ROBERT WALP.

CARDON COUNTY BREKERS.

Grief of Local Grinding from the Flower of Events.

Weatherly, with a population of nearly 4,000, has a lawyer located within its limits.—Weatherly.

John Boyle, engineer at No. 1, Jeannette, met with a painful mishap Sunday afternoon. He was working at the large engine, when his right arm was struck with one of the rods and broken.

Miss Clara Vanocetter and Harry Snyder, both of Packerton, were happily married Thursday evening last by Rev. Bartholomew. The young couple have the best wishes of numerous friends for future prosperity.

James Zelgofus, of Lower Townemansing, who was seriously injured by his horse running away this side of Millport, a few weeks ago, is about again. When his horse took flight he was thrown under their heels and received scalp wounds from which he was unconscious when found.

Weatherly rejoices in a wonderful little prodigy who can play on the piano organ any tune that a piano organ player can play. The child is Jeanie Fann, and her age only six. She participated at a recent church festival and was the wonder of the evening.

Weatherly has ten cases of diphtheria. Everything possible is being done to eradicate the fell disease but without avail. It will be remembered that the same town suffered severely from the epidemic last spring. Last week two deaths are said to have occurred in one family.

Charles M. Osann, of Philadelphia, and Miss Belle P. Smith, an accomplished young lady of Weatherly, were married Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. M. Ash, at the home of the bride. A large number of friends were in attendance and the young couple were made the recipients of numerous presents.

The new engine, John S. Lentz, recently built at the Hazleton shops, collided with the iron bridge at Packerton on Sunday morning, and the Hungarian was badly wrecked. It was picked up and taken to St. Luke's Hospital, Bethlehem, for repairs and has since died.

On Wednesday last week William Sherman, of Audenried, and Miss Fannie Park, of Neunburg, New York, were united as man and wife at the latter place. A number of friends of the room attended the ceremony. The happy couple reached Audenried on Saturday, and will go to housekeeping at once.

On Friday night of next week the Pioneer Dramatic Company will produce "The Social Graces" drama in Beaver Meadow. This company gave a very successful entertainment at Audenried lately and Beaver Meadow people can count on a pleasing entertainment. The proceeds will be given to the cadet society of that place.

A local writer in an exchange says: If the Strohl family ever wish to gain another audience in Weatherly the young ladies of the family really must learn how to sing, dress, smile and how to open their mouths.

The instrumental music was first put out tonight. We have too much real talent at home to care to waste our time on strangers who simply bore us. The tiny members of the family were quite entertaining.

Lower Townemansing Items. Protracted revival meetings are being held at Hazard's.

Supt. T. A. Snyder visited our public schools last week.

There are at present four cases of typhoid fever in Bowmanstown.

Rev. Erb, of Slatkington, preached last Saturday evening in the School House at Bowmanstown.

The new Lutheran Chapel erected at Millport will be dedicated on Sunday the 24th of November.

Peter Biese was the first person who polled the first vote in the new election district of Bowmanstown.

In the new election district of Bowmanstown there were 88 votes cast, at the election last Tuesday for the first time.

John Schwelbuz and John Farver who both occupied the house of Fred Hervey moved to Packerton last week.

Persons wishing to subscribe for the Advocate will call on O. O. Biese. He is soliciting new subscribers for the same.

Walter Biese will give a grand raffle for a gold watch and a silver watch on Dec. 7th at the Fire Line Hotel. Tickets 50 cents.

The teachers of Lehigh Gap and vicinity have organized a debating club, they meet Thursday evening of each week.

Weatherly Correspondence. Preparations for a concert some time in December are now being made under the care and supervision of Prof. Lutz.

The next Jubilee Band of the Reformed Sunday school will give a musical entertainment in their church on Friday evening. The band is under the care and supervision of Mr. Frank Rouig and Miss Lizzie Fisher.

