

ORIGINAL CHEAP CASH STORE

WE HAVE DONE WELL FOR YOU IN THE PAST, BUT WE PLEDGE OURSELVES TO DO STILL BETTER FOR YOU IN THE FUTURE.

Since we entered the mercantile business we've brought down the price on everything we deal in. We've waged many a war and have always come out victorious.

OUR AIM IS TO GIVE YOU THE BEST SERVICE POSSIBLE.

This means much, but our position to day enables us to do it.

Cash buyers also possess a great advantage over those who are compelled to seek credit.

The system instituted when our business was established—of being exclusively for prompt cash, and making rapid sales by selling for cash at small advances on the low prices that cash secured—has been rigidly adhered to ever since through all the gradations and growths of our business.

That we enter into a new year assuring you that we will serve you better than ever.

J. T. FUSBAUM, Bank Street, between South Street and Third Alley, Lehighton, Pa.

The Carbon Advocate

SAURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1900

LOCAL EVENTS OUT UP.

All the new books at Luckenbach's March Chink.

W. E. Smith is with E. G. Zern at the Opera House.

Full line of Ingrain and Brussels carpets at Henry Schwartz, on Bank st.

Lehighton has fourteen streets running north and south from Mahoning street.

The Evangelical Sunday school will elect new officers for the ensuing year next Sunday.

Moses Rehrig, of Lehigh street, three forty-four and won the thoroughbred English pug dog, "Jess," raffled off at W. B. B. restaurant on Thursday evening.

It was somewhere remarked in our hearing that the Lehigh Water Works had some expectation, or thought, of putting up a large manufactory on the flats.

John Bender, road supervisor on the Jersey Central railway, and for a long time a resident of this city, on Monday moved to Mauch Chunk with his family.

The Germania Singsbund took in a subscription of spoondrums at their Christmas feast, held at the Mansion House on second Christmas, to pay off their indebtedness.

The Germania Singsbund is now on a first-class basis and the star of success smiles sweetly on them.

Prof. Loistete's Memory System is creating great interest that ever in all parts of the country, and persons wishing to improve their memory, should send for his prospectus free as advertised in another column.

We have a few more de inquent debtors on our jobbing, advertising and subscription books, and we want them to pay up.

There is no use still shuffling, we need the money, must have it, and at once, so roll up, tumble up, settle up, pay up and be p. d. o. about it.

Special revival services commenced in Ebenezer Evangelical church on Monday evening.

Rev. J. H. Newhart, the pastor, is the spirited mover at the head of these meetings, and if his last year's work can be taken as a criterion of the result to come it will be more than satisfactory.

No person living will again date a document without using a 9. Last week it stood on the extreme right, it now takes second place.

1899, where it will remain for ten years, it will then move to this place, 1900, where it will rest for a century.

An exchange well says: "Don't smoke in the postoffice. It is never pleasant to man, but now that the cold season has arrived when the doors are closed, it is made doubly offensive to those who do not like it, and particularly so to ladies who may be in waiting.

The temperance or prohibition people of this town are vigorously opposing the new applicants for saloon and restaurant licenses here.

The applicants are J. S. Webb, an old settler and ex-commander of John D. Bertelotte Post, G. A. R., and John Rerang, a Lehigh Valley engineer.

The opposition are said to have filed a yard long petition against the applicants.

John T. Moore, big-hearted and whole-souled, with the Seymour-Stratton Company, was a popular favorite here, and was presented with a silk hat and diamond pin by admirer friends.

He has that rare capacity for grasping realistic situations whether in passion or comedy, that readily puts him to the fore as an actor of abilities and great promise for future celebrity.

In Called Back, he distinguished himself prominently by characterizing Paolo Marconi, a villain of consummate cunning, as the Danites he caricatured the cow-boy with a heart as big as himself.

Matrimonial-Nusbbaum-Angle.

A fashionable wedding solemnized in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church on Thursday afternoon.

The bride was the marriage of Miss Camilla H. Angle, an accomplished and estimable lady, for two years the efficient teacher of the Packerton primary school, and Wm. H. Nusbbaum, buyer for the "Original Cheap Cash Store," and one of our most popular young men.

