—Already it has been decided that there will be no grand public demonstation in this town on Decoration Day, May 30th. John D. Bertolette Post, 484, G. A. R., will decorate the graves of soldiers dead who have answered the final roll call and been mastered out, and now sleep thei last long sleep in the several cemetaries here and at Welssport. One or two good speakers will be engaged for the occasion. The reason assigned for this is that heretofore it has been an impossibility to raise sufficient money to pay the heavy expenses incentification money to pay the heavy expenses included.