Lawyers Freymann, Loose and Harber were at the Gilbert House this week for the purpose of taking testimony in the case of a number of property owners on Wilbur street versus the borough of Weatherly. It seems some of these property holders are dissatisfied with the amount they were taxed by the appearance for the liquidation of the costs incurred by the borough in opening that thoroughfare.

Diphtheria has again broken out in several parts of town and the usual flag is again displayed at a number of houses. There is certainly something wrong with the sanitary condition of this place and the sooner the authorities ferret it out the better it will be for the town. At such an elevation and with such natural drainage, it is not to be troubled every year with a diphtheria epidemic.

The chicken coops of a number of our most enterprising citizens were lately visited by thieves who off course did not fail to lessen the number in each coop every visit they made. Several parties are suspected as being the thieves but so far no arrests have been made. It must indeed be mortifying for a man to see his chickens, whose grateful growth he so carefully watched all summer, suddenly disappear. The Weatherly poultry department should jump on its feet and offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of the thieves.

The society event of the week was the marriage of M. S. A. Gansinger of the firm Gangwere Bros., to Miss Annie Roth, of South Railroad street. The marriage took place on Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents. Rev. Kunkle of the Lutheran Church solemnized the contract in the presence of quite a number of invited friends and acquaintances of the contracting parties. The Weatherly Corset Band serenaded them with some of their most excellent music. Their many friends in town wish them such unmolested happiness as the travel together through life.

MAUCH CHUNK'S NEWS BUDGET.

Street News Scintillations from the Vernalis Quill of our Spectator.

Adjourned argument court convenes here on Tuesday.

Hon. E. M. Murrill is slowly convalescing from a recent severe attack of bronchitis.

Jury Commissioner Josiah Williams, for forty-one years a resident of Lansford, took hands with old friends here on Wednesday.

Squire Grimes, of Freehold, secretary of the Middle Old Field Poor District, was a distinguished visitor in town on Tuesday.

On the 23rd of November Sheriff Hiram P. Levan will sell twenty shares of the capital stock of the Lehigh Valley Emery Wheel Co., of Weisport. The shares are the property of W. H. Cresson and at one time were valuable "aunt."

William Reich, of the second ward, for some years employed as a car inspector on the Lehigh Valley railroad, was caught between two cars at the depot on Monday night and almost instantly killed. He was so horribly mangled that internment was necessary on Wednesday.

Ed. Nichols is working on a guide book possessing features of peculiar novelty. It will contain fifty or more pages descriptive of Mauch Chunk and surroundings and in its pages will be embellished with views and picturesque places in the vicinity. The work will be published by Jeanease, the bazaar man not later than next spring.

Thus far the following aspirants for Court Crier have loomed up: Charles MacDaniel, Weisport; Dr. Bowman, East Mauch Chunk; Tilmann Mackay, Frankfort; William Holly and P. J. Leitch, Mauch Chunk. The court will make the appointment very likely next week.

Stanley, the murderer of Mrs. Walter, of Weatherly, is ill at ease and don't act regularly. Sunday he had a visit from his aged parents who reside in Franklin township, Lehigh county. Nothing has thus far been done for his defense. His parents are poor people and cannot help him with counsel, while Stanley is also without funds. The January court will likely hear his case.

James J. Boye, Esq., of town, one of our most prominent young citizens, was a lay delegate to the Catholic congress in session at Baltimore, Md., this week. He was appointed by Archbishop Ryan and was accompanied by D. C. Mulharen. The session was the first ever held on the soil of America and was called to order by Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, who said that "the congress had two great purposes: to hasten the glory and progress of the Catholic Church and to continue the prosperity of the American people."

Carbon county has issued through her Commissioners the following bonds: Charles Meendoss, Lower Townemansing, two of $500 each; Michael Martin, Mauch Chunk, two of $500 each; Mrs. K. J. Evans, Lehigh, two of $500 each and two of $250 each; David Heitz, Franklin, five of $500 each; B. J. Steierwald, Paryville, one of $250; David J. Kops, Mauch Chunk, three of $500 and two of $250; William Holly, Mauch Chunk, one of $500; Samuel Levan, Lehigh, two of $250 each. Several thousand of the $27,000 is still needed.

