"A bank has some queer notions," said a veteran teller, "but I think the oddest who comes in about twice a week, lays down a dime or two nickels and asks for ten bright, new cents. After he had done this some half dozen times I began to expect him, and later to have a curi-ceity to know what he did with them, as I observed that he always placed them carefully in his fob pocket. "One day my curiosity overcame my politeness, and I asked him bluntly what emiled in a deprecating way and said specialist to Diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose and they were for the children. The cashier happened to know the man, and told me many years. This aroused my curiosity still more, and I decided to trace him, as we say in commercial transactions. I made a confident of the office boy, and will be given, and no questions naked, for the the next time the gentleman called the boy shadowed him. It was about noon when they left, and the boy did not return until long after banking hours.

Satisfaction.

There is a good deal of satisfaction in being perfectly satisfied, and especially so in regards to what you wear. In this particular we invariably more than please our patrons. Our stock being large, varied and complete gives satisfaction in making a choice of goods desired, while in style, finish and workmanship our reputation speaks far more eloquently than word. Call on us for Spring and Summer Garments,-Suits or parts of Suits. We guarantee perfect fits and finest workmanship.