At four o'clock, to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march as beautifully played by Miss Lulu L. Zehner, the contracting couple followed by Miss Angle, a sister of the bride, and Frank Nusbbaum, a brother of the groom, as bridesmaid and groomsmen respectively, marched by the aisle and took their places at the chancel rail where Rev. J. H. Kuder pronounced the customary words and they were made man and wife.

Returning from the church to their residence on north Bank street a marriage reception was held and at eight o'clock the same evening they left on a wedding tour-taking in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington before their return.

The young couple have the best wishes of hosts of friends for a happy and prosperous voyage through life.

CAROL COUNTY FILMS OF NEWS.

Newspapers from Here and There and Everywhere in the County.

The town council of Weatherly have awarded the contract to supply an incandescent light system for the town to the Thompson & Houston Electric Light Co.

W. C. Weber, of Bethlehem, representing Wilkins & Konner, coal operators of March Chink, Thursday made the first shipment of coal over the Allentown Terminal Railroad.

The Evangelical Association of Lehigh Gap, celebrated the birth of the meek and lowly Nazarene who was born in a manger in the city of Bethlehem 1900 years ago, on last Sunday evening by a glorious demonstration of vocal song, recitation and prayer.

The children happy, consisting of clothing, books, albums, tops, cakes and candies. A committee of six employees were chosen to present the gifts to the children.

This kindness adds another link to the chain of friendship by which the Coxes are bound to the working people of their town.

A writer in the lively Ashland Advocate says of a live Carbon county town:

"The other day the Rambler dropped into Weatherly, Carbon county, where he spent several hours among a clever and hospitable set of people, who live in an entire privacy, town that is an example of what a little place can do.

At one time the only industry there, outside of the Lehigh Valley shops, was the shipping of huckleberries in summer.

Now there is a large silk mill employing many hundreds of hands, besides a number of other smaller industries. In every square throughout the town is suspended a large arc light at the corner, and ere long the business places and houses will be furnished with the incandescent light.

Weatherly contains a large and comfortable hotel, the work of W. E. Smith, his salary will be $600 while Smith, for almost two years, taught the same school at $45 per month.

The many friends of Dr. Wm. DuFour and wife, of Williamsport, will be pained to learn that their dear son William, aged about twenty-four years, was found dead in bed on Tuesday morning.

The family formerly resided here and have many friends who express kindest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Rev. Newhart and family were agreeably surprised on Tuesday evening by a rush of their friends to the parsonage, and who behind them substantial evidences of their esteem and good will for which many thanks are returned.

Mrs. Carrie received a valuable purse from her young friends, the love and esteem of whom she highly appreciates.

The One-Armed Typo.

The National Police Gazette of New York, in this week's issue publishes a cut of William W. Mortimer, of the Carbon Advocate.

The Gazette says: "There are said to be but two one-handed compositors in the world, and the most rapid of these two is William W. Mortimer, of the Carbon Advocate, published at Lehighton, Pa."

He lost his left arm at the wrist in a railroad accident at Allentown, Pa. Besides "setting" and "damping" he corrects proof, has "pulled off" papers on a hand press, and until a few months ago held the foremost place in the Eastern Photo-Spender, where he was employed in the make-up—lifting as much to be with one hand as most men do with two."

Leitz and Warg Arrested.

Detective Haines and Constable Gift, of Allentown, Tuesday arrested, at Weatherly, Prosper Warg, the engineer, and Benjamin Leitz, the conductor of the freight train which was run into at Laury's Station, on the 21st of December, the collision resulting in the death of Engineer Mink, of the Buffalo express.

Both men expected to be arrested, and after a few interviews before the District Attorney, entered bail in the sum of $5000 each for a hearing on the 25th instant.

The entire crew of the freight train has been suspended. Warg and Leitz are charged with willfully and maliciously disobeying orders, and that their neglect and disobedience resulted in the accident which cost Engineer Mink his life.

Following the Golden Eagle.

The knights are the officers of Gnaeus Hecates Post, No. 315, of Lehighton, for the ensuing six months' term:

Past Chief—John Stark. Noble Chief—C. T. Hagerdon. Vice Chief—A. J. Litzberger. High Priest—Henry W. Holder. Venerable Hermit—Frederick Stahl. Master of Records—F. P. Hill. Clerk of Exchequer—Samuel Seiler. Sir Herald—August Kunn.

