinity and Catches a Live Strapping of Local Happenings.

DEATH'S DOKTOR.—Reuben Youngkin, of Franklin township, died on Sunday evening from typhoid fever. Deceased was born and raised in the neighborhood and was aged about fifty years. He leaves a widow and three grown up children—one girl and two boys—to mourn his death. Interment took place in the Big Creek cemetery on Wednesday.

OFF TO SCHOOL.—Bernard Voght, for a year past employed in the Packerton offices of the Lehigh Valley company, left this week for Newark, N. J., where he enters a school of stenography and shorthand. When he has conquered the intricate mysteries of these arts he will return.

OUR SCHOOLS.—The public schools of Franklin will open for a six months term on the first Monday in next month. Many of the buildings have been repaired during the summer and this, along with good teachers, should give us beneficial results.

DEED.—Will Hagenbuch, of Franklin, aged about twenty-three, died early Wednesday morning after several weeks illness with typhoid fever. He was a member of Washington Camp, 122, P. O. S. of A., who will attend the funeral in a body.

THE TRUCK WAGON.—Good Will Hook and Ladder Co., recently organized, will order a truck wagon with all modern improvements from Trexler & Kreider's carriage works, Lehighton. It will likely cost over $300.

BE CAREFUL.—A half dozen cases or more of typhoid fever are reported in this neighborhood. Be careful, exercise every possible care to stamp the disease out before it becomes epidemic and sweeps our district.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.—On Monday evening at an early hour thieves forced an entrance into Al. Merz's residence in Franklin, and carried off $8 or $10 worth of wearing apparel. This is the second robbery within a week. Now get your gun.

NEW TEACHER.—A young gentleman named Werthaler, from Monroe county, has been appointed to "teach the young idea how to shoot" in the Lehigh school building, East Weisport.

DON'T FORGET IT.—It's mean the fair and festival under the auspices of our Hook & Ladder Co., commencing on the 5th of November.

IF J. Shoemaker, assistant postmaster under J. G. Zern, spent Sunday with Northampton school friends.

FOR RENT.—A four-roomed dwelling over Reber's store is for rent. Apply to Rev. A. F. Leopold.

Squire John Miller spent several days with his daughter in Brookline, N. Y., during the past week.

A marriage for Union Hill is a society event promised for the near future.

A pretty wedding.

On Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Northampton street, Miss Alice, daughter of Engineer Alfred Stiller, was happily married to Francis Hummel, of Reading, by Rev. J. H. Kuder, pastor of the Lutheran church, Miss Tillie Seifert and Floy Sitter and Messrs. Lute Irvin and George Tills participated in the capacity of bridesmaids and groomsmen respectively. The interesting ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of guests from town, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Reading and adjacent points. Following the marriage ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous repast. Many useful and valuable presents were bestowed on the young couple who will take up their residence at Bethlehem with the best wishes of hosts of friends for a happy future.

A Lehightonian Honored.

The Springfield, Mass., Daily Union of last Saturday says: The reception given Superintendent Balleit in the First church parlors last evening by his Sunday school class was largely attended and was a very pleasant affair. It was by no means confined to the First church people, but the school committee and the teachers of the city were well represented. Superintendent Balleit had a very pleasant and enjoyable vacation trip and the heartiness of his welcome home last evening must have been exceedingly gratifying to one who has so lately become a resident of our city. One especially enjoyable experience which Mr. Balleit had while abroad was a Sunday at Hawarden, England, and hearing Mr. Gladstone read the service in the parish church there.

Fair stands and privileges on the Lehigh fair grounds were sold as follows on Saturday:

No. 1—Paul Schwellens, Mauch Chunk. No. 2—C. A. Wagner, Lehighton. No. 3 and 4—John Eck, Lehighton. No. 5—Alex Seidle, Pleasant Corner. No. 6—Leopold Meyers, Packerton. No. 7—Jacob Strassberger, Weisport. No. 8—Jacob Drumbror, Lehighton. No. 9—John Hesse, Lehighton. No. 10—A. W. Reber, Allentown.

MAHONING LETTER.

