

ORIGINAL CHEAP CASH STORE

THE LARGE LINES

Of goods we have opened for Fall and Winter constitutes a Great Aggregation of the choicest seasonable stuffs.

The bargain list is larger than ever and continues to grow.

Although prices are being advanced by almost everybody owing to the passage of the McKinley tariff bill by both Houses at Washington, WE will not advance prices ONE CENT so long as the present stock lasts.

This means low prices for a long time as our stock is unprecedentedly large.

J. T. NUSBAUM

First Street, between South and Plum Streets.

The Carbon Advocate

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1890.

Overcoats and Suits for men, boys and children should be bought at Southern's Overcoat Store.

When a gentleman stops his paper, he generally pays up back subscriptions, and though the publisher may regret to lose him, she editor never forgets the man who writes "stop my paper," and don't pay up.

If all newspapers would publish the names of those who stop, the model of all men's honor. A newspaper is not run for one individual, as it has thousands of readers, and what displeases one will please another.

The Editorial Meeting of the Lehigh Valley assembled in adjourned meeting at the Eagle Hotel, Bethlehem, last Monday.

When a gentleman stops his paper, he generally pays up back subscriptions, and though the publisher may regret to lose him, she editor never forgets the man who writes "stop my paper," and don't pay up.

On re-convening at two o'clock the next place of meeting was made at the Central Hotel, Hazleton, on Tuesday, December 9, at 11:30 o'clock.

In concluding business the Association passed a resolution thanking Mrs. Hoppes and her son, Garrett, for the excellent entertainment furnished at the Association.

Republican Nominee for Assembly. George Henry Lantry, the nominee, sprang from one of the oldest and best known families in the Lehigh Valley, his uncle being the late Judge Lantry, of Lehigh county.

On re-convening at two o'clock the next place of meeting was made at the Central Hotel, Hazleton, on Tuesday, December 9, at 11:30 o'clock.

In concluding business the Association passed a resolution thanking Mrs. Hoppes and her son, Garrett, for the excellent entertainment furnished at the Association.

Republican Nominee for Assembly. George Henry Lantry, the nominee, sprang from one of the oldest and best known families in the Lehigh Valley, his uncle being the late Judge Lantry, of Lehigh county.

On re-convening at two o'clock the next place of meeting was made at the Central Hotel, Hazleton, on Tuesday, December 9, at 11:30 o'clock.

In concluding business the Association passed a resolution thanking Mrs. Hoppes and her son, Garrett, for the excellent entertainment furnished at the Association.

Republican Nominee for Assembly. George Henry Lantry, the nominee, sprang from one of the oldest and best known families in the Lehigh Valley, his uncle being the late Judge Lantry, of Lehigh county.

On re-convening at two o'clock the next place of meeting was made at the Central Hotel, Hazleton, on Tuesday, December 9, at 11:30 o'clock.

In concluding business the Association passed a resolution thanking Mrs. Hoppes and her son, Garrett, for the excellent entertainment furnished at the Association.

LOCAL SANDWICHES.

Revery Happenings as Caught by White Ankers Reporters and Safely Told to "Advocate" Readers.

—Sent us all the news, —1890 is the best yet.

—To see an article in the Advocate is to see a line of jewelry to go to the Mauch Chunk Jewelry Store of E. H. Hohl.

—Photographs of the late wreck on the C. & N. J. for sale at Hohl's gallery.

—For Sale—A six-roomed dwelling house on Third street. Apply to H. V. Morhimer, Jr.

—Engineer Lewis Miller, of Third street, has made the first crop of fruit for this year.

—The communion services in Trinity Lutheran and Zion's Reformed churches last Sunday were well attended.

—Rishel, the Photographer, has a first class second hand printing press with about 35 feet of pipe which will sell cheap.

—During last week Joseph Seidel's bakery turned out 2500 loaves of bread and 12000 cakes. This is not a bad showing.

—It is the talk of the street that our borough fathers contemplate the purchase of a horse carriage for Lehigh Fire Company.

—Housepainter Frank Acker has the contract to beautify and improve the homes of the Square. P. P. Lantz and Moses Hillman of Third street.

—All things come to those who wait." David Ebbett has laid a first class stone pavement along his First street properties opposite the Bank.

—Don't let awake half the night but try a racket alarm clock and you will be happy. Sold at the Mauch Chunk Jewelry Store of E. H. Hohl.

—A brick addition 20x25 feet in dimension will be built to the Methodist Episcopal church. L. H. Nottstein, of Third street has the contract.

—Special police Werner is doing extra duty at the Lehigh Valley depot. The customary nuisance has been suppressed which is creditable to the company.

—Some evenings since several street lamps on the back thoroughfare were broken. Up to date the guilty parties have not been apprehended. Why?

—If the weather permits the macadamizing of First street will be completed this fall. If not, it will necessarily be postponed until next spring.

—Thieves found an entrance in the barn on Burgess Leitch's farm in Nis Hollow one night recently and stole a valuable gun and maliciously destroyed the property.

—Samuel Meyers, of Glendon, is a new day operator at the Central Station in place of Frank Glaser, who caused the terrible wreck on that road a few weeks ago.

—There is some kicking on account of the street lamps not burning until a later hour. Complaint of this kind has been so frequent of late that the matter should be looked into.

—The old mill race standing for a century or more like a mighty sentinel on the bank of the Lehigh, has been abandoned.

—The Town Council will not commence any further special work for this year, but will complete all improvements now on hand. They deserve special credit for many commendable improvements made.

—Robert Tobi and Miss Laura Klotz, of town, were on Saturday night, in the midst of the wedding. Their many friends offer hearty wishes for a bright and happy future, with the hope that all their cares be but little ones.

—The three foot wide walk from Olweine's, in the south end to B. J. Kuntz's, in the corner of Second and Main streets, commenced at the Olweine end. Now let property owners along the thoroughfare hurry the improvement along.

—"Basins Way" in the Opera House, Saturday evening was not as well attended as the production deserved. It was, however, without question the best play ever produced in this town. Manager A. W. Weiland deserves credit for treating our people to such a dramatic feast.

—"The Mansion House, Lehigh, one of the most valuable real estate properties in the county, is in the market for sale. The house has forty sleeping apartments, elegant parlors, dining hall, and is a fine opportunity for a person desiring to go into this business.

THE COUNTY SEAT.

The Gossip of the Day Told in a Short Original Manner by a Special Correspondent.

—Hon. Robert Kutz was in New York City Tuesday doing business.

—It is a possibility that this town may have another newspaper in the near future.

—The July Twelve, of the 2nd Ward, will be the grand top in Stahl's new hall the 23rd instant.

—A lease house 25x30 feet in dimensions is about being erected by the East Mauch Chunk town council for the Onoko House Company.

—State candidates George Delamater, Louis Watters, Thomas Stewart accompanied by other well known Republicans will be here on next Monday.

—Work has been commenced on the new span to the bridge across the river between Mauch Chunk and the east side. When completed it will be a creditable improvement to this county.

—It was a grand rally of the Democratic hosts of old Carbon Tuesday when ex-Governor Pattison and party stopped here for a few hours. The old Court House was packed to overflowing. The candidates, Patrick, Black, Backing and friends delivered brilliant addresses and were cheered to the echo. Hon. Allen Craig presided over the meeting.

—The annual State Convention of County Commissioners will meet in the Court House, at Williamsport, Lycoming county, on Tuesday, November 11th. The three commissioners of this county and their solicitor will very likely attend. The call for the gathering was issued Tuesday by Commissioner J. D. Schroeder, of Lehigh, chairman, and J. M. Marshall, the secretary of the Memorial Committee.

—The following properties were disposed off at sheriff sale by Sheriff Lavan on Monday morning prior to the opening of court: Frame dwelling house and lot of Felon Phillips, located in Beaver Meadow, to Michael Mulhearn. Town lot in Weatherly borough, property of Lewis Heckman, sold to Julia Jacoby.

—College Notes. —Collegeville, Pa.—Last week a large number of the students went to Spring City to hear their favorite lecturer, Col. Geo. W. Bain, who lectured under the auspices of the Temperance society of that place.

—College Girls Club was organized this week and is under the leadership of Prof. N. M. Balfert. They now give "Yale, Harvard and Princeton songs."

—Mr. William Yenser, of Lehigh, a former student of Ursinus, came here on Saturday in time to see his former schoolmates beat the "Heavers," of Norristown, in a game of base ball with a score of 12 to 2.

—Quite a Success. —The fair and festival in Gabel's Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings under the auspices of Hollis White-Lewis, 384, R. F. P., and Lehigh Lodge, 292, R. of R. P. T., was quite a success in every particular.

—The contest for the several prizes resulted as follows: Gold watch, Lewis Sheekler, $131.01; George Kemmer, $61.70; bed room suite, Marie Ludwig, $200.00; Ella Zimmerman, $75.00.

—In the guessing contest, a handsome white set, and Sarah Remaly an easy winner.

—The Committee Francis P. Solt, W. Andrew Newhart, of the Trainmen, and Alfred Delamater, of the Firemen, deserve credit for their indefatigable efforts to make the affair pleasant for their patrons and a success for their respective orders.

—(COMMUNICATED) —Levi has Strayed from Family Faith. —In the Coal Gazette of Sept. 12th some one, evidently hired for that purpose, undertakes to give sketches of the several republican candidates of or on the county ticket, and among them Levi Horn gets quite a puff upon the ground that he belongs to the Horn family which was very numerous in the county.

—The Gazette Against Handwork. —As J. H. Hartzel, the contractor, and Recorder is a candidate for the fourth term, it may be well to know what the Gazette, the official organ of the party, has to say against a fourth term. Levi and his respected daughter of Carbon county, was beaten for the fourth consecutive term in the year 1887, and his opponent, Dr. F. S. Roth, his too was a popular success.

—All these men were beaten by their opponents in the year 1887, and their respective parties were beaten. The Gazette against handwork is a failure. —The voters here, as elsewhere, is a failure. —T. W. Steigerwalt will open his school on Monday.

—Roger Andreas and Joseph Freely are building a house for the purpose of the Lehigh Valley. The Democrats in this section are heartily unanimous in their desire to see the state and county ticket elected.

—Read this Carefully and it will save you dollars if you buy your own milk and buy it at the lowest price. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

PEOPLE WHO COME AND GO.

Personal Gossip about People who Visit and go a Visitant.

—John Konold, of Philadelphia, was in town Monday evening patron.

—Miss Myra Fisher, of White Haven, is visiting Mrs. Ella Riker on Second street.

—Mr. James H. Binny and family, of Wilkesbarre, are visiting J. T. Nusbäum and family.

—Mrs. M. looking Charley Christmas pronounced the agencies in Macginnle over Sunday.

—President Hallman, of the Lehigh Valley base ball association, called at Allentown over Sunday.

—The general Lewis P. Steek and wife, formerly of town, now of Rock Glen, spent Sunday in town relatives.

—Miss Stella Plunber, sales lady with B. K. Cullen on First street, is spending this week with the parents.

—Mrs. J. A. Steigfried, of Bath, and Miss Mamie Fennell, of Berlinville, are visiting Mrs. I. S. Koch, on Second street.

—Martin O'Hara and Hugh Jennings left this week for their home—the former for Pleasant Valley and the latter for Moosic, Pa.

—Mrs. Nancy Flick is back home from a visit of five weeks to friends at White Haven. The former residence of four years old and is quite airy for her age.

—Wilson Franz, of town, did business at Nequehoning Saturday. Mr. Franz is employed with Daniel Beck, the jeweler, and is a thoroughly first class mechanic in his line.

—Frank Lelko, of Franklin, and John F. Scholl, of Lewis, left on Monday for Los Angeles, California, to be absent forty days. The former represents Lehigh Lodge 292, of town, and the latter Old Hundred, 100, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Mauch Chunk in National Convention in the above place.

