The Carbon Advocate

SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1890.

GOSSIPING GATHERINGS.

—In a mistake Bertha Farren, of the south end, handed the man who sells the tickets and does the shouting at the aggregation of wonders under the big tent at the Exchange, a $5 gold piece in place of a quarter. She didn't get enough change and the fellow was hauled up before 'Squire Beltz's court, where it cost him $7.40 to make things square.

—Dr. W. F. Danzer, of Hazleton, who has quite a reputation as a specialist in the treatment of diseases of the eye, throat and nose will be at the Exchange Hotel, this borough every Friday, commencing on the 29th instant. Dr. Danzer is a Carbon county man, having formerly lived at Beaver Run, being a son of Henry Danzer.

—It don't make much difference how much you kick, it don't count. When council gets good and ready they will have the walks in the Park put in decent condition. It cost several hundred dollars last year to lay out the garden, and at a very little cost it could be kept decently. Why not try it?

—If the weather is favorable on Saturday, August 30th, there will be a number of Lehightonians who will go to Allentown and take in the balloon ascension and parachute decent, races and haymakers corn husking and jubilee, on the Fair Grounds in that city. A big time is expected.

—John S. Lentz, T. A. Snyder, W. H. Montz, James Long and J. H. Wilhelm will make application to the Governor for a charter of incorporation for the "Lehighton Land Company," the object of which is to buy, improve and sell real estate in Carbon county.

—New etched, fluted, engraved, oxidized and satin silverware. See these beautiful new designs before going elsewhere. It interest you to view these handsome goods. Call at E. H. Hohl's Popular Jewelry Store, Mauch Chunk.

—The excursion of the German Knights of the Golden Eagle, to Reading and over the Mt. Penn Gravity Road, on the 21st, promises to be a big one. You should not fail to go with them and thereby help a good cause.

—Lehigh Fire Company meets in regular session next Wednesday evening, when there will be nomination for officers and final arrangements made for the trip to Chester. All members are expected to be present.

—Last Thursday evening Rev. J. H. Kuder united in the golden bonds of wedlock Joseph Hager, of town and Miss Annie J. Treichler, Cherryville. The young couple have kind wishes of many friends.

—The G. A. R. Drum Corps, of town, will likely accompany Mt. Pisgah Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of Mauch Chunk, to Shenandoah on September 3, on the occassion of the big American parade in that town.

—Maj. Klotz Commandery, K. G. E., accompanied by the G. A. R. Drum Corps, will leave for Freemansburg this Saturday afternoon at 5:25 o'clock, to participate in the grand parade of the Order at that place.

—The stones that are piled up on the pavement on South First street, makes walking a disagreeable, and at night a very dangerous task. It would be well if they were removed to a more suitable place.

—We almost made up our mind to say nothing about the condition of the Park, but we couldn't help it. One glance is sufficient. Why not keep the walks in better condition and cut the grass.

—All members of Gnaden Huetten Castle are requested to attend the regular meeting next Wednesday evening, August 20th, as business of great imwortance will be transacted. Be on hand.

—If you want to see a magnificent line of jewelry—watch chains, rings, pins, earrings and lots of new and novel pieces, go to E. H. Hohl's Jewelry Store, at Mauch Chunk.

—The syndicate who bought the old Dan Eastman tract in the West end will soon place the lots on the market. Prices for the same will run from $65 to $125.

—FOR SALE—A Boy's 30 inch Ideal Bicycle. Cost $90. $8 takes machine. This is a bargain. Machine is in good order.
E. G. ZERN, Lehighton, Pa.

—To make sure of having a sufficiency of water the school directors have had two hydrants placed in the school yard from which flow pure Long Run water.

—Oh, its too bad, but what are you going to do about it? What? The Park. It looks like a badly kept garden. Why not fix it up? Get at it.

—Mrs. Owen Haupt, of the south end, one of our oldest residents, is about after a two weeks illness.

—The Improved American is the name of a sewing machine for which Al. Campbell is the agent.