Worthy Bard—George H. Enslan. Worthy Chamberlain—Thomas Swartz. Ensign—Samuel Graves. Esquire—John Kridenweiss. First Guardsman—Leonard Frederick. Second Guardsman—Charles Bels. Trustees—Charles Bels, Samuel Graves, John Stark. Rep. to Grand Castle—C. E. Delcamp.

Lower Townsmen's Items.

The new organ for St. John's church will soon be completed.

Samuel Kall, of East Penn, lost a 400 pound hog by dark last week.

Contractor Nell is erecting a two living house at Bowmanstown for Edwin Kuchner.

PEOPLE WHO COME AND GO.

Personal Gossip about People who Visit and go a Visiting.

William Miller, of Wilkesbarre, is home on a visit this week.

Miss Sydney Snyder, of Allentown, is visiting W. D. Peters on iron street.

J. A. Wable and wife, of Scranton, visited here during the Christmas holidays.

George Remmel and wife, of Easton, spent last week with Lehighton relatives and friends.

Miss Minnie Vale and Ida Kern, of Allentown, spent New Year's Day very pleasantly here.

Homer Adams left on Thursday for the Frederickburg Seminary to continue his further education.

Our old republican friend John Fenstermacher, of Lehigh Gap, was a visitor in town on Monday.

The tenor Ed Brannik, of Philadelphia, was a visitor at the Ebbett residence on North street over Sunday.

Miss Alice Focht and Lizzie Otto, of Allentown, were guests of Miss Ida Wert, on Bank street, this week.

Miss Gerie Smith, who was visiting her brother Dr. F. L. Smith, for several weeks past has returned home.

Harve Morgan, book-keeper for the Herold Furnace Co., spent the holidays very pleasantly in Philadelphia.

C. Miller and John Gieking, of Easton, were the guests of Fred Miller and family on bank street, New Year's Day.

Miss Sophia Miller, of Saegarsville, a recent graduate of our High School, is visiting at the Dr. Seiple residence on South street.

Miss Ella K. Graver, one of our successful primary teachers, has returned from a delightful visit among Allentown relatives and friends.

Our young friend Will Wetzel, of Philadelphia, accompanied by his wife, are spending the holidays in town with Mrs. W's relatives.

Miss Irene, daughter of Merchant Reuben Fenstermacher, of Lehigh street, is spending the holiday home from the West Chester State Normal school.

John J. Gallagher, of Beaver Meadow, checked in on Saturday evening. He was collecting money for the erection of a parochial residence in his district.

Rev. Joseph Werner, wife and two daughters, of Pottsville, parents and sisters of Mrs. J. S. Newhart, are visiting at the parsonage. Mrs. and Miss Werner and Carrie Newhart are confined to their rooms, suffering with influenza.

Sauuel T. Dickenson, the new Superintendent of the Lehigh Store Works has returned from his former home, Columbus, where he spent the holidays. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter. They will hereafter make their home here and on behalf of our townpeople the ADVOCATE extends a hearty welcome.

New Officers Elected.

The following new officers for Lehigh Council No. 101, J. O. U. A. M., were elected at a recent meeting to serve the regular ensuing six month term:

P. C.—Joseph Bennett. W. C.—Frank Hoffinger. Sec'y.—George W. Mortimer. Asst. R. S.—B. A. Arner. Com.—Elmer Remally. I. S.—Al Hefflinger. O. S.—Al Noll. Trustee—Ed Miller.

Kistler-Bethel's Nuptials.

A very pretty and quietly solemnized marriage took place at the residence of Burgess Mahon Reichard, on Northampton street, last Saturday afternoon.

The contracting parties were Miss Minnie Reichard and D. J. Kistler, two of our popular young people. Rev. J. H. Kuder officiated.

The young couple immediately went to house keeping in L. F. Heild's handsome new double brick dwelling on Lehigh street. They have the warmest wishes of many friends for a happy and prosperous voyage o'er the matrimonial sea.

To Examine the Roads.

This section will probably be visited shortly by a commission from the State Legislature on a good errand.

