What They Say of Mr. Rapsher.

We cip the following notices concerning Mr. Rapsher's candidacy for the State Senate from our exchanges: Hon. W. M. Rapsher, of Mauch Chunk was in town yesterday with Daniel Graves Eag., recently engaged in the mercantile business at 183 Scott street. Mr. Rapsher is being urged by his friends to accept a seat in the State Senate from his district.— Wilkesbarre Record. Daniel Graver, until recently a merchant

Daniel Graver, until recently a merchant at 183 Scott street, this city, was in town to-day with his counsel, Hon. W. M. Rapsher, of the Manch Chunk bar, on business. Mr. Rapsher until recently was strongly urged to be a candidate for President Judge of his judicial district, but he has positively declined, and is now a candidate for State Senator, to which position he will undoubtedly be elected, as Carbon county is entitled to the choice Mouroe county is entitled to the choice, Monroe and Pike counties having each had the office since Carbon had it.—Evening Lead-

We are pleased to note that Hon. W. M. Rapsher, of Manch Chunk Bar, will no doubt occupy a seat in our next State Senate. His abilities and experience will give him a commanding and useful position in that body.— Evening Star.