—Candidates who plant their announcement cards in this paper reach 1300 voters every week. Try it.

—Campbell, the jeweler, has an exhibition in his show window a large sized turtle egg.

To Celebrate Their Anniversary.

This month it is exactly one year since the organization of the Germania Sangerbund, and the members accordingly feel like celebrating the auspicious event. For this purpose the following committee have been appointed: Tobias Buss, Franz Roederer, Henry Zeigler, John Schaffer and Ferdinand Spellbaum, to perfect all arrangements for a grand picnic at Pine Run.

Look Out for the Sharper.

A bogus circus agent is on his travels. He was in Pottstown the other day, where he made mythical contracts for meats and other supplies, always being careful to borrow $10 when all the arrangements had been made. Of course the borrowed money was included in the worthless "order." At Pottstown the fellow said his show was the "London Royal Circus," but he may tell a very different yarn elsewhere.

The Two John's.

John Goldbach and John Veilhaur are neighbors and live on Third street between Iron and Mahoning. For some time past they have been at war with each other. A few days ago they had a battle of words with the result that Veilhaur has commenced suit for slander and wants $1000 as a balm to his ruffled feelings. We would advise the parties to shake, make up and settle the case as it will very likely only involve both in heavy costs if it goes to court.

A Pleasant Occasion.

Members of the old Aryan Chautauqua Circle with their friends, to the number of about thirty, assembled at the residence of Dr. W. G. M. Seiple, on South street, Tuesday evening, to do honor to Misses Mellie Major and Emma Kistler who were to leave on the following day for a season at Chautauqua, N. Y. The evening was very delightfully spent in the usual way—games, burlesques, music and recitations making the hours all too short for the friends present. At eleven o'clock the good-bye's were given and Misses Major and Kistler were loaded with the best wishes of all for a safe journey and a pleasant season at the famous Chautauqua.

Snakelets.

A rattlesnake with ten rattles entered the kitchen at the Penn Haven House, Penn Haven, and created considerable consternation until its snakeship was dispatched by a railway postal clerk who has his headquarters in Easton and who happened to be present at the time.

A Hungarian boy bitten by a rattlesnake at Penn Haven Friday last, died Saturday morning. His leg had swelled to twice its natural size.

After Sunday's rain a queer looking reptile was found in the yard of John R. Heninger, on Penn-street, Reading. It is about 5 inches in length, has four legs and a head and tail like an alligator. The skin is however, more tender and not covered with scales. Along the centre of the back is a silver line and on each side of the body a row of bright red dots. When placed in a jar it snapped at anything that passed about the jar.

—A gray haired and whiskered man with agreeable countenance and genial demeanor in town on Wednesday afternoon on business was recognized everywhere as Elwen Bauer, Esq., of East Mauch Chunk, for many years past the able and efficient secretary of the Carbon county Industrial society. Mr. Bauer is an old Lehightonian and a Democrat who was always for his party, and formed one of a trio of gray headed Democrats including our solid Burgess Reichard and H. V. Morthimer who were swapping old time jokes at the north end the same day.

Does It Mean You?

Appearing elsewhere in to-day's paper is an advertisement by Arhurst, Morris, Crisp & Co., Solicitors, of London, England, who are desirous of obtaining information concerning the children of Annie Goslee, formerly Annie Owens, wife of Charles Frederick Goslee, of Lanepore, Carbon county, Pa. Lanepore is evidently meant for LANSFORD, this county, as there is no town in this State by the former name.

An Old Soldier Mustered Out.

Nathias Schwerer, for many years a resident of this place died on Sunday after a short illness. He was aged sixty-eight years and was born in Baden, Germany. Forty years ago he came to this country a poor boy and died worth $3000 or $4000 according to all reports which will be divided among friends and relatives. He served in the late civil war with bravery. For many years he has lived the life of a recluse. Interment took place on Wednesday in the Catholic cemetery.

Believes in Local Improvement.

