BRIGG'S HEADACHE TROCHES

FOR SICK HEADACHE

—IN ITS—

NERVOUS, BILLIOUS, OR CONGESTIVE FORMS.

This Remedy is the prescription of one of the leading physicians of Paris, France and was used by him with unparalleled success for over thirty years, and was first given to the public as a proprietary medicine in 1878, and since that time it has found its way into almost every country on the face of the globe, and become a favorite remedy with thousands of the leading physicians. Medical societies have discussed its marvelous success at their annual conventions, and after their official chemists have analyzed it and found that it contained no opiates, bromides, or other harmful ingredients, quietly placed it among their standard remedies.

TESTIMONIAL.

L. B. BROWN, M. D., 23 West Jersey St., Elizabeth, N. J., June 29, 1880.

"This is to certify that I have used for some months with much satisfaction, the combination of remedies for Headache, known as Brigg's Headache Troches. The remedy cures more headaches especially such as affect Nervous Women than anything I am acquainted with, and I am confident will be the means of bringing it to a favorable attention of sufferers from that trouble, I shall feel that I have done them a service."

It is not unusual to see a tall man short of funds.

MR. H. T. BROWN.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Beckley's Arises Salve, and other medicines, and have never had a complaint that we have not cured. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity only on their merits. REBER Druggist.

One can never tip a waiter so that he loses his balance.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with abundance of coughs, and friends and physicians pronounced me as incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and now on my third bottle, and able to overcome the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewert, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now a well of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at REBER'S Druggist.

"You are always talking about a donkey you don't mean me?" "What all say? There are many donkeys besides you."

Consumption Surely Cured.

To THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send you lots of my Family Medicine. If any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and postage address. Respectfully, T. A. Slocum, M. D., 181 Pearl St., New York.

Ambition is a vacuum that will never be filled.

When you see a woman meekly obey her husband you can be sure of one or two things—she is either afraid of him or she is working him for a new bonnet.

Forced to Leave Home.

Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lewis' Family Medicine. If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated and have headache and an unsightly complexion, don't fail to call on any druggist to get a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Everyone likes it. Large sized package 50 cents.

The key to a good situation is not whiskey.

The toper demonstrates the motto that "there is always rum at the top."

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the popular way in which the proprietors of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds do is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give all those who call for it a simple bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

Nothing tries the soul of man more than a shoe peg.

Every is an acknowledgment of the fortune of others.

POPPING THE QUESTION.

When in the course of human events a young man makes up his mind to do the very important question, "and great difficulty in coming to" point. As we are not at all bashful, a boldy say. We will not answer you as, as we ask you to go to your druggist or dealer in toilet articles, and purchase a bottle of "Fall Brothers' Ideal Tooth Powder, the best made. As an inducement for you to try it, we give you a handsome engraving with two 25 cent bottles, 20x24, no advertising on it. There is a tickle under the neck of each bottle.

The fool who kills himself never makes the wrong person.

Could not Keep

Shop without them. I consider your Sulphur Bitters a remarkable blood purifier, I know of several people, whose cases were considered hopeless, that have been cured by your medicine. The sale of Sulphur Bitters is so large here that I could not keep shop without them. E. S. Yates, Pharmacist, 99 Essex street, Lawrence, Mass.

Blood vs. Nerves.

Great mistakes have been made in the world by supposing many nervous troubles were due to blood. Thus headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, are always due to weakness or irritation of the nerves of the brain, dyspepsia, pain, wind, etc., weakness of the nerves of the stomach, weak lungs is caused by weakness of the heart; biliousness, constipation, etc., weakness of the nerves of the liver, rheumatic pains, irregularity, sterility, enlargement of the uterus, nervous prostration, Dr. Miller's great nerve and brain food surpasses all other remedies. Trial bottles free at Blyer or Thomas' druggist.

MEM YOU HEAR OF.

Elijah Halford has taken to horseback riding.

Gen. Boulanger's personal expenses are defrayed by his French admirers.

It is said that Senator Chase is the only Quaker now in public life at Washington.

Baron Haussmann, who did so much to improve Paris, is now a vigorous old man of 90 years.