A Lively Batch of Interesting Local News From Our Regular Correspondent.

As previously announced the New Mahoning Cornet Band will hold its annual picnic on the afternoon and evening of next Saturday, September 28th in Hoppes' Grove. A game of ball will be played in the afternoon. The band is famous for getting up good picnics, and the one to be held on Saturday will be no exception to the rule. If you want a day of unalloyed pleasure you will be on hand. Refreshments of every kind are to be had on the grounds.

Our public schools will open for a six months term on the 14th of October. We hope that the farmers will see that all their work which the school children have to do, will be done by that time so that the children can attend school on the first day and attend regularly. The term is short and parents cannot afford to keep their children at home. Let the boys and girls have the benefit of the full term.

Get that big pumpkin ready for the Carbon County Fair next week. On other years, the exhibits from the Valley were among the best at the fair and drew a good share of the premiums, still the number of exhibits could be greater if more people took an interest in the matter, which they should. Let the exhibits be greater and more varied this year than ever before.

Rev. A. Bartholomew has five congregations under his charge and the field is very large for him to do his work as he would like to. He has therefore, called a meeting of the trustees and deacons of the churches of his charge to decide whether another minister is to be appointed to help him, or whether the churches are to be divided into two districts.

A very successful picnic under the auspices of several Camps of the P. O. S. of A., was held on Saturday at Manta's Hotel, in West Penn. The exercises consisted of singing and speeches and were very interesting. The New Mahoning, Ringgold, Summit Hill and Lehigh bands were present and made things lively.

Obert & Hofford have sold their saw mill machinery, with which, for the past two or three years, they have converted their large timber tract at Pleasant Corner into lumber, to a firm which will remove it to Virginia. John Yost has been engaged by the new firm and will, in the near future, move to Virginia.

Lewis Zimmerman is doing a flourishing business selling carriages and wagons. Thus far this season he has sold one hundred and fifteen; a record which, for a community like ours, is hard to beat.

Last week while Dennis Nothstein was passing with his engine over the bridge which spans the mill race at Hoppes' mill, the bridge gave way and nearly threw the machine into the mill.

Oak Grove Colliery, Jr. O. U. A. M., which was but recently organized at Pleasant Corner, already has a membership of twenty-four and will receive more members before long.

The Mahoning school board will hold its regular monthly meeting on Saturday in the Pleasant Corner school house. The old school house and lot at that place will be offered for sale.

The picnic of Zimmerman's Sunday school which was to have been held on the 14th inst., but which could not be held on account of the rain, will now be held on Oct. 12.

Daniel Christmas, of Bloomingdale, died of apoplexy on Sunday night. Interment took place Thursday morning at St. Peter's church.

The ADVOCATE takes the lead here; its circulation in the valley is at least five times as large as that of all the other papers put together.

Amadus Henninger and wife, of Allentown, and Mrs. John Gemmel, of Catawqua, were guests of Dr. P. D. Keiser last week.

Owing to the continual increase of business Mahlon Nothstein, our popular blacksmith, will shortly erect a new and larger shop.

Miss Leslie Fessler, of Lansford, teacher of the New Mahoning school for the ensuing term, spent last Sunday in the valley.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 8th, the Lutheran Pastoral Association will hold a meeting in the Brick church, East Penn.

Frank Stanley and wife, of Franklin, Pa., were visiting relatives and friends in the valley during the week.

CARBON'S CAPITAL.

Interesting Local Breweries From the Famous "Switzerland" by our Regular Correspondent.

REWARD OF GREATNESS.—As General Lilly, of Mauch Chunk, walked down Chestnut street yesterday, he illustrated in his attire the contempt for stylish clothing which only rich men can afford to display. His grayish coat was hung wide open and flapped in the winds like a torn sail in a storm. Over his arm was a rubber coat, on one end of which he kept stepping with a muddy shoe until it was impossible to tell which was rubber and which mud. His headgear, an old brown straw hat, entitled by service to high place on the retired list, was pushed back on his head, exposing his kindly face, then illuminated with a smile. Scores turned to look at his old make up, not one in twenty of whom had the remotest idea of his identity. Such is fame.—Phila. Register, Sept. 19.