Wm. E. Ash, of town, special agent of the American Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, has received a check for $5000 to be invested in bonds of the Lehighton Water Company. In doing this President Montgomery, of the American, expresses confidence in our town and people, and at the same time testifies to the company's interest in an improvement which will be a lasting benefit to our growing city.

Rev. E. A. Bauer Resigns from the Ministry.

Rev. E. A. Bauer, who at one time, almost a quarter of a century ago, was pastor of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church, this town, has resigned from the pastorate of Christ Lutheran church at Hazleton on account of failing health. Rev. Bauer was admitted to the ministry in 1841—his first appointment being at West Penn, Schuylkill county. Later he was located here, and for eighteen years past has been at Hazleton. In speaking of his resignation the Plain Speaker of that town says:

"There are few men in this broad land to-day who have sacrificed more, or been more faithful to their duties than he. He has all these years ever been ready to devote wholly his time and means to the gospel. His devotion to his large congregation in Hazleton was constant and thorough, and no matter how unfavorable or inclement the weather, regularly he traveled from home to home and met with the people. The congregation looses Rev. Bauer with regret and he will be sadly missed from the pulpit."

THE COUNTY SEAT.

A Local Casket of Live Happenings—Personal and Otherwise.

—Children in the second ward are wrestling with the measles.

—Thomas Levis, of Franklin, was paid $1 by the county this week for a fox scalp.

—Marriage license number 1295 was issued by Clerk of Courts Esser this week.

—'Squire Samuel Zeigenfus, of Millport, was a prominent visitor in town on Wednesday.

—Sheriff Levan and Commissioners' Clerk Arner were at Kunkeltown Thursday on official business.

—Sheriff Levan will sell Jacob Eckert's horses, wagons and harness at East Mauch Chunk on the 19th inst.

—The silk and ribbon weavers of Allentown will run an excursion to the Glen and over the Switchback on the 23rd.

—Billy Adams' Allentown excursion on Saturday will flood Mauch Chunk with pretty girls and "de boys from home."

—E. K. Shoemaker and John B. Breslin have been appointed assessors of the east and west wards of Lansford respectively.

—Supt. Samuel Dickinson, of the Lehigh Manufacturing Company, at Lehighton, was a prominent visitor in town Wednesday —A. G. Peters has been appointed assessor of the first ward to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lewis Nesley.

—E. D. Decker, who several years ago was local editor of the Times-Gazette, is publishing a weekly paper at High Bridge, N. J.

—The Campbell-Hickey shooting affair will come up at the October court, and is the only case of any interest thus far calendared.

—A code of fire alarm signals have been adopted by the borough. They work very satisfactorily and are a commendable improvement.

—Sheriff Levan still has a love for his old home, Franklin, and lately bought a valuable building lot on Union Hill from Robert J. Hongen.

—The Commandery of Mt. Pisgah Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., will participate in "American Day" at Shenandoah on Wednesday, September 3.

—"Happy Sam" Cortright has been granted a divorce from his wife on account of incompatibility of temper and desertion. They have not been living together for several years.

—'Squire James J. Boyle, of St. Aloysius T. A. B. has returned from Pittsburg where he was in the capacity of a delegate representing the order here in the State convention.

—Edgar Fritzinger, of Allentown, who was at Glen Onoko last Saturday with the silk weavers excursion, fell from one of the numerous swings upon a projecting stump and was severely injured.

—Wallace Kreamer, of Millport, was paid twenty five cents for a mink scalp by the County Commissioners on Wednesday. Of late the number of scalps have fallen off greatly which means, perhaps, that the pesky little critters are being exterminated.

—"Is the independence of character possible where there is no civilization?" was the lively question tackled last Sunday evening by the Catholic Lyceum—an organization of representative young men of this place. The meeting was well attended and interesting.

—The unterrified Democracy from the four corners of old Carbon will get together here on next Monday and fix things for the delegate election and appoint a new county committee. In the appointment of a new committee some care should be exercised in getting the men who will work for their party and look after its interests.

