more importance to organized labor than the struggle for aldermanic houors in the Sixth and Seventh wards, says the Butte City Sunday ByStander of two weeks ago. In the Sixth ward Frank L. Rebor, a loyal labor leader, is fighting a splendid battle. Rebar is a worth. HERB'S ANOTHER for Frank: "No part man in every particular. For many years he has been a consistent advocate of the best interests of the working people. He is himself a working man, Mr. Reber is a man of cultured mind and can hold his own with the shrewdest speaker of the city in debate. He possesses good executive ability and is a responsible and upright citizen. En a responsible and upright citizen. Entirely beyond the influence of the wire pullers or the ringsters, Frank Reber would reflect credit upon himself and the whole city if elected to a seat at the council board. His defeat at this time would be taken to mean that the only qualification required of an alderman in that ward is wealth. He is one of the ablest and brightest men upon either ticker and thoroughly deserves elec-

MAUGH CHUNK is having a new Lehigh Valley station. How about Lehighton?

SENATOR HINES, of Luzerne, has in troduced in the Senate a bill which will be regarded with no little favor by the old soldiers , says the Standard, because of its justice. During the war, when drafts were impending, counties, boroughs, cities and townships offered local bounties to induce young men to volunteer, credit themselves to such from operations of an indiscriminate draft. In some instances the money but was promised to them or their families. Some communities were mean enough afterwards to refuse to pay the promised bountles and have not paid.

Lift your hat reverently when you meet the teacher of a primary school says an exchange. She is the good angle of the Republic. She takes the bantling fresh from the home seat full of pouts and passion—an ungovernable little wretch whose own mother honestly admits she sends him to school to get rid of him. This lady, who knows her business, takes a whole car load of these anarchists, one of whom single handed and alone is more than a match for his parents, and at once puts them in the way of being useful and upright citizens. At what expense of patience toil and soul-weariness. Her's is the most responsible position in the whole school system, and if the salary were doubled she would not receive more than she carns.
