have been known by the name of the Republican party.

While its name has been changed, its leading principles have remained as firm as the nock of Ages. Indeed, it seems to me that the Republican principles of today are as wide apart as they were in the days of Jefferson and Hamilton. For illustration please serutinize, Senator Quay's methods, 'beaker Reed's gag law, the Lodge bayonet election force bill, the Merkiney Tariff bill and kindred measures, which were hitherto unknown in countries where liberty had a square footbold. This is indeed a time for the Democratic party to buckle on its strongest armor and re-assert its true fundamental principles, when such outrages as these are being perpetrated upon us, in the name of the law and the Constitution.

a doubt do some trade with you. On the other hand should your authority say that to be in keeping with Persian, English and other creators of fashion you must buy Platds, Stripes or Ohecks when you see our stock in this line you will say right again as we are prepared to meet your demands just the same in the Fancy Materials as in the Plain Goods.

Piain shades never showed such tone nor richness as they do this season. The colorings are simply perfection. As for fancy stuffs such as plaids, stripes and checks. They were never prettler (nor possibly brighter) yet some are quiet and rich, the shade blinding of these goods are all that could be desired.