Dom Pedro, ex-emperor of Brazil, is an honorary member of the New York Historical Society.

Theodore D. Weld, the well known anti-slavery agitator, celebrated his 80th birthday recently.

Vice-President Morton has already achieved the distinction of being the best dressed man in Washington.

Mr. Sophronia, the Greek patriarch of Alexandria, is 90 years of age, and has been a priest for seventy years.

The late David Berry, of Coolangatta, left $500,000 to St. Andrew's university.

Gen. Abner Doubleday is one of the three surviving officers of the garrison of Fort Sumter at the time of its first bombardment.

Governor-elect Campbell, of Ohio, is a Knight Templar, a member of the Knights of Pythias, the Grand Army of the Republic and the Order of Elks.

The Rev. T. F. Sanford, who has become a member of a Baptist church in Birmingham, England, is a full blooded negro, who was born a slave in Virginia.

Congressman Randall occupies a small and very modest house on an unfashionable street near the Capitol in Washington. His home is as unpretentious as his manners.

The late Sir Benjamin Phillips, of London, was descended from the famous Rabi of Padua, Meri Katzenellenbogen, or Maharam, one of the most influential Jews of the Sixteenth century.

Sir Julian Paucotet is devoting a good deal of time to the study of American literature. He says that he had no real notion of the richness and variety of the work of our men of letters.

Sarsate is a rather handsome man of a pronounced Spanish type. His thick, wavy hair, originally jet black, is now tinged with gray, and worn in such a way as to give a peculiar and at the same time dignified touch to his features. His manners are affable, and he speaks English fairly well.

THE GENTLER SEX.

Mrs. Harrison says that the stare of the crowd is one of the trials of her life.

Mrs. Quay, wife of the Pennsylvania senator, was a great belle in her girlhood.

Jean Inglew lives in a great crowded house in a wide old garden in Kensington.

Mrs. de Due, the wife of the Swedish ambassador at Paris, is a distinguished landscape painter.

Hortense Bertrand, daughter of Count Bertrand, Napoleon's most faithful general, is still living in Paris.

The eldest daughter of Gen. Mahone has one of the finest and sweetest voices Mrs. John W. Mackay has ever heard.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett never knew how popular she was until she met with her recent accident in London.

Charlotte M. Yonge, the historical writer, has written and published exactly 100 books. She is now engaged upon her 101st work, to be published shortly.

The largest landowner in the world is Mrs. Emma E. Forsythe, the daughter of a former American consul to Samoa. She has a plantation of about 150,000 acres on an island near New Guinea, and employs over 500 people on it.

"Nellie Bly," the enterprising young woman who writes for the New York World, started for a tour around the world last week. She is going to outdo the famous Pines in Fog in Jules Verne's story, and try to go round the world in less than eighty days.

RICH IN YEARS.

Land Bill Allen is the oldest anti-slavery man now living in the north, and the oldest one south is Cassius M. Clay. Both are 80 years old, and have been printers.

Hiram Lester, now an inmate of the poor house at McDonough, Ga., is thought to be the oldest man in the world. His age is 130 years. Mr. De S. Lester, though, who is over 80 years of age, says when he was a boy Lester was an old man. He remembers all about the Revolutionary war, and knew George Washington.

The oldest man in Germany is Markus Jordan, of Bielefeld. He completed his 110th year on the 6th of October. He was presented with a gold medal by the present emperor, bearing a portrait of the late Emperor William, who was a baby when Jordan was 18 years of age. Jordan is in good health and has possession of all his faculties.

One of the oldest men in the public service at Washington is Mr. Lawrence, of the postoffice department. He has sworn into office all the postmaster generals and their subordinates since Jackson's administration. He is an octogenarian. Every day he rides to and from his home in Baltimore, eight miles in all. He works from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. He superintends the annual publication of the bids tendered the postoffice department for postal service and postal supplies.

NOVELTIES IN JEWELS.

Bracelets are now being devised as square blocks of gold, held together by upright rows of three pearls.

Another bar pin novelty is a facsimile of a broom with the bristly portion formed of innumerable gold wires.