BADLY INJURED.—Harry Schab, of East Mauch Chunk, a lineman employed by the telegraph department of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, was badly hurt at Park Place, on the Mahanoy Division, on Saturday. He was seated on the crossbeam of a pole, about thirty feet from the ground, on the sole breeze and he fell, striking on his back the Lehigh Valley Hotel. He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital on the 4 o'clock train on Saturday.

AT ALLENTOWN.—The County Commissioners, their clerk and solicitor were in attendance at the State Convention of County Commissioners in session at Allentown this week. During their absence the office was in charge of Quint Arner, a Franklin township school teacher, who played sad havoc with the hearts of the pretty excursionists who were fortunate enough to catch his beamy smile as they passed the county building.

NEW TELEGRAPH LINK.—A new telegraph line is being erected by the Lehigh Valley Railroad from Easton to this city. The present lines are insufficient for the work required of them. The wire and batteries for the new line have been distributed along the different stations, and work on it will be pushed with all possible haste.

WORK OF THE SILENT REAPER.—On Friday night at the residence of George Twining, in East Mauch Chunk, George Slater died at the ripe old age of eighty-four years, of feebleness and general debility consequent to extreme old age. He was buried on Monday at the old Hamilton church, Saylorsburg, Monroe county.

CHANGE OF LANDLORDS.—Messrs. J. S. Keiser & Son will take possession of the Mahanoy House next week; the final transfer was made on Monday evening, when J. S. Welbert disposed of his entire stock to the new firm, who will make things boom at the new stand.

PLAY BALL.—Chicago's champion female baseball club will play ball on the new grounds at Glen Onoko on Thursday next. Some Carbon county club will be their opponents. It promises to be an interesting as well as exciting game.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Already over four hundred electric lights have been subscribed for by less than fifty Mauch Chunk merchants. This is progressiveness with a big P.

EXCURSION.—On October 6th Josiah Connelly, the blind and one-armed soldier, will run his popular fifty cent excursion over the famous Switchback railroad.

JAIL.—Two Hungarians, with names of the unpronounceable kind, were named on Monday by Squire Beckhardt, of East Mauch Chunk, for non-payment of debt.

RELEASED.—Benedict Blechard and Henry Mangold, both of East Mauch Chunk, spent several hours in Levan's (Cotton) argument court, convenes on Monday, October 7, at which time the assessment cases, of which fact you recently published, will be heard.

Fair Attractions.

Among the sporting attractions at the fair will be the grand horse racing. One or two new classes have been opened and the prizes raised. Up to date a number of good horses have been entered and the event looks promising. The programme of races is appended for reference:

ELEGANT NEW DRESS GOODS.

Our Stock is Immense. Positively Twice as Large as it was Last year.

We have just laid in our big stock of Dry Goods. Owing to the large trade we enjoyed during last year, we were compelled to double our stock in Dry Goods this year.

We have purchased an immense stock. Better styles than last year, with the advantage of lower prices. We give only the very lowest prices, so that competition can not undersell us in any line of goods.

No store in the county can undersell us. We are ready for competition; we are high price killers; we are big profit killers.

Our main object is to sell a large amount of goods at a small profit; we find that big sales and small profits are to our advantage. It makes business brisk and wins us lots of friends among the purchasing public.

All we ask of you is that you call and inspect our large, new and elegant stock. In prices, in excellence and in styles we can positively please you. Very Respectfully,

Adam Mehrkam and Son, Below the P. O., South Bank Street.

Schwartz's Furniture Rooms,

NEW BUILDING, SOUTH BANK STREET,

The Fall and Winter season is opened here with one of the largest assortments of FURNITURE ever shown outside of the larger towns and cities and at prices that will surprise you for lowness, and at the same time knock competition in the shade. We ask you to call because we are positive that in price, quality and our style of goods we can more than please you. Carpets are also a line of goods we carry in stock at low prices. We also pay particular attention to Undertaking and Embalming.