—Weatherly Local. —The genial and obliging bar-keeper at the Gilbert House, Jas. Warty, moved his family this week from Stratington to Weatherly. Weatherly's extraordinary growth dates from the last census. Homes are occupied as fast as they are erected.

—Our newly installed teacher, Mr. F. J. Warner, visited his family in Monroe county, Pa., on Saturday. Mr. W. is a unique most teachers, he is the owner of a hundred-acre farm in Monroe Co., and when he is not engaged in teaching he devotes his time to reading crops out of the earth.

—And now the town is full of bygone scenes of lectures treating of the home we live in, of house keeping, and of house repairing is to be delivered in Cassler's rink this week, by Dr. Pezles of Philadelphia, pictures, paintings, diagrams, models, alphabets, and skulls are used to illustrate his talks.

—Rev. Nolan, of Hazleton lectured on home and foreign mission in the Reformed church on Wednesday evening. The lecture was replete throughout with facts concerning the gloom of superstition and the darkness of ignorance in these Oriental countries, and with an appeal to the conscience of his hearers concerning their duty towards these unfortunate human beings.

—A fair and amicable lecture by his lecturer, —Gov. Pattison and party were in town Tuesday and dined at the Gilbert House. The party reached this place by special train shortly after 12 p. m., and left at 1:30 p. m. for Beaver Meadow, Jeannetteville, Auderston and Hazleton. Stirring addresses were made here by Gov. Pattison, Judge Black and others. A large audience gave ear to their speeches which were listened to with interest, while if indicated by the speaker, will give him a handsome vote in his town. The presence of such political luminaries has given increased lustre to the political life of this town.

—Ashland Settlers. —The potato crop here, as elsewhere, is a failure. —T. W. Steigerwalt will open his school on Monday.

—Roger Andreas and Joseph Freely are building a house for the purpose of the Lehigh Valley. The Democrats in this section are heartily unanimous in their desire to see the state and county ticket elected.

—Read this Carefully and it will save you dollars if you buy your own milk and buy it at the lowest price. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

—The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country. —The Lehigh Valley is a fine country.

NEWSY WEISSPORT.

The Doings of a Lively Town Briefly Chronicled in Short Snip-Snap Order by the "Strutler and Chum."

—Daniel Graver was at Wilkesbarre this week.

—Henry Shoemaker and wife visited friends at Cherryville over Sunday.

—Daniel Albright is back home from a week's visit to old Bucks county.

—Daniel Graver, accompanied by Mrs. Peter Krum are visiting at Mountain Top.

—Henry Stever and wife, of Kennedy, Iowa, spent last week with Henry Shoemaker.

—James Remaley and family, of Franklin township, are new residents of our little city.

—Warren Straussberger is the obliging and courteous salesman in J. A. Fennell's post office store.

—Valentina Schoenberg, principal of the Union Hill schools, spent Sunday in New York City.

—U. S. Kresge has taken up a residence on the east side, in the building recently purchased by him.

—U. S. Kresge, our boot and shoe merchant, has erected a big sign in front of his place of business.

—Solomon Yeakle and wife will leave next week for a brief sojourn with Bucks county and Philadelphia friends.

—Frank Koon and Ben Peters who were wrestling with typhoid fever for several weeks past are on the mend.

—In the course of several weeks our young friend R. J. Hengen will leave on a business trip to Iowa and Nebraska.

—Levi Horn spent one day tarrying on his place in consultation that Levi is a professional gambler.—T. B. —William Dreisbach and Josiah Muller, of the east side, left this week for Michigan where they have secured lucrative employment.

—Jacob Christianman, who lost his right foot on the railroad last April, is walking about this week on an artificial leg appendage.

—Mrs. Robert Hengen and children, accompanied by Mrs. Solomon Bryfogle, of Union Hill, spent Sunday very pleasantly with Catawaguis friends.

—Apples, cranberries, potatoes and all other seasonable fruits and vegetables can be had at Seager's store at lowest prices. Make your purchases of him.

—An eight year old daughter of Fred Messinger, of Rickettsville, died on Monday. Interment took place from the Evangelical church on Wednesday.

—A foot walk from Straussberger's corner to the canal bridge is an imperative necessity. Our wide awake borough fathers should give it their attention.

—Herman, the popular barber on the east side, will add another chair to his fashionable shaving emporium on account of the increased trade in his line.

—Dr. J. M. Brown, of Stratington, was in town on Monday for a few hours. It is said that he will open a branch office here for the treatment of special diseases.

—Fred Horicher has a force of twenty men at work on building the new dam for his water power, when finished, will be the strongest in this section of the state.

—Charles N. Stetler, of East Mauch Chunk, aged 28 years, was buried in the cemetery here on Friday last. Deceased had been suffering for six months or more with consumption.

—The Democratic candidate for county commissioner, we refer to Henry Miller, is in town on Monday for a few hours. Our friends and readers will be more than pleased in both prices and goods if they call before purchasing elsewhere.

—The voters here, as elsewhere, is a failure. —T. W. Steigerwalt will open his school on Monday.

CARBON COUNTY TIPS.

Glimmering Gossip of Crisp Condensed Items, Original and Stolen from the Newswriter.

—Jeannetteville has a new cornet band.

—Pleasant Hill, near Auderston, is a booming little hamlet.

—The corner stone of the new Evangelical church at Weatherly was laid with appropriate exercises on Sunday.

—The silk mill at Weatherly is closed down until the necessary machinery is placed in position in the new annex.

—Weatherly claims to have the best band in the county. The Herald evidently forgets the Arion Cornet Band of Lehigh town.

—Miss Ida M. Noll and Frank Gris, of Bowmanstown, were happily wedded at the home of the bride's parents on last Thursday.

—A change of text books has been made in the public schools of Weatherly which seems to meet the hearty approbation of the people.

—The other night John Gallagher, of Lansford, was sleeping peacefully and calmly, some cowardly wretch crept in upon him and plunged a glittering dagger into his breast. He will recover.

—The heaviest tonnage for three consecutive days, perhaps in the history of the York river, was on last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, when the weigh scales at Packerston registered 65,000 tons for three days.

—A hale and hearty old man is Samuel Noll, of Lizard Creek, is aged four score years and six, one day recently he was in the harvest field and mowed thirty shooks of rye. A pretty good showing for an old man.

—Harry Trevaun, of Beaver Meadow, employed at W. E. Carter & Co's. Coleridge colliery, met with a painful accident Monday morning. The men from Beaver Meadow who are employed at Coleridge take the early coal train as far as Liviston. Trevaun was one of the number who boarded the train Monday morning. As the train passed the crossing at Liviston almost stopped to allow the men to disembark. When the train stopped the cars came together with a great force.

—Trevaun was on his feet and mowed thirty shooks of rye. A pretty good showing for an old man.

—Harry Trevaun, of Beaver Meadow, employed at W. E. Carter & Co's. Coleridge colliery, met with a painful accident Monday morning. The men from Beaver Meadow who are employed at Coleridge take the early coal train as far as Liviston. Trevaun was one of the number who boarded the train Monday morning. As the train passed the crossing at Liviston almost stopped to allow the men to disembark. When the train stopped the cars came together with a great force.

—Trevaun was on his feet and mowed thirty shooks of rye. A pretty good showing for an old man.

—Harry Trevaun, of Beaver Meadow, employed at W. E. Carter & Co's. Coleridge colliery, met with a painful accident Monday morning. The men from Beaver Meadow who are employed at Coleridge take the early coal train as far as Liviston. Trevaun was one of the number who boarded the train Monday morning. As the train passed the crossing at Liviston almost stopped to allow the men to disembark. When the train stopped the cars came together with a great force.

—Trevaun was on his feet and mowed thirty shooks of rye. A pretty good showing for an old man.

—Harry Trevaun, of Beaver Meadow, employed at W. E. Carter & Co's. Coleridge colliery, met with a painful accident Monday morning. The men from Beaver Meadow who are employed at Coleridge take the early coal train as far as Liviston. Trevaun was one of the number who boarded the train Monday morning. As the train passed the crossing at Liviston almost stopped to allow the men to disembark. When the train stopped the cars came together with a great force.

