SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1880.

The large and increasing population of this town makes it very important that we should be devided in two wards. At the late election 635 yotes were polled out of a passible 718. We are entitled to and can have the wards for the asking. Why is it not done?

If ALL postmesters applied the service of a passible 718.

IN KANSAS at the late election the Farmers Alliance elected a man president judge of courts who has no more knowledge of laws or its rulings than a cow has of astronomy. The lawyers will have things pretty psuch their own way in that court, and i sitice will be measured out in conformity, perhaps, with the judge's idea of his superlative greatness.

The Franch citizens of Philadeiphia have unveiled a status to Joan of Arc, the brave maid of Orleans, whose praise and glory is sung in every country. Joan of Arc was made the victim of jealous hate, but phænix-like her deeds of brayery, her virtue and christian spirit, comes like a hallowed memory from the past, even when her persecutors are forgotten.

A NUMBER of names are suggested for the very important office of Attorney General, No doubt Governor Pattison will make a safe and wise selection. But as suggesting names seems to be in order, we cannot, says the Mauch Chunk Democrat refrain from saying that all who know the man, and everybody in Eastern Pennsylvania does know him, will agree that Hon. Alien Craig would fill the bill most admirably. As a lawyer, and gentleman, and Democrat of the true stamp, he has no superior in all Pennsylvania. As it seems to us, the mention of his name should be sufficient.
