JOHN T, SEMMEL and William Zehner resigning from Council looses that body and the town two excellent men, and only people blinded by ignorance or prejudic will gainsay it. Mr. Semmel was in Coun cil for a number of years which attests the fact that his services to he people were ful ly appreciated, while Mr. Zehner, who but recently became a member of the body, was esteemed for his letegrity and conservatiam

NOTES AND OPINION

William A. Wallace, who is seeking the nomination for Governor on the Democratic tecket, has served 20 years as a law maker He was State Senator from 1878 to 1875 Census enumerators in Pennsylvania have that State are without names. They are known industrially only by numbers. It is inconceiveable that such a codition of things should long be permitted to exist in this country. The Pennsylvania laborers may are free workingmen. named as a successor to Chairman Kisner. He would be able to do more work for the Democratic party than a half dozen of the best lawyers in Penusylvania. He has been a regular attendant upon all party meeting of the Democracy for many years and h well known to the leaders. He enjoys the acquintance and personal friendship of every Democratic editor in the State and commands the respect and admiration of his journalestic bretheren on the Republican press. He has ever taken an active interest in State politics and can at once en gage in a vigorous campaign, while a lawyer, if one be chosen, will waste much valnable time to become acquainted with per sons and facts .- Hazelton Plain-Speaker Mr Steellis a gfibting Democrat and no betman Kimer.
