many strange and interesting sights since its opening; but nothing more strange and interesting, than the Working Girls Con-vention that began here on Tuesday and adjourned on Thursday. In this same building two years ago, met the largest and most important Methodist Convention ever held in New York. It has seen the grand-imagine Susie seated down in the corner with all of her playthings around her and the adjourned by the President's Prochama-tion? most important Methodist convention era held in New York. It has seen the grand-est triumphs of German and Italian Opera; the culmination of its musical glories be-ing Patti's present valedictory. Here our washington Centenniai celebration found its bete noir in a dinner which is memor-able for its disgraceful failure. Here too only a few weeks ago the Judicial wisdom of the Union was assembled, and later still Columbia College crowned with Bays one of her yongest graduates, and er's be could claim the right to middle age, placed among the venerables of all time.