—Thomas M. Phillips, well and favorably known here, who for many years has had the position of Division Superintendent of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company, having absolute charge of twenty-seven collieries in the Luzerne and Carbon region, last Saturday, sent his resignation to that Company of that position to take effect September 1.

—It is no uncommon thing to run up against a half dozen or more office seekers on our streets, but it is seldom that such a jovial, good natured lot of Democratic candidates as the following get together: J. T. Mulhearn, Lansford; Dr. Kreamer, Millport; John Conway, town; Paul Kresge, Towamensing; F. P. Semmel, Lehighton; W. M. Rapsher and E. H. Rauch, town, and Dominick O'Donnell, Summit Hill. They were all at the county offices Saturday swapping jokes and political opinions.

Clothing Buyers Read This.

We can save you 25 cents on every dollar's worth of men's or boys' clothing you buy of us. We want to dispose of our goods and have made this great reduction which means dollars in your pocket by calling at Sondheim's One Price Star Clothing Hall, Mauch Chunk, for your clothing.

New Teachers Appointed.

Miss Annie Jacobs, of Lewistown, Pa., has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the boy's secondary department of our public schools, vice Miss Etta French, of Tioga county, declined, and Miss Ella C. Sibbert, of Shippensburg, has been appointed to the boy's second primary in place of Mrs. Mira Delfenderfer, of town. This makes the corps of teachers complete in every department.

Are You Registered?

We have already called the attention of our readers to the vital importance of being registered or assessed on or before Thursday, September 4th. This is the most important preliminary step in the campaign. There are votes lost annually on account of persons neglecting to attend to this matter. Those who move from one district to another previous to the date named are especially in danger of losing their vote simply because they have never given the matter any thought before, and fail to recall the fact that their removal operates temporarily to disfranchise them unless they are placed upon the registry list.

The Coming County Fair.

Arrangements are already being perfected for the holding of the annual exhibition of the Carbon county Industrial Society on their grounds in this place during October's second week. These annual exhibitions have been the means of awakening much interest and creating pleasant rivalry among the farmers of the county who always put on exhibition the very best of their product from the farm and stable with the result that each year there has been a quite noticeable improvement in the excellence and quality of the exhibits. This is creditable to the farmers and society alike. In proportion also have the exhibits of fancy and miscellaneous articles increased until the "Lehighton fair" has become an event always looked forward to by the people, not only in this but in adjoining counties, who swell the daily attendance up into the thousands. This year particularly the farmers and all others should make it a point to surpass all previous efforts in this line. There is yet not quite two months time, so let us all get to work.

BASE BALL GOSSIP.

It was a great game and Lehighton got thar! Perhaps of the twenty or more games played this season by the Champions of the Lehigh Valley, none was more stubbornly contested, fought out inch by inch, than the game with Ashland-Mt. Carmel Combination on the home grounds last Saturday in the presence of 800 to 1000 people. Lehighton was on their metal and never put up a better article of ball—outplaying in every point the Combination, the strongest club by all means in the great region of hard coal. It was a great game, and at critical points the wind stopped blowing and people held their breath, but O'Hara, tireless, determined and with a perfect control of the ball was on duty in the pitcher's box; Jennings, reliable and indomitable was behind the bat; Christman, with agility and reliability, was on first; Simmons with no amateur equal guarded second; Rothermal gingered third in splendid style; Chambers took care of short stop, while Stalz, Yenser and Albright guarded left, centre and right respectively The Combination re-organized, re-inforced and strengthened in every point, determined on victory, played the game of their life. It was short, quick work up to the sixth inning each club drawing blank after blank, until in the seventh round Jennings lined a ball safe to left, stole second and passed to third on a short hit which gave Simmons first. Next Stalz took up the stick, once he swung his bat at the air, then he tipped a little fowl, then the ball with its wicked curve came moving toward him for the second strike, but he met it even on the home plate and lined it out safe between centre and right for two bags while amidst a storm of the wildest applause Jennings and Simmons followed each other over the rubber. There were no more runs scored by the home team, but in the eighth, the Combination made a point, and the game ended 2 to 1. We append the score:

We are the people.

