SLATKIN, in Lehigh county, is to be congratulated on having a state representative in the person of Hon. D. D. Roper. He ignored all courtesies tendered him by railroad corporations and thus holds himself above being obligated to them. If the state had more men like Hon. D. D. Roper the interests of the people would be better protected in the legislative hall.

Tax Prohibitionists of this state will meet at Williamsport on February 4 and 5 to talk over past matters and prepare to continue the fight against the saloon. The average Prohibitionist has considerable verve, judging from the number of times he has been squelched and the number of times he is to be. Prohibition for Pennsylvania does not look very bright.

For many years there was a lone Republican in Eldred township, in Monroe county. He always voted and had nearly 500 Democrats to vote against him. Easton parties once gave him a gun for his pluck in staying in a township where there were no other Republicans. Well, this lone Republican was elected County Mercantile Appraiser by the County Commissioners who just went out of office. This is something new in Monroe politics.

Tax elections bill introduced by Senator Quay Monday is entitled "An act to prevent fraud in Federal elections and insure the lawful and peaceful conduct thereof." The bill differs in many respects from the bill on the Senate calendar. The first section directs the United States District or Circuit Judge, on petition of ten or more citizens of any city or county in judicial district, to appoint three qualified voters a Board of Supervisors, not more than two to be of one party. This board is to be empowered to demand from the registrar a copy of his books, and after a posted notice they are at the polling place to purge the books of persons not qualified to vote.

SENATOR J. D. CAMERON will have been elected four times when his election on Tuesday, the 20th inst., takes place. His first service in the Senate was to fill an unexpired term—he was afterward elected twice to full terms, and is now the choice of his party for a third full term, an election which he will, without doubt, succeed in accomplishing in the Legislature now in session. If the Senator lives to serve this term he will have been in the Senate twenty years, which, added to the eighteen years served in the same body by his father, will make thirty-eight years of service by father and son in the highest branch of Congress, an incident in service not on record in any State in this country.

The monthly report of Sub-Treasurer Walters shows that the receipts of that department for December were $8,462,732.09. The disbursements during the same period were $10,502,263.70. The balance on hand December 1, 1896, was $24,145,218.05, and the balance on hand January 2, 1897, was $23,033,877.54. The principal items in the receipts were: Disbursing officers, $1,340,040.77; redemption and exchange account, $1,220,081; Post Office, $1,183,212.14; customs, $1,936,440.13; gold certificates, $1,825,000. There were paid out to disbursing officers, $1,100,128.13; for redemption and exchange, $1,120,789; on Post Office warrants, $54,845.51; Treasury drafts, $1,150,271.73; and gold certificates, series of 1888, $1,925,000.

IN AUSTRIAN CEREMONIES—As has been announced, by an order the Legislative Committee having in charge the inaugural ceremonies on Tuesday, January 20, Colonel F. Ashbury Ayl, of Harrisburg, has been made Chief Marshal of the parade. It is stated that fully 6,000 people will join in the ceremonies, independent of the Eighth regiment, N. G. of P., and the Harrisburg firemen. Justice Clarke, who is the senior Democratic Judge of the Supreme Court, will administer the oath of office, and Bishop Foss, of the M. E. church Philadelphia, will deliver a prayer. An invitation is extended to all State officers with their staffs, detached military organizations, wounded, disabled and honorably discharged soldiers or sailors of the war, political clubs, civic organizations, and the fire departments of the State, to participate in the ceremonies.

AN RECLAMER with more than a little horse sense hits the nail square on the head when he says: "A good plan to fill a place is to buy all your horse shoes and wearing apparel away from home. Fair-weather fakirs and peddlers. If you are in need of notions or toilet articles don't go to the store for them, but wait until Patrick Mulligan or Solomon Moses come around with their packs. Our merchants don't need patronage. Oh, no; they have settled in the community, reared families, built homes and pay taxes just for fun. They are seeking pleasure and not revenue. Don't patronize local tradesmen if you want to kill the town, even though you do get left occasionally in striking a raw bargain."

Some of our people want to paste this on the wall where they can get a good squirt at it here time a day.