—Trevaun was on his feet and mowed thirty shooks of rye. A pretty good showing for an old man.

—Harry Trevaun, of Beaver Meadow, employed at W. E. Carter & Co's. Coleridge colliery, met with a painful accident Monday morning. The men from Beaver Meadow who are employed at Coleridge take the early coal train as far as Liviston. Trevaun was one of the number who boarded the train Monday morning. As the train passed the crossing at Liviston almost stopped to allow the men to disembark. When the train stopped the cars came together with a great force.

—Trevaun was on his feet and mowed thirty shooks of rye. A pretty good showing for an old man.

—Harry Trevaun, of Beaver Meadow, employed at W. E. Carter & Co's. Coleridge colliery, met with a painful accident Monday morning. The men from Beaver Meadow who are employed at Coleridge take the early coal train as far as Liviston. Trevaun was one of the number who boarded the train Monday morning. As the train passed the crossing at Liviston almost stopped to allow the men to disembark. When the train stopped the cars came together with a great force.

—Trevaun was on his feet and mowed thirty shooks of rye. A pretty good showing for an old man.

—Harry Trevaun, of Beaver Meadow, employed at W. E. Carter & Co's. Coleridge colliery, met with a painful accident Monday morning. The men from Beaver Meadow who are employed at Coleridge take the early coal train as far as Liviston. Trevaun was one of the number who boarded the train Monday morning. As the train passed the crossing at Liviston almost stopped to allow the men to disembark. When the train stopped the cars came together with a great force.

—Trevaun was on his feet and mowed thirty shooks of rye. A pretty good showing for an old man.

—Harry Trevaun, of Beaver Meadow, employed at W. E. Carter & Co's. Coleridge colliery, met with a painful accident Monday morning. The men from Beaver Meadow who are employed at Coleridge take the early coal train as far as Liviston. Trevaun was one of the number who boarded the train Monday morning. As the train passed the crossing at Liviston almost stopped to allow the men to disembark. When the train stopped the cars came together with a great force.

ON ADVANCE IN PRICES AT ZERN'S SHOE STORE.

Zern's Shoe Store.

Although Leather is rapidly advancing there need be no serious apprehensions as to the result in this town and vicinity for we took time by the forelock, so to speak, and contracted for almost our entire Fall and Winter stock of Boots, Shoes and Rubbers, which we are enabled to sell at prices lower than ever before.

SCHOOL SHOES!

At this particular time we desire to particularly mention a word or two in regards to School Shoes for boys and girls. We think there is nothing in the way of school shoes equal to the "Little Trojan School Shoes!"

We guarantee them! They have solid leather outer soles, solid leather under soles, solid leather insoles, solid leather counters, high cut uppers, stitched with silk, soft, durable, grain stock, goat button piece, worked button holes, heavy drill linings. They are heel and spring heel, and in price run as follows: Sizes 5 to 7 1/2, 80c; 8 to 10, $1.00; 11 to 12, $1.25. See them before you buy any other—Handsome—Finished like a Kid Button.

E. G. ZERN.

BOOTS AND SHOES!

We claim to have the very best Boots and Shoes in the county for the money. Our English Kip Boot for $3-50 has positively no equal for the money. We guarantee every pair waterproof. The uppers will always stay soft. When you are in our store ask to see the best men's 1.50 shoe in the world; we can show them to you, we have em

OVERCOATS!

It is getting cold now, and you need an Overcoat; we have them for you. All sizes. Bottom prices. Big Stock.

Adam Mehrkam & Son,

South First Street, Lehigh.

Medium Price Dress Goods!

Extensive line of handsome Dress Goods in Plain stuffs as well as some striking novelties may now be found on sale at our Dress Goods counter. Many of the goods are quite as original in design as any of the higher priced stuffs, and for a stylish dress, at almost one-half the price of finer goods, they cannot be surpassed. Among them are plain woolen, numerous stripes in many shades, Irish twills, fine cheviot and mixtures, and a