Numbered among the fancifully designed scarves is a circle of colored pearls, from which hangs a sery opal—Jeweler's Review.

DOINGS OF ROYALTY.

King Luis of Portugal gave the copyrights of his literary works to charitable institutions.

The grand duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin is one of the foremost horse dealers in Europe.

Queen Victoria is about to present a noble bust of herself to the duke and duchess of Portland as a marriage souvenir.

Carlos I, the new king of Portugal, has a variety of tastes. He likes military affairs, is an art critic and a good Latin scholar.

Prince Louis Napoleon, who was lately an officer of the Italian reserves, has obtained a commission as major in the Russian army.

The ex-empress Eugenie is said to be more than usually infirm this season, and spends a great portion of her time in seclusion and meditation, "as in her own home or visiting at the house of some friends.

Prince George of Wales commanded a torpedo boat during the recent British naval maneuvers. When at the post was washed down, he personally handled and shook hands with every member of the crew, and gave to each a silver home or visiting at the house of some friends.

AWAKENED PAINFUL REFLECTIONS.

Small Boy (looking at displayed advertisement)—Papa, what are all these things?

Papa (late candidate for office)—Pictures of household implements, my son.

"What is this one?"

"That is a potato masher."

"What is this one, papa?"

"That is a griddle."

"And what is this other one, papa?"

"It is a turner, Willie."

"What is a turner, papa?"

(Brokenly)—"A turner, my son, is—a—a—a dish for holding—for holding—run out and play, Willie!"—Chicago Tribune.

HE ROARS!—MUNSEY'S WEEKLY.

The Chronic Kicker.

Don't love a man who always kicks, no matter what you do.

Who kicks with most prodigious ease the whole long season through.

Who kicks if anything goes wrong, and kicks it all gone right.

Who kicks because he likes to kick, and kicks with all his might?

We know some awful kickers on this wicked mundane sphere.

Who came on earth by accident and kick because they're here?

They make themselves uncomfortable and other people sick.

They drive their friends to suicide and still they brags kick.

We know a man who kicks and kicks the blessed living day.

And if there's naught to kick about he's kicking anyway.

At times when things are going right and other men would smile.

He kicks on general principles, and kicks at the whole.

—Chicago Tribune.

WHAT THE EDITOR SAID.

He was tall, thin and hungry looking and when he told the editor he was a poet, the editor didn't say a disparaging word. But he didn't get his poetry in the paper just the same, and the man with the blue pencil and the preoccupied air made several remarks.

"Poets are born, sir," he said haughtily as he rolled up his manuscript.

"And I'm doggoned sorry for it," said the editor.—Merchant Traveler.

COUNTERBALANCED.

"Blinkins is a nice fellow."

"Yes, but he shows such a marked disposition to exaggerate."

"To be sure; but that is counterbalanced by one thing."

"What is that?"

"The general indisposition to believe him."—Merchant Traveler.

HER FATHER WAS A JUDGE.

He—What makes you so quiet? My other girls have all been full of fun.

She (with dignity)—I would have you understand, sir, that this is a civil court!—Lewell Citizen.

Mrs. Kate Chase has almost dropped out of notice during the last few years. She still is brilliant in conversation, as charming in manners and exquisitely cultivated as in the old days when she was the proud daughter of the chief justice of the United States, the unrivaled queen of Washington society, whose good work was the passport to social recognition.

A VALUABLE MEDICAL TREATISE.

The edition for 1890 of the sterling Medical Annual, known as Hester's Almanac, is now ready, and may be obtained, free of cost, of druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the United States, Mexico, and beyond. Every civilized portion of the Western Hemisphere. This Almanac has been issued regularly at the commencement of every year for over one-fourth of a century. It combines, with the soundest practical advice for the preservation and restoration of health, a large amount of interesting and amusing light reading, and is a valuable, astronomical, and geographical encyclopedia, and will be found entirely accurate. The issue of Hester's Almanac for 1890 will probably be the largest edition of a medical work ever published in any country. The proprietors, Messrs. Hester & Co., Pittsburg, Pa., on receipt of a two-cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail in any country.