Last Monday the Legislature passed a joint resolution providing for the appointment of three Senators, the Speaker of the House and five Representatives to act in conjunction with five citizens to be appointed by the Governor to form a commission to revise the road laws, and also to consider the advisability of the State assisting in the construction and improvement of the same.

Lehighton offers rare inducements to this commission to distinguish themselves for we have the very worst roads in this State.

WASSPORT GENERALITIES.

This, That and the Other from Wassport and Surroundings.

William Reich, of Franklin, is reported very sick.

W. H. Weigner, of Elkhart, Ind., is visiting relatives here.

Miss Emily Hoenen, of Allentown, is visiting Miss Clara Miller.

Our old friend A. A. Hatch, of South Easton, was in town Monday.

Joseph Green this week moved into Sheriff Lewis's home on Union Hill.

Mrs. Emma Frankendorf, of Easton, is a guest at the residence of Alex. Pfifer.

B. F. Vogt, of Newark, N. J., was calling on his numerous friends here last week.

Miss Annie Nowell, of Williamsport, spent several days last week with Mrs. E. J. Sewell.

Revel services commenced in the Evangelical church with their watch night services on New Year's Eve.

Nathan Solt was elected superintendent of the Chapel Sunday school, and Wm. Pfifer was appointed as his assistant.

Presiding Elder Rev. D. A. Medlar will officiate at the communion services in the Evangelical church on Sunday morning next.

On Monday Lee Willis received eight cans of California root which he distributed in the several trout streams in Monroe county.

Miss Magina, the estimable daughter of P. J. Kistler, is our new assistant postmistress, and she does the honors quite gracefully.

D. S. Hengen, of Franklin, was made the happy dad of twin baby boys on Friday who will help swell Pennsylvania's Republican majority some day.

Our population was increased this week by additions to the families of Dan Arner and H. F. Adams. The former is pro-d of a thirteen pound girl and the latter of a bright and bouncing boy.

The following officers for the Lutheran and Reformed church have been elected for 1899: Organist, Ella Berlin; janitor, Mrs. M. Meyer; sexton, T. F. Arner; treasurer, Owen Hunsaker.

On Benj. Klotz taking possession of his new home on the hill a few days ago a regular old-fashioned home warming was held at which many Lehightonians were present. Refreshments and music kept things moving lively.

The following officers for the Lutheran and Reformed Sunday school have been elected for 1899: Superintendent, A. A. Bels; assistant superintendent, Milton Flor; secretary, H. C. Trapp; assistant secretary, D. L. Arner; treasurer, Owen Boyer; organist, Magna Kistler; librarians, Cora Buss and Mary Musselman.

Mrs. Sallie, relict of the late Gustav Schreiner, died at five o'clock Tuesday morning of bronchial affection of long standing. Deceased was perhaps one of our oldest inhabitants, having lived here nearly on to three-score years. She was born on January 27, 1807, in Moore township, Northampton Co. She was married to Gustav Schreiner and five children resulted from the union—two boys and three girls, and of the number four survive, namely, C. Frank Hoffinger, Wm. C. Kistler and wife, Morgan Saksman and wife, Ed Godshall and wife, Fred Hassell and wife, of Mahanoy City; James Setzer and wife, Henry Godshall and wife, and H. J. and Valentine Beller, of New Ringold, together with a number of friends from Mahoning. The occasion was made a very enjoyable one by all present, and feasting and delightful repartee ruled supreme.

The parents were presented with many useful and valuable gifts from children and friends.

A Good Entertainment.

The musical entertainment given by the Order of Railway Telegraphers on Saturday evening was enjoyed by a large audience, almost every seat in Concert Hall being occupied. The first part, consisting of songs, jokes and the very funny burlesque "The Rural Dime Museum" was very good; fully equal to that given by many professional companies. George Kline, in his specialty, "Did You Notice It," was funny, and his baton and torch manipulations were very good.

Thomas Rooney, in his elocution, recited and jigs was immense, and was recalled several times before the audience would be satisfied.

The German dialect comedian E. L. Newhart, appeared in a very laughable song, recitations and exercises, and succeeded in putting everybody in a very good humor.