Sunday afternoon Central railroad policeman Brelford, Policeman Rex, Detective Leutz and S. F. Behler arrested a gang of six burglars near Nequehoning. They had in their possession jewelry and other property stolen from a Freehold store. They gave their names as William White, Thomas Ryan, Michael Patterson, Thomas Conway and Henry Marsh and all have the appearance of being professional burglars. They were in Fort Levan on Sunday. Monday they were given a hearing at Freehold and are now in jail at Wilkesbarre. When caught the men were asleep which probably prevented bloodshed. S. F. Behler particularly deserves credit in the capture of the thieves; it was his first participation in an arrest of their kind but he stood the ordeal successfully showing that he had the nerve of a "stayer" and the courage of a good Democrat.

If nothing unforeseen occurs County Commissioners Josiah Williams, of Lansford, and Nathan Stember, of Townemansing, will on Monday, with the assistance of Sheriff Levan and clerks, fill the jury wheel for the coming year of 1890. The proportion of jurors to each town and district in the county will be as follows: Audenried, 17; Beaver Meadow, 32; Frankfort township, 32; Mauch Chunk, 22; Nequehoning, 23; Packerton, 11; Paryville, 8; Penn Forest, 7; Summit Hill, 44; Townemansing, 14; Weatherly, 40; Weisport, 7. The officials should exercise great care in the selection of citizens to act in the capacity of jurors, being impartial cases before the next court, but in any event, only the strongest and competent men should be called to act in this capacity.

Paryville Clips. A new roof is being put on the frame dwelling house owned by Dennis Bowman and occupied by James Wagner.

During this week two former residents have again taken up their abode here, viz: Thomas Biese and family, of Weatherly, and John Roth, of Kildler's Cove, Nequehoning. Welcome back, thrice welcome!

Dr. Haas, lately confined with typhoid fever, is able to be about again, and is now visiting his parents in Lehigh county, where it is thought, that with perfect rest and quiet, he will soon regain his usual strength and vigor.

Paryville is luxuriating in the enjoyment of a first-class boom just now—one furnace is in full blast and the second one will likely be fired up for duty on Monday, while the prospects for number three are very bright. Twenty laboring men were employed during the week with more to come later on. It is also whispered about that the pipe foundry will be started up in the near future. Verily, things look bright for the old town.

It is likely that before another year passes this town will have a Reformed church edifice; the congregation now worshiping in the school building and are a reverent and Christian under the guidance of Rev. T. A. Huber, an earnest and eloquent divine who succeeded Rev. J. E. Freeman about a year ago. When Paryville was in its prime the congregation numbered sixty or seventy, but owing to deaths and removals it is now only about twenty-five.

2500 Overcoats and Suits. We have them for little more than 2 years old up to big boys 100 years. Our overcoats are well made, good-fitting and we can save you from $1 to $5 on each overcoat, winter or suit you buy at the One Price Store Clothing Mill, Mauch Chunk.

PEOPLE WHO COME AND GO.

Personal Gossip about People who Visit and go Visiting.

Prof. T. T. Gietler and wife called on Slatkington friends Sunday evening.

Mrs. Wilson Kellner, of Walnutport, spent several days in town this week.

Mrs. Franz Roederer, of Northampton street, visited Coplay friends on Sunday.

County Superintendent of Schools, T. A. Snyder, was to New York City this week.

John J. Kutz, a popular Bank street tobacconist, did business at Cressonia, Pa., during the week.

Ed. Campbell, Franz's tenorial artist, and Henry Stuber, did Allentown on Sunday, and are said to have wrecked several fine hearts on the breakers of love. Oh, boys!

Our big-hearted friend, John Hank, Sr., the baker, was at Tamagus and Lansford on Friday and Saturday last, doing business and shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Hank is the oldest baker in this section—he did his business at Weisport as far back as the '60's, in which decade he was cleaned out by the flood. Later he moved to this place where he has resided since, doing a first-class business in the town surroundings.

An old gentleman of four score years and five doing business in "Squire Beltz's" court on Wednesday was William Belz, a prosperous farmer of West Penn, Schuylkill county, and a relative to the "Schuylkill" in the old antique ark was the Lehigh river before the canal was built, was among the first to mine coal at Summit Hill before the town was planned.

It is also a cousin to Thomas Bellz, of Mahoning, who is aged eighty-four years. When twenty-one years of age he started out to make his fortune and succeeded so well that ere many years had passed he was $25,000. He is hale and hearty and bids fair to reach the age at which his grandmother died, namely 105.

Notice, Jr., U. A. M. E. All members of Lehigh Council, No. 101, Jr. O. U. A. M., are requested to meet in the lodge room, Gabel's Hall, Bank street, Lehigh, at 8.30 p. m. sharp on Sunday, October 17, 1890, for the purpose of attending the Reformed church in a body. By order, Jos. BENNY, Concllour. Attest—W. J. HEBRELING, Sec.

A Bare Truth. For such it may really be called is in store for our people who attend the musical and dramatic entertainment under the management of Miss Emma L. A. Kistler in the Opera House on Saturday, the 23rd instant. Among those who will assist in the rendition of a highly interesting programme are Messrs. I. S. Diehl and H. B. Kennel, and Misses Emma Ober, Annie Maule, Margie Kistler and Maggie Kistler, while Miss Mame Miller, a beautiful and accomplished vocalist of Philadelphia will render several choice selections. Miss Miller has quite a reputation, and a sweet voice and excellent training to sustain it. Admission 25 and 35 cents.

Pleasantly Surprised. On the occasion of Mrs. A. W. Horn's 50th birthday anniversary, last Friday evening, the members of her bible class in the Lutheran Sunday school treated her to a very pleasant surprise by assembling in a body at her residence on Lehigh street. The evening was agreeably spent and concluded with choice refreshments at a late hour. Mrs. Horn was made the recipient of numerous presents as an expression of the esteem in which she is held by the members of the class. Among those present were the following: Mrs. Peter Helm, Mrs. Phoen Claus, Mrs. Jos. Hess, Mrs. Bogodanski, Mrs. Komantki, Mrs. B. Reinhard and Mrs. J. Shookmaker.

Public Installation. Reber's Hall was comfortably crowded on Friday evening, the occasion of the first public installation of L. O. G. T. officers. A programme of addresses, recitation and music was recited with much credit, following the installation of the below named officers: C. T. —H. H. Whitehead. V. T. —Sally Whitehead. Secy. —A. W. Horn. Treas. —Andrew Riffert. F. S. —John Bonn. C. —Laura Hofford. M. —Ella Oswald. Guard —Eddie Zener. Sent. —Ed. Laner. A. S. —Sally Hofford. D. M. —Lena Hofford.

Packerton Ripples. Wenzel Snyder, one of our active citizens is no longer a Benedict. We congratulate him on the change.

The L. V. R. Co. are about making arrangements for the erection of a new electric light plant at this point, the present plant is inadequate.

Master Mechanic Kinsey and E. H. Wilbur were here this week with a new car built by Mr. Kinsey at the South Easton shops. It is a model of strength and beauty and is designed for the use of the roveratic power of the L. V. R. H.

Mahone will explain ere long just how he got licked. Foraker admits that Campbell had too many votes. Grubb knew more about politics, he admits that Jersey has too many Democrats, and is sorry he spent so much money. Mention of Iowa, charges it all to Prohibition and the lack of credit and his duty to Quay suggest an overtaxed mind. What can a Democrat expect the hard-worked P. M. G.

It is conceded that James Handwerk will be the chief candidate of the Republican party to succeed himself. Why not? Handwerk is the only Republican in this county who stands a ghost of a chance for success. The leaders of the party are not to be depended upon; he is a popular, efficient officer, not offensive to Democrats and very necessary to Republican representation in Carbon; of course, it is possible that there may be some other Republican with a longing for the office, but their obscurity is so obscured by the present incumbent that no modern light is likely to reveal their weaknesses.