It was a great game.

The Dutch are on top!

Lehighton plays at Jeanesville to day, Friday.

It may interest Tamaqua to know that we are still "wid 'em."

Leviston on Saturday. You want to see them. They are ball players.

Steel, we feel for you, but you should have known better. It's Lehighton, you know.

They call Lehighton "the farmers." In this connection we might add that the crops are very good.

From start to finish it was nip and tuck, though the home team outgeneralled the visitors in every point.

There was no parade at Tamaqua last Saturday night, but at Mauch Chunk and Ashland they wore crepe.

It was the other fellows who went down Jimmy Malloy's toboggan slide last Saturday, and now the gang who come down to see Lehighton whalloped are trying to imagine what struck 'em.

In honor of the victory the band was out Saturday evening and paraded up our main thorough fare, while the small boy carried banners on which were "The Dutch on Top," "We are the People," "Lehighton, 2; Combination, 1."

—Umpire Pettinos, of Carlisle, who umpired Saturday's game is to be congratulated on the evident satisfaction given to all. His decisions were quick, clear and decisive, and visiting umpires can learn much from the example set by him to be entirely impartial.

Combination defined means an intimate union or association of four players from Danville, one or two from Lebanon, one from Reading and two from Schuylkill county, to do up Lehighton by request of Mauch Chunk, Lansford and Tamaqua. It was neat little trick, but the best laid plans of men and mice aft gae aglee.

Lehighton beat Reading 5 to 3 Thursday in a game which closed in the eighth inning when Umpire Bartholomew in a close decision, called a man out at first. The club were stoned by the hoodlum gang who filled the air with their blasphemous epitephs. This game, as the first, Reading tried to steal from them. At Pottstown the umpire robbed them of the game. This is the story in a nut shell.

A correspondent to the Philadelphia Sunday Times from Pottstown says: "One of the best games ever seen here was that with the Lehighton on Wednesday and the kind of ball the visitors put up gives them good reason to feel proud and style themselves the champion of the Lehigh Valley. Up to the eighth inning it looked as if Pottstown was going to be shut out, but two runs were then scored and the game tied. Each club was blanked in the ninth, and in the tenth Potts.own won the game. O'Hara and Jennings were in the points for the visitors, and were very effective."

—Penn Bowman was in attendance at the State Convention of the P. O. S. of A., this week.

—The camp meeting at this place was attended by a large number of people last Sunday afternoon.

—The Lehigh & Schuylkill Division railroad will soon open for traffic. The company has erected a station at this end to be called Schuylkill Junction.

—Rev. Erb will hold Harvest Home services next Sunday morning in St. John's church, and Rev. Huber will hold similar services on the following Sunday.

—Phosphate agents were quite numerous in this section canvassing for the many varieties that article, while O. O. Blose is selling the Wilkinson Bone Fertilizer, put up in barrels.

—Two deaths in one family in two days is the sad news that comes from East Penn. Last Thursday Mrs. James Rachman, after an illness of some time, died, and on the following day a three year old son passed quietly away. Both were buried in one grave, and the funeral obsequies at the Pennville church were such as to call forth the sympathy of all for the afflicted husband and relatives.

In Glorious Expectation.

In glorious expectation Lehigh Fire Company are making arrangements for a grand drawing to raise a sufficiency of the wherewithal to nicely and comfortably furnish a meeting room in the promised hose house which council will (or should) erect this year. The drawing will come off on the 18th of October and lucky ones will win the following prizes: gold watch, silver castor, easy rocker, gold headed cane, fireman's badge, smoker's set, box imported cigars and one watermelon.

There are many white soaps,
each represented to be
"just as good as the Ivory."
They are not,
but like
all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar
