SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1908.

LOCAL EVENTS CUT UP.
—There is always a continual cry for some improvement in diversified industry, and particularly in this case now that the Packerton shops seems to have reached their particular limit. The taking of shipping facilities and extensive territory for building purposes to town presents better features for manufacturing purposes, and yet they are not taken advantage of on account of the slow motion and fossil actions of the men who unfortunately have the money. Of course there are a few, progressive men, but with failure attending every effort it would be no wonder to see them grow disgusted and sink into inaction. Let us call to mind our people never understand that to move forward we must be up and doing continually.

Lehighton's high school class of 1908 comprises the following pupils who average in age about eighteen years: Wm. Wheatley, Eddie Gabel, Elia Drissel, Albert Durling, Gravelle Claus, Charles Bowman, Charles Smith, Samuel Miller, Edgar Xander, Albert Bartholomew and Edgar Gomery, eleven in number. In this class, as in the class of '07, the girls lead. The class is the largest ever graduating at one time in this county, and Prof. E. J. Stettler, the worthy principal is to be commended for his continued effort in behalf of our public schools. The excellent standing of the class is a compliment to his ability and creditable to his school.

A few weeks ago the young people of Trinity Lutheran church had a meeting with a view of organizing a young people's society. They effected an organization and called it "The Lutheran Union," by which name it will be known in the future. The following are the officers: President, L. H. Haumann; vice-president, Miss Lou Zehner; secretary, Miss Mary Ebbert; treasurer, Miss Gussie Claus. Several committees were also elected. The society will meet next Tuesday evening. The public is cordially invited.

Howard A. Deffenbacher, representing Gaden Hunter Castle, G. E. G., has secured the effects of the late Lewis Weiler, who was killed on the Jersey Central railroad at Parryville on the 18th ultimo. They include a silver watch, a torn railroad ticket from Allentown to Lehighton, two keys, a money order for $0 and a five cent piece. The effects will be sent to his wife, who is at present at home with her parents in Germany.

The stockholders of the Lehighton Water Company are requested to meet at Gabel's Hall on Saturday evening, April 4th, at 8:00 o'clock. The question of the name will be considered and the several proposed plans voted upon. As the business is important, it is hoped that every stockholder will be present.

After a continued business career, covering a period of more than a half century, our esteemed townsman Lewis Weiler, of the ripe old age of seventy-five years, retired from active duty. Out of harness, many friends wish for him years of health and happiness, free from busy turmoil, with that quiet rest necessary to old age.

An interesting letter from Mrs. Lucy Knecht, of Lockway, Ohio, speaks in very complimentary terms of the Advocate and concludes by quoting the prevailing prices on produce in that section, viz: butter, 15 and 18 cents per pound; eggs, 12 cents per dozen; corn, 20 and 35 cents per bushel; hay, $3 to $5 per ton.

The Advocate is represented at Normal School by A. O. Blose in Lehigh township by O. O. Blose in Lehigh township by John Fenstermacher; in Summit Hill by George Hutzinger. We will not be responsible for notices of friends or un-pleasant persons. George W. Mortimer is the only traveling representative of this paper.

Base ball received additional impetus this week by the arrival of the club's battery, the genial Hugh Jennings and Johnny Martin O'Hara. Both are great favorites and have looked on with an expected that the new park will be opened with the Catawissa club on or about the 28th.

George Stute, a prominent Democrat of Bloomsburg, N. J., a brother-in-law to our townsman C. M. Sweeney, died on Sunday and was buried on Wednesday. He was aged seventy-eight years and leaves a family of grown up children. Mr. Sweeney attended the funeral.

At an election for church officers last Sunday the members of the Reformed congregation honored Richard Koons and Samuel Elert as Deacons, and John Scholl and J. F. Moolthrop as Elders.

Handsome as are our leather heaters, together with a large stock of household goods, will be found at W. S. Kuhn's north First street store. You won't forget to call.

Rev. J. R. Terey will fill the pulpit in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening at regular hours, 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Everything in the line of carpets from a good rag carpet to Ingrain and velvet trussel, at F. P. Hell's north First street. Hags in exchange for either.

The best place in this town to buy your furniture is at Kemmer & Swartz's, north Bank street. Biggest stock and lowest prices.

The County Seat.
A Local Chapter of Live Happenings—Personal and Otherwise.
—Lewy Frederick, employed by the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company as a watchman at the canal docks, was caught by a burly tramp Friday morning and thrown over a bank twenty or thirty feet high. He is now in St. Luke's Hospital, Bethlehem, recovering, and the tramp, oh, where, where is he?

—In all honor to the great apostle of Democracy, Thomas Jefferson, fifteen or twenty of his earnest disciples feasted and ate and drank at the American Home on Wednesday evening. Among those present were Dr. J. G. Zehn, Thomas Arner, Allen Craig and J. J. Boyler.