Frank Kauffman's cornet solo was one of the gems of the performance. Prof. "Killer" (Shindler) alight of hand performance was very creditable for an amateur, some of his tricks being cleverly executed. The manjo duet of Sandier and Heine was much enjoyed, and the song and dance act "The March Chink Dashers," by Graver, Ash, Downs and Shindler was liberally applauded.

The performance concluded with the farce "The Crowded Hotel."—Mauch Chunk Democrat.

The same company will appear in the Opera House on Saturday evening, admission 25 and 35 cents, and should receive the hearty support of our fun loving people. Diagrams at Zorn's, Lehighton, and Bier, Wassport.

A Lady's Fortest Companion.

PAINLESS CHILDREN, a new book by Dr. John H. Lee, one of New York's most skillful physicians, shows that it is not necessary in childbed to suffer from the usual sufferings, and that it is possible for any woman to become a mother without suffering any pain whatever. It also tells how to overcome and prevent morning sickness, and other troubles, and all other evils attending pregnancy. It is readable and highly enjoyed by physicians everywhere as the wife's true private companion.

At that it will save you great pain, and possibly your life. Send two-cent stamp for descriptive circular, testimonials, and complete letter sent in sealed envelope. Address, Frank Johnson & Co., Philadelphia, Pa. No. 1515 Market St.

THE INDUSTRIAL WORLD.

A Detroit street tunnel is projected which is to cost $2,000,000.

The Iowa rolling mills, at Burlington, Ia., are to be rebuilt on a larger and improved plan.

An employe of the Rombo, Mich., cooper shops put up 104 apple barrels in a day, and claims the belt.

European railway companies are gradually adopting American patterns in the construction of passenger coaches.

With all the risks from loss of wires from deaths have resulted from the use of gas than electricity for lighting purposes.

"Rustless" wrought iron pipes for water, gas and steam are so successful that in time no other kind will be used.

Spreckels' new sugar refinery in Philadelphia is insured for $2,000,000, the largest in the ever placed on a single risk in that city.

Iron and steel mills throughout the United States are crowded with work to their full capacity, and prices are fairly compensatory.

Good boiler steel, up to one-half inch in thickness, should be capable of being doubled over and hammered down on itself without showing any signs of fracture.

The American Boiler association condemns the use of cast iron in mud drums, legs, headers, etc., and in any part of boilers where it will be subject to tensile strain.

House builders in Japan begin their work at the top, constructing the roof first, supporting it with scaffolding and long poles. Then they begin to build the walls and construct the interior.

The Willimantico wool cotton factory's daily output of thread is 144,000,000 feet, or a single thread 28,000 miles long. There are 1,900 operatives, and the building covers three and one-half acres of ground.

GENERAL HISTORICAL FACTS.

A society of grammarians was formed at Rome as early as 370 B. C.

The invention of dice is ascribed to Palaonotes, of Greece, about 244.

The invention of billiards is ascribed to Henrique Devigne, about 1571.

More than four thousand persons perished by a hurricane which devastated Barbadoes, Oct. 10, 1780.

The baton used by conductors of concert is said to have been introduced into England by Spohr in 1820.

Files as instruments of handicraft are of very early origin, being mentioned in the Old Testament (1 Samuel xli, 29, 190 B. C.

Books with leaves of vellum were invented by Attalus, king of Pergamon, about 199 B. C., at which time books were in volumes or rolls.

Collegiate degrees are coeval with universities. Masters and doctors existed A. D. 825. These in law are traced up to 1149, in medicine to 1284, in music to 1461.

What is known in history as the "War of the Austrian Succession" broke out in 1741, and closed with the treaty signed in 1748, which determined the right of Maria Theresa to the Austrian throne in preference to Charles, elector of Bavaria.

Chased gold crescent brooches are making their appearance with precious stones sunk into them.

A fanciful heading for a side comb consists of heavy gold loops artistically arranged in fan fashion.

A diamond spur including three small horseshoes of successive sizes is a late addition to scarfpins.—Jewelers' Review.

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings, which cause painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, nose, often causing blindness or deafness, and which is the origin of all the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, is often when other medicines have failed, has proved itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was six months old. Being the most anxious mother, I tried the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.