Ladies Pinch Onias and Jackets. These garments can be bought in better make and fit and for less money at the One Price Star Clothing Mill, Mauch Chunk, than elsewhere. We are selling good plush jackets at $10, $12, $15 and up, and elegant plush coats at $30, $35, $45 and up. We can save you 20 cents on each dollar.

R. J. Hengen has purchased the right for several new counties and is pushing the sale of the popular Gibraltair wagon pole. In connection with this he is doing a rushing "biz" at his blacksmith shop.

Buy the Galbraith patent self-centering carriage and sleigh pole; will fit any carriage or sleigh and can be attached and adjusted in a minute. R. J. Hengen, just over the canal bridge, is the agent. Call and see it.

Six acres of valuable property on Union Hill is being surveyed and converted into building lots by Daniel Grauer. The property is known as the old Graver estate and is nicely located with a front on Weisport. The lots will be ready for sale at a low figure shortly.

Our population was increased this week by the arrival of bumping babies at the homes of Harry Fenstermacher, R. J. Sewell and H. J. Shoemaker, which accounts for the grand chorus—"Oh, it's nice to be a father, it's nice to be a father, with a bouncing baby upon your knee."

Probably the oldest voter in Carbon county is Menziah Ruff, of Franklin, who is 91 years old this month. He voted seventeen times for President of the United States—his first vote being cast for Andrew Johnson. He is an old "hickory" Democrat, born and dyed in the wool of the teachings of Jefferson.

For the past ten weeks Mrs. Sallie Schreiber has been confined to bed with dysentery. She is perhaps the oldest lady resident on this side of the river, for she lives until January 27, 1890, she will celebrate her 85th birthday. She is the mother of the late J. L. Schreiber and mother to Lewis, William and Mary Schreiber and Mrs. J. W. Gilliam. For more than three score years she has been a resident of this place, coming here when Sunday was hardly known and the country a dense of scrub and brush.

The fair and festival last week under the auspices of the Good Will Hook and Ladder Company was a grand success—the efforts of the boys resulting in clearing a net profit of about $400. The committee worked hard and brought in the following amounts; the collectors of the most people receiving the prizes: For the organ, Lillie Fastinger, $139.20; Annie Schafer, $92.15; Della Albright, $19.25. For the bedroom suite, Lena Hengen, $81.10; Cora Buss, $54.05. For the silk dress pattern, Addie Cochler, $24.55; Lizzie Nothstein, $14.70. Friday evening the Arion Cornet Band brought to the festival the liveliest spirit of Lehigh Hook and Ladder Company, Lehigh, in the following persons: J. W. Rauberhahn, Jon. Kistler, Ed. Haworth, James Ash, Henry Schwartz, T. W. Claus, M. G. Claus, Chas. Miller, A. L. Campbell and Messrs. Coon and Waddle. Everything passed off in the most pleasant manner which is to the credit of the committee who deserve great compliment for their earnest and continued effort in the fire company's interest.

Brilliant Wedding. Married Nov. 11th at 9 o'clock P. M., at the residence of Mrs. A. Groot, in East Weisport, by the Rev. Mr. Ackerman. Mrs. Chas. Frey of Easton, Pa., to Miss Eulalia Souderson, of Porters Lake. Those in attendance were Mr. Chas. Miller and family of Easton, Pa., Miss Ella Brown, and Mr. Edwin Brown, of Mauch Chunk, Pa.; Mr. Wm. Red and wife, Mr. Joe Zern and wife, Mr. Edwin Groot and wife. The bridal party left with 5 P. M. train for Washington, D. C. They have our best wishes. Easton papers please copy.

Given Away. A beautiful 8 day walnut parlor clock will be given away to every purchaser of $45 worth of goods at Sondheim's merchant tailoring hall, Mauch Chunk.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeiters, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine.

Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.