—Rev. J. J. Stauffer, of the Reformed church, East Mauch Chunk, will on Saturday evening confirm a class of catechumens and receive them into full communion with the congregation. The sacrament of this Lord's Supper will be administered on that evening.

—Squire James J. Boyle, County Director of Philadelphia Union T. A. H., accompanied by D. C. Mulhearn, at Catawissa on Sunday addressed a large temperance organization with a view of bringing them into the Union.

—Rapsler & Cassidy have been re-elected solicitors for the Middle Coal Field Port District; S. H. Hollinger, of Lansford, secretary; Dr. Latham; of Weatherly, physician; and George Wells, of Hazleton, steward and his wife, matron.

—District Attorney J. H. Fisher, was at Lehighton on Wednesday looking up the Campbell-Hiskey shooting affair. It may be the last possible that the case will come up at the next term of court.

—Anthony Coll, late steward of the Lehigh Valley Poor House, has purchased a saloon and restaurant in East Mauch Chunk and will make his future home there.

—Applicants for political permissions are numerous thick on the Democratic side of the house and indications for doubt here with close rubbing are good.

—It is a possible probability that there is more truth than poetry in what they say of "Old Lehigh" aspirations for the Senatorial nomination. "We will tell."

—This week the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company paid to the County Commission $8000 as their share of the cost of the new bridge at Lehighton.

—Daniel Oleson, of Lehighton, an old and esteemed citizen, many years ago in business in this town, was a prominent figure here on Wednesday.

—Peter Lov is a new boarder in the County Prison. Up to Wednesday he had fasted six times at the expense of the taxpayers.

—A county bond in the sum of $250 was this week issued to Andrew Hartz, of East Mauch Chunk.

—Slaton wants Mauch Chunk's stone crusher to do service on their streets.

—An Open Letter.
To our Worthy Hedges and the Honorable Gentlemen of Council—
Most Esteemed Sirs—Permit me a humble tax payer to say a few words in regard to the most excellent manner in which you fall to practice that economy which leads to wealth. Prior to the late spring election there were those among your most excellent body who were led in their Expressions for Reform in the dispensation of such matters as pertain solely and closely to the public weal. If I am not mistaken, the scrapping of the streets was well classed as a New Maining. Now Maining is a word which was supposed to startle the people on account of their Progressive flavor, so also, the filing of the thoroughfare leading from the Lehigh House to the Lehigh Hotel can be looked upon as the commencement of the Great Reform Period. The taxpayers must not grow impatient under these excellent measures. Wise and sagacious men are to be congratulated for their noble and benevolent that the direct tendency of these improvements is to the benefit of the public weal. It is most regrettable that the direct tendency of these improvements is to the benefit of the public weal. It is most regrettable that the direct tendency of these improvements is to the benefit of the public weal.

—The report that Prof. E. J. Stettler, principal of our public schools, had accepted the situation of principal of public schools in a county in the State of Nebraska, is not exactly true. He has had a very good offer, but he has not accepted it, and we hope he won't. Under him our schools have been developed to a high standard, as the excellent examination results prove.

—Rishel, the photographer, has a number of excellent cabinet pictures of Gertie Hakey, who was accidentally shot and killed by her lover, Webster L. Camp, on the 20th ultimo. The pictures were taken after he and he sold quite a number of them at twenty-five cents a piece. The proceeds of the sale were given to the mother, Mrs. Lavina Soult.

—Rev. J. H. Kuder, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, will on Good Friday, April 4th, give a confirmation on twenty-four catechumens who have been taking classes during the past fall and winter. These, together with additions during the year, make the membership of the church very near or quite 500.

—OUR SUITS ARE MADE WELL AND FIT WELL. We have 25 styles of $12 suits and 15 styles of variety of $15, $20, $25 and $30, suits which we make to order and guarantee fit and workmanship to be superior to others at South Mauch Chunk. Price Star Clothing Hall, Mauch Chunk.

NEWSPAPER.
Local Jubilee Stood Together by the "Stroller." Things that will interest you.

Wednesday—German sermon, Rev. T. A. Huber. Thursday—English sermon, Rev. J. Alvin Eber, Friday—English service, by the Pastor, Saturday—German Preparatory Service and 2 p. m. English Preparatory Service and 7:30 p. m. Sunday—Holy Communion; German, 10:00 a. m.; English, 7:00 p. m. The Pastor, Rev. J. Stauffer, gives a cordial invitation to all to attend these services.

