ADVOCATE EXPRESSIONS Bad pavements in many parts of town are in no way conducive to religion. That's a fact; have you ever stapped on the loose and of a plank? You can't expect good government so long as the laws are held in otter disregard by the people. If the police force would keep their optics on the lookout the borough exchequor could be filled by money from fines, and there might also be one or two cells in the county prison occupied. There is considerable sin in this town,—that's a and maintenance.
