

THE NEW NATIONAL GARMENT CUTTER.

The establishment of a Cutting School in Lehighton has been instrumental in more fully arousing public sentiment upon one vital question than has ever before been aroused, namely: "THE PRACTICAL EDUCATION FOR WOMEN."

Appealing to your most candid judgment, parents have you educated your daughters in such a manner that they can wear a good, honest living by their own efforts, if such a thing should become necessary for little do any of us know what is in store for us? It is a refined accomplishment for any lady to be able to look after her own clothing and see that it is made correctly and in becoming style, and there is no education that prepares any lady for the responsibilities and duties of life so well as knowing how to construct her own clothing properly.

It is only the second consideration concerning this life's work. The first is preparing our food properly and next is our clothing, and this is of the highest importance to all, and might seem very harsh to some of our readers. It is an old adage that the Cutting School is a harbinger of good wherever established, and the price of the thorough course of instruction is a mere trifle compared with its great value which is clearly demonstrated by the best judgment of some that have already been made. Good work with it, we cordially welcome any one to our Instruction Rooms to see and investigate for themselves.

Spice only permits us to give the names of a few who take pleasure in speaking of its worth. R. F. SILEY, H. DARRMAN & W. DIEBACH, Agents for Lower Carbon county, 1st Door above Thomas' Drug Store, LEHIGHTON, PA.

MEACH CURE, Pa., Oct. 17, '89. Messrs. Pitcock & Lavery - Gentlemen: Having attended your Cutting School at March Creek, I must say that I was highly pleased with the full and complete instruction given. Your system is by far the best that has come to my notice, and I cheerfully commend it to others. Respectfully, ELLEN J. HERBERLING.

MEACH CURE, Pa., Oct. 17, '89. Messrs. Pitcock & Lavery - Dear Sirs: You are what I think of the Garment Cutter, and I feel as if I could not speak highly enough in your praise. I have cut several patterns with it, and am sure that it is the best that has ever been invented. It is so simple and easy to use, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all my lady friends who desire elegantly fitting clothes. Yours truly, C. ESTELLE BACHMAN.

PEOPLE WHO CAN'T SPELL. Disfranchised and Educated Persons Who Cannot Spell.

A clever young Harvard instructor was once heard to say, "I really never dare correct a student's misspelling till I have looked it in the dictionary."

A great and universal contempt is felt for the person who mis-spells. But some of the wisest men and the best have always had the misfortune of being unable always to spell their names correctly.

A Cambridge provision dealer tells of receiving an order for salt "mackerel" from a Harvard professor.

A Mr. Smith, in his "Gleaner," loved to give instances of bad spelling and ungrammatical language in kings' speeches.

There is a tradition among the Indians that away back in the dusky hitherto knowledge of a cave of gold was possessed by an Indian family on the Saugan peninsula, who handed the secret down from father to son and so on.

Not many months ago, a young man of the name of Johnson was seen and six pence for him whom I could so well have done without. That may be partly the reason why I prefer the brighter Swiss as an occasional attendant.