—A very pretty marriage solemnized in this place on Saturday morning last was that of Miss M. Berlin to one "Lucky" young merchant Oscar J. Seager, at the home of the bride's parents and in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Following the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served in splendid style. The young couple were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. They immediately went to honeymooning to Owen Boyer's building. Mr. and Mrs. Seager have a happy and prosperous voyage o'er the matrimonial sea.

—When the census enumerator counts doors and asks his usual batch of questions, friends of the following little cherubs under the lead of spring arrivals: a girl baby for Rev. Raitz; a bouncing boy for Dan Albright; ditto for Sylvester Sitter; ditto for H. H. Muselman; ditto for Al Dreibach; ditto for Horatio Younklin.

—Final negotiations for the purchase of the popular Fort Allen House, were closed between Henry Christian, the proprietor, and other parties last Saturday. He it is said will soon make a number of improvements in and around the building.

—The report in circulation that Barber Herman would pull up sticks and locate elsewhere is not true. He intends to remain with us—a thing of beauty and a joy forever as it were. Don't forget him.

—Handsome designs in wall papers, beautiful effects in ceiling decorations and borders at Biery's drug store. They must be seen to be appreciated and the prices stagger you for lowness.

—The first boat to go through Wharton's head's this year was Ben. Harrison, the son of his grand father, minus a hat. The captain of his royal ribs is Benj. Klotz, of Union Hill.

—The names of the recently appointed to settle up the accounts of Miss Katie Campbell, deceased, are successfully attending to their duties, and all creditors will be satisfied.

—Jacob Strausberger, for many years in the saloon and restaurant business on White street, has sold out to Henry Drumbois, of Lehighton.

—All things new, nice and just too lovely in the line of wall paper, borders and ceiling decorations, can be found at Biery's drug store.

—It is said that Frank Koons will erect a new frame dwelling house on the lot recently purchased by him on Franklin street.

—M. O. Kuntz, dealer in skins and furs, will build an office addition to his large warehouse owing to increased business.

—Miss Annie Scofield, an estimable young lady of town, spent last week very pleasantly at East Mauch Chunk, friends.

—Charles Boyer is the handsome, new salesman in Nathan Snyder's general store, to succeed our young friend Percy Peters.

—A letter from J. M. Snyder remains un-called for in the post office. If you're allude to this particularly from the fact of which you must be already aware, viz: the ready tendency of the public mind to look with suspicion on any act which seems somewhat strange to me when I learned that property holders were being asked to contribute to the improvement of the street, principally, that I could not convince myself that you really meant it, and anything that I may have said to that I now cheerfully take back, for I see that I was right. Fortunately for the taxpayers, you have in your Excellent Body, at least a few who will see to it that the public money is not squandered in making improvements that, while necessary, are a God send to many poor and weary men.

—Mayor Fenner is having a bay window built to the front of his White street residence.

—Al Miller, of Rickettsville, moved to Mudville, Lehighton we should have said.

—Bernard Vogt was home on Sunday. He left Monday for Virginia.

—$15,000 Worth of Ready-Made Suits.

CARBON COUNTY TIPS.
Interesting Items, Original and Otherwise That Will Stand Reading.
—With a train of nine cars—three sleepers and six coaches—Lehigh Valley engine No. 561, Mithelbach led the throng, loaded a run from Lehighton to Mauch Chunk—a distance of 15 miles—in 12 1/2 minutes. The run is considered very remarkable from the fact that the distance was all up hill and the train unusually heavy one. It is estimated the 51 can do even better than this.

—A persevering miner living at Nequehoning has with great patience and considerable rubbing succeeded in making a complete smoker set of six pieces, cigar case, cigar holder, ash receiver, tobacco pouch, match case and espadrill, from hard coal. The effort is very pretty.

—In jumping from passenger train, No. 18 at Mahoning siding recently, assistant dispatcher Peters was badly "rolled" and sustained a number of bruises.

—The Rev. G. A. Kunkel, pastor of the Lutheran church, formally resigned his pastorate last Sunday and will in a few days remove his family to Girardville, Pa., where he has been elected to the pastorate of a large and flourishing congregation. Mr. K. has made many friends in town during his short sojourn with us who are sorry to hear of his leaving, and their best wishes follow him to his new home.

—The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Pennsylvania held a convocation in the hall of S. J. L. on Tuesday evening for the purpose of completing the organizing of the new lodge and conferring the Grand Lodge Degree upon Past Chancellors, Brothers from Hazleton, Nesquehoning and other surrounding towns who were in attendance.

—Among the appointments made on Monday by the directors of the Middle Coal Field, we notice the name of our townsman Dr. H. Latham, who is appointed as physician for the institution. It is needless for us to say that the institution in the category of a school for the deaf and dumb, and the directors with the directors with lithographs. Strangers are invited to call on the directors and to the homes of our people will recognize the names of school directors by the chromos that adorn the walls of their parlors